Re: PDP and Home Solutions Proposal

Jeff,

Home solutions wants to work with PDP to find as reasonable a solution as possible that works for both parties. At this point we are at the absolute end of our ability to get by. We are and have been dealing with significant market issues and internal issues because of the market. Because of this and the concerns that we have regarding the ability of all parties to come together to make a reasonable deal go through we feel that we may need to consider a NOI. But we want to try to work with PDP to ensure that you are given the time to secure and solidify your fund.

- Home solutions enters into the NOI process with TD and PDP with the intent to have a pre agreed upon solution so we can limit the time in the NOI and reduce costs and public exposure of the restructuring.
- PDP provides interest deferral for 12 months in 3 month increments. If the company can exceed a 200,000 dollar EBITDA per month then the interest deferral is cancelled.
- Home solutions continues to hold the 9.1 million in debt for 12 months (could be extended) after we exit the NOI
- Then at the end of the 12 month period PDP will forgive the debt to a new total number of 2,500,000. PDP will be paid out by the new lender at this point. This will allow you time to strengthen your fund.
- Andrews Guarantee will be removed
- Home solutions acquires DIP financing for short term needs while going through the NOI process
- New lender loans 2million to pay out TD operating line so Home Solutions has the necessary working capital
- Current partners inject additional 300-400k Post exiting NOI for necessary short term projects

I would encourage you to do everything you can at this point

I just got the demand note. Does this mean even if I get this sorted out tonight it is too late?

No. You can cure it but as I said we are out of time. We need to have a discussion after the TD call about the way forward

Is there a point to the TD call?

Yes We need to talk with them. I don't have their demand letter yet so I have no clue where they stand

Can you authorize us to speak directly with them as requested?

Attention: Andrew Davidson

Dear Mr. Davidson,

We refer to the Letter Agreement dated March 7, 2022, as amended from time to time, (the "Agreement") signed by you in relation to the credit facility (the "Facility") granted to you by the Bank.

One of your obligations (the "Obligation") under the Agreement is:

Financial Covenant

1) Ensure the outstanding advances under Facility #1 will be at all times the lesser of:

1. CAD $1,250,000, increasing to $2,000,000 until April 30, 2022, and decreasing to $1,500,000 until October 31, 2022, and

2. The total of:

A) 75% of the trade receivables value*, net of over 90-day accounts, holdbacks, customer deposits, related accounts, and source deductions, and

B) 50% of the raw materials and finished goods inventory value net of trade payables, except that the amount calculated under (B) shall not exceed CAD $400,000.

*For clarity, trade receivables value will include "Accrued Sales" as listed out in the Borrower's monthly reporting until the reporting period ending on February 28, 2022. Thereafter, only the values listed out in the A/R listing will be included in the trade receivables value for the purposes of borrowing base calculation.

For the month ending on March 31, 2022, there is a shortfall to the Borrowing Base Condition (BBC) of $413,846. In addition, the current Facility #1 utilization of $2,074,620 as at April 29, 2022 has increased this shortfall to $719,838.

Please be advised that Home Solutions Corporation has until May 3, 2022 to bring the outstanding advances under Facility #1 in line with the facility limit of $1,500,000. In the interim, any outgoing transactions that increase Facility #1 utilization above $2,074,620 will be automatically returned without notice. Per the Agreement, a $500 Default Fee will be collected.

You are in default of this Obligation and the Bank does not waive compliance with this Obligation. Please be advised that the Bank preserves all rights and remedies under any and all agreements and security provided in connection with the Facility. If you fail to rectify the default to the complete satisfaction of the Bank, the Bank will exercise any or all rights and remedies under such agreements and security, and/or such rights and remedies as may otherwise be available to it at law.

If you have any queries or comments, please do not hesitate to contact the writer.

Yours truly,

Andrew, you and you alone have pushed this to the brink. I am really hoping you see the light and do what is best for you, your family and your directors. You are introducing an incredible amount of liability to everyone. Your actions have removed a lot of the decision making from my control. I would really consider doing what is best for you and your family and the company... it will end up as the same result no matter what... just a matter of how much damage is done getting there. I'm always open to talk.

Are you able to come to the call tonight? I want to discuss the way to get this done.

Larry,

Sam and Jeff attended the board meeting, and all went as planned. 4 of 5 Directors were in attendance and approved the motion. Jeff has validly been appointed as a director.

Later today, I expect to get you:

- The resolution, signed by the four directors present and the one who was not present
- Resignations today from all the directors and officers
- Andrew's signed counterpart of the Forbearance Agreement.

Can you send us whatever share transfer documentation you want, as contemplated by section 5.02 of the Agreement? I think that's the only additional document required.

Thanks

Chris Simard

Jeff what do you need from me today? I need that communication from you so I can put it on my voicemail and my email. Do you have the CRO and the new president in place? Or are you filling those roles?

No one in place yet.

Ok we really need to communicate with the builders or this could spiral fast.

Who is the best person on your team to have emails/voicemail forwarded to? You would know that... I would reach out to them to discuss

I agree. We are working on that

We need collections ASAP

Trying to arrange a meeting with your team to go through the outstanding receivables

Do you want me to come in today to talk with the john on AR? The inventory is bad we have been talking about it for 5 months. We pointed it out prior to the initial deal. We reviewed with with Ryan as well. I showed him in the system where it was breaking down.

We have been hand to mouth for 2 months and that is why the plans we have been presenting are looking for a 500k injection to rebuild inventory and to halt the stop start nature we have been I .

Do not plan to come in. Please send me instructions as to what needs to be worked through with John

Ok, I'll get it together for you

Hi Jeff just in regards to AR you need to sit down with John Deavilla get him to show you which builders he's emailed statements to and get him to outline any other ones with commitments and any other ones that have pushed back. Then I think you need to have him or yourself contact Sterling and pacesetter Mattamy Cardel Envision Custom Renovations as your starting point conversations with people who should be doing some sort of deposit let's start there and see what happens next. Let me know if I can do anything else in the mean time

Thu, May 12, 5:05 PM

Did you confirm you can sign those cheques?

Otherwise payroll is in jeopardy

I'm just waiting to hear if I'm allowed or if because I resigned and stepped down I'm not

Jeff there are rumors going out in the industry that I'm out and builders are starting to panic. You need to get ahead of this today.

I don't know where this is coming from. But you have to address it immediately.

We need to sign the deal that has been negotiated over the last few days and your group has to meet management and keep them on side to help the next 90 days.

I'm telling you this as there are a lot of staff that I'm concerned about and they are my focus at this point.

What can you do to sign this by noon? I'll sign off on my side. Then you need to start contacting builders and clients.

Call me, I hope last night raises some of the necessary funds for you.

Hi Ryan,

Unfortunately, there has been a shift on some dates due to us going down a glass crew from an injury. We originally planned on having this crew back on the road installing when we were scheduling out dates but have now been informed that he will need to be on modified duty over the next couple of months. This will impact all jobs we have scheduled over the next couple of weeks, we've had to go in and rearrange schedules but our doing our best to not move jobs that are scheduled with homeowners already. Along with this, there was a resignation on the shelving side which has impacted those schedules.

We are hoping to have another crew and/or subcontractors going in the next week or two which will then result in seeing these dates shift back again. Coordinating will keep your team updated on dates as they change, as well the weekly spreadsheet will continue to be sent and will document any changes. If there are any openings for installs that become available, we will shift these jobs back to earlier dates.

Thank you,

Makenzie

Hi Makenzie,

Thank you for sending this.

Andrew, I was hopeful that we would be catching up to requested install dates because we had pre-purchased the material. From your email on the 23rd it sounded like it was a matter of juggling some jobs.

From the update today – That does not appear to be the case.

Please advise.

Hey guys

Please see my attached update. I also added another tab to cover off the Carrington and the Airdrie addresses. It isn't in your format, but the information is there. There are a few on all areas that were slated to be completed today and I just don't have the update from our installers, we will update you tomorrow on those.

As for the time slots for clients we can work with a 9:00-12:00 window or a 1:00-4:00. If the client cant make that work then we will need to make them a first stop of the day which is usually 9:00. This may just limit some of the days available to them. We are just a little cautious when we book an exact hour for the apt as traffic or other issues can come up that are beyond our control. When your warranty people contact the client just let us know if a first stop is a must for that client and we will try to work that out for them.

Lets find a time to touch base on this list tomorrow to make sure we are on the same page with the updates

Thank you

Hey Andrew, seeing as we were unable to touch base this morning, I updated your list and added a "Current Status" column.
Could you please review and update at your earliest opportunity and then we can touch base tomorrow late morning or afternoon.

I have also attached an email we received from Gina stating that you are unable to schedule specific times for post possession appointments, such as installing backordered items. This is unacceptable, as it is unreasonable to request that our homeowners and our team set aside an entire day waiting for you to show up; it is our expectation that we set a specific time.

Thanks again for your attention to this and I look forward to hearing from you.

Ryan,

Thank you for the time today and the information your team was able to provide me. I reviewed the list and it does look like jobs are getting done but when I went back to my group it was clear that their communication is not sufficient and there have been other breakdowns with what product they are going to site with. Starting tomorrow here is what they are going to do:

- Any time we receive a scheduling notice you will receive a communication back that the job has been booked and the date set in our system. If we cant meet that date we will propose a different date. This way your site supers will know well ahead of time when we are coming. This is for pre possession houses
- If for what ever reason we can not meet that date as we get closer, you will receive a communication that the install had to be bumped and that we will give you a new date for measure or install.
- Our install crews will email your site supers directly as well when they have completed the install, if there were any deficiencies they will also notify you of those and include pictures of the completed work
- Our coordinating group will respond to your emails and calls within 48hrs, with the expectation that moves to 24hrs. If it is an emergency then your group can contact their managers for a quicker response. Or if you are not getting responses within those time frames you can contact the managers or myself as well (contact info below)
- On our outstanding jobs that are now post possession we will continue to book those through your warranty group.
- Last week we had some jobs that were set with customers and products were either missing or damaged before they went out. I will ensure that jobs are going out to your clients houses are complete and ready to go. This was embarrassing last week and wont happen again.
- We will be breaking down our coordinating departments into a north south spilt as we feel this will allow a lower work volume for our coordinators so they can be more responsive to your calls and emails.

I will send the updated list tomorrow morning after my call with Paul, I just needed to confirm a couple addresses with him

That's what the Aged Receivables Report is showing as of today. Where are you seeing $1,948,000?

Yes, the BBC calculation defines that customer deposits must be subtracted from AR.

Why is the ar so low should it be 1,948,000? Do you have to include the deposit credits?

Draft

Discussion Paper

The purpose of this refinancing proposal is to give Home Solutions Inc the working capital and turn around plan that is necessary to continue operations and return to profitability.

Terms

The proposal is to lend 2.5MM to Home Solutions (HIS) from Investor Group (IG) as in interest free loan for the span of 12 months. At the end of 12 months this loan can be converted to 100% of the common equity of this business. While the capital injection remains a loan it takes priority position of PDP position in the capital stack on all assets except those prescribed by in TD bank operating loan agreement.

SMI Current Issues

SMI has suffered insufficient working capital which has caused the company to be caught in a start/stop problem as they wait for collections.

- Partially completed ordered
- Highly unsatisfied customers
- Inability to consistently generate earnings which allows overhead to eat through profits and existing working capital

A/R and Billing

Currently SMI has struggled to properly track orders being completed, billed, and paid in a timely fashion. This has caused A/R to stretch beyond 90 days. They also have a hard time determining when a job is complete for billing

Job Prioritization

- Due to stop/start and COVID supply issues HIS has pushed out orders that were partially complete. The system was not robust to return to those orders to complete, bill, and collect. The company has accumulated $600,000 of such orders. This has also caused dissatisfaction with customers waiting for the jobs to be completed

Supply Issues with COVID

- Covid has caused supply issues with delays or limited ability to get inventory. Most companies were able to bulk purchase and store inventory on the shelves to help absorb the disrupted supply chain issues. HIS was undercapitalized and attempted to run a Just In Time supply chain which further exasperated A/R Billing and Job Prioritization

Bloated Expenses

HIS was struggled with HR issues, high trucking expenses, and inefficient allocation of resources.

Customer Service

The company has struggled with properly communicate with customers. Retail customers are frustrated with the current phone system. Home Buildings are frustrated with lack of communication on projects progress. There is sense in the market that HIS cannot be trusted with the communication that has occurred up to this date. Current management has struggled to bring the team together to execute on this. Current Google Reviews are a great example of the problems existing.

Financial Controls

The company has not accurately kept good financial records. This has caused the misallocation of resources. It has also prevented management the correct information to effectively manage cash flow, measure margins, and allocate resources properly.

Use of Capital

The current capital being injected in the company will be used as illustrated on this chart below:

	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov
	Month 1	Month 2	Month 3	Month 4	Month 5	Month 6	Month 7
Beginning Cash Flow	- 2,500,000	- 1,528,000	- 1,656,000	- 1,784,000	- 1,692,000	- 1,670,000	- 1,748,000
TD Bulge Repayment	250,000
Inventory	500,000	-	-	-
Restructuring Costs	100,000	50,000	50,000	50,000

Less Rent		-	-	-	-	-	-
Less PDP Interest	- 78,000	- 78,000	- 78,000	- 78,000	- 78,000	- 78,000	-
Extra Collections	-	- 300,000	- 300,000
Ending Cash Balance	- 1,528,000	- 1,656,000	- 1,784,000	- 1,692,000	- 1,670,000	- 1,748,000	- 1,748,000

PDP has hired Jane and Ryan who have completed an exhaustive cash-based report of revenues and expenses. Management has verified current A/R and an inventory count has been completed to verify the balance sheet. According to this report we currently estimate the company after purchasing mandatory inventory and paying all vendors, lenders, and the landlord is currently running a negative cash flow of $200,000. It is difficult to say whether the company is profitable and storing cash inside inventory and A/R or struggling with negative EBITDA. The above chart shows how the proposed capital will be injected into the company. Initial inventory will be purchased for $500,000. This will put three months of inventory to minimize the supply issued caused by COVID.

Inventory for three months
Wire Shelf	300,000
Wood	50,000
Wood Hardware	30,000
Glass Hardware	60,000
Consumables	10,000
Raw Glass	60,000
Total	510,000

Over time this inventory will be drawn down as supply chain issues resolve themselves. We expect the company to continue to have negative cash flow of $200,000 for three months and slowing reduce to cash flow neutral by Oct. The reason for the continued negative cash flow is our estimation of 30 days to manufacture, install product, and bill, and 60 days to collect. We also expect there to be some market hesitancy in reengaging with HIS until service is restored to history consistency. From a positive cash flow perspective, we expect to collect $600,000 from existing partial orders and some interest forbearance/ deferral from PDP. We have also included a budget of $250,000 for restructuring costs which include: needed severances, software implementation, new management recruitment costs, other unknown needs. We are currently working with the landlord for a rent deferral in exchange for positive treatment of VTB which could further bolster the resiliency of this plan. Outstanding GST???

I have projected a worst-case scenario above that shows that if we continue to struggle with current issues we have a window of 12 months before the current capital injection would be exhausted. If negative cash flow intensifies by 50% to $300,000 a month the new investment group would have 8 months before cash was exhausted.

Cumulative Return			-51%	32%	95%	388%	512%

The above-mentioned summary makes the following assumption. We assume that we can in the first year achieve a 1.2MM of EBITDA return on investment. This is an average return of $100,000 per month. This first year includes PDP deferring interest for the first 6 months. (May change with negotiations with the landlord.) The second year looks to achieve EBITDA of 2.4MM or 200K per month. This EBITFA would allow the company to resume current interest and principal payments to PDP. From conversations with TD they would be open to refinancing the debt when two years of EBITDA stabilization occurred. This would cause the interest expense to drop by the difference in interest rates. Current rates to PDP is 10% and TD would be Prime +2% (6%). This would cause interest rate expenses to drop by about 40%.

The economic value of the company will continue to be negative until year three which will have a value of 800K or a total return on investment if 32%. By year five the company will have returned a total of 388% return on investment.

Subject: Jan and Feb Financials

Jeff,

Here are the financials for Jan and Feb. I haven't had a chance to review in detail but there are a few quick questions noted below that I have seen

- There is a large accrual reversal in January that makes the numbers not make any sense. We have had jobs cancelled from us due to not being able to get it all done that amount is roughly 1 million dollars. But I still feel there is an overall inaccuracy in the data. I think with Colin looking at things we have proven there are significant accounting system issues.
- shelf install wages, those seem high in Jan and feb as do wages as a whole.
- Professional fees and Consulting fees (there is a dollar amount in there for roughly 28,000 tagged as "lawsuit matters. I don't know what this is and will need to clarify with Andy)
- Vehicle repairs and maintenance seems to high, quick glance it looks like insurance was coded there.
- Vehicle oil and gas seems low, but as I have looked into the detail there are items in there that don't seem like they are in the right place.
- Security systems cost is) it should be around 700 dollars
- Computer software and subscriptions seems very heigh. Could have multiple months entered here
- Feb admin salaries seems high by 13k

Long and short the financials are hard to read and get accurate data from. The TD bank requirements are still covered, the margining meets their current requirements. Ill send these off to TD in the morning.

14 Discussion

16 THE COURT:

Mr. Kirk.

18 MR. KIRK:

Thank you, My Lord, for the indulgence to add

19 my matter to the list. I have a number of pieces of a brief and affidavit to pass up to you,

20 for madam clerk. There's just a couple more, madam clerk. There's three more items; there's 21 a statement of claim, an undertaking, a proposed form of order, and a brief.

23 THE COURT:

Did you try the commercial list first, Mr. Kirk?

25 MR. KIRK:

I'll explain the context, My Lord.

26

27 THE COURT:

Okay.

29 MR. KIRK:

The application today is for a Mareva injunction

30 attachment order in relation to net proceeds of a real estate transaction that is closing today.

32 THE COURT:

Oh, okay.

34 MR. KIRK:

We were -- we had initially thought it was 35 tomorrow and were going to do it in a little bit different process but when it became 36 apparent that it was today, we had to work very hard to get these materials ready for today.

37 And that's the reason for being in front of you and without notice.

39 THE COURT:

So if it's just the proceeds of sale, that looks to be 40 paragraph 2(a) of your order, that's the sale of 25 Walden Park?

1 MR. KIRK: Correct. There is also one other property, and this
2 relates to the provision in the order, paragraph 1, about property wherever situated.

4 THE COURT: Right.

6 MR. KIRK: There is one other piece of property in Montana,
7 a cabin, which is also listed for sale. We do not have any information that it's sold but we 8 would intend to try to -- not necessarily stop any transaction but attach to the proceeds in 9 terms of that order.

11 THE COURT: Yes, that --

13 MR. KIRK: Whether the courts in Montana will recognize 14 your jurisdiction should you grant the order is another question for us to answer.

16 THE COURT: So tell me about -- so your client has lent $9 odd
17 million to the defendant.

19 MR. KIRK: Correct.

20

21 THE COURT: And this transaction for Walden Park is closing
22 today or tomorrow?

24 MR. KIRK: I understand it's closing today.

25

26 THE COURT: Today, okay. And your concern then is that those 27 proceeds are going to disappear or dissipate.

29 MR. KIRK: Correct. So let me provide you with some 30 context, and I want to -- because this is an extraordinary application, I will to the extent I 31 believe is -- it's full disclosure, I'll do that for you, My Lord. I represent the plaintiff, which 32 is PDP or Private Debt Partners, which, as you've identified, has advanced roughly $9
33 million to a company, Home Solutions Corporation. Now, that corporation has gone 34 bankrupt and has been put into receivership by this Court, I think it was on June 28th, the 35 receivership order.

37 Now, in terms of -- for the record I want to disclose that you were the managing partner of 38 the firm that I was at and should there be any concern about that, I want to raise that with 39 the -- put it on the record.

41 THE COURT: Just speak to the timing of that.

2 MR. KIRK: I joined Witten in 2008, you left Witten in 2014
5 THE COURT: Correct.
7 MR. KIRK: -- when you were appointed. I've not appeared
8 before you since that time.
10 THE COURT: And you are no longer at Witten.
11
12 MR. KIRK: I am no longer at Witten.
13
14 THE COURT: Okay.
15
16 MR. KIRK: I'm a partner at Miller Thomson.
17
18 THE COURT: That is on the record.
19
20 MR. KIRK: The other thing I wanted to point out, Sir, is that 21 you'll see in Mr. Deacon's (phonetic) affidavit, I believe it's at -- I'm going to guess the 22 exhibit but one of the double-digits AA or BB, there's a letter from a lawyer, Chris Simard
23 at Bennett Jones, to one of my partners in Toronto. So it related to the forbearance
24 agreement and as far as I'm aware that's the only correspondence as between a lawyer
25 purporting to act on behalf of Mr. Andrews and the numbered company 208.
26
27 The intention, if the closing was tomorrow, we were going to try and have the materials
28 filed and provide short notice to Mr. Simard. I don't know whether he's counsel of record
29 or not but because of the date of the closing being not what we anticipated, being today,
30 that was just not possible. So it's my intention should -- in any event, that should you grant
31 the order, that I will serve Mr. Simard with all of the materials.
33 THE COURT: Okay.
34
35 MR. KIRK: And the order also does have the ability for a 36 come back and also, it's -- the way we drafted it it's only valid for 21 days unless extended.
37
38 So the basis of the -- one of the reasons for the Mareva injunction is not only just because 39 the proceeds are going to be dissipated, but there is information that Mr. Deacon obtained
40 that Mr. Davidson is likely to be leaving the country as well and setting up a new business
41 in the United States. So it's not just that the money will be dissipated, but, also, the person

1 who has the (INDISCERNIBLE) claim because of a guarantee will also be outside of the 2 country, perhaps outside of the jurisdiction of this Court. So that adds to the urgency.

4 Now, would you like me to go through the background of the financial misrepresentation?

6 THE COURT: No, I see that from -- it's a lengthy affidavit and 7 I will not claim to have read every word of it but I am on a numbered page. But in paragraph 8 93 after you've talked about the alleged fraudulent activities and so on, you are talking 9 about the sale of Mr. Davidson's residence.

11 MR. KIRK: Correct.

12

13 THE COURT: And that is really what you are looking to get at 14 and --

16 MR. KIRK: Correct.

17

18 THE COURT: -- that is the sale of close to a million dollars with 19 a closing date of July 14th.

21 MR. KIRK: Yes, and the only information we had was the 22 listing agent so I have no information nor did Mr. Deacon as to who was counsel
23 representing, the purchaser or the seller or a joint lawyer.

25 THE COURT: Right. What do we know about any 26 encumbrances on that property? Like you are looking just at the net proceeds I would 27 presume because I am not going to prejudice the lender, I am not going to freeze a million
28 dollars if he owes CIBC 800 on the house, right?

30 MR. KIRK: Correct, that's what we're looking to attach. As 31 far as I'm aware -- and I noted that title is not attached, but the one that I observed was 32 when the -- when the residence was purchased. So whether the amount of that mortgage is 33 valid or not is -- I can't tell you, but it was around 6 or 700,000 so the net proceeds will be 34 somewhere between 2 and 300,000.

36 THE COURT: Okay.

37

38 MR. KIRK: And, of course, then there's also the issue of the 39 joint tenancy so it's a question of whether, you know, ultimately the order would attach to 40 (INDISCERNIBLE) shares from the joint tenant. But that being said, those are -- those are 41 probably issues that can be determined or agreed upon or brought back.

2 THE COURT:

Right, okay.

4 MR. KIRK:

And in terms of the -- you know, the other cabin in Montana, the issue there relates to that it's been put for sale. So the timing, My Lord, of the listing of these properties is suspicious that leads to this inference that the -- based on the allegations of fraud, which originate with Mr. Davidson as set out in Mr. Deacon's affidavit, that there is support in the authorities we provided to you, especially the decision from Justice Lema where the Court can infer that, in the case of a Mareva injunction, that that is what is going to occur, that the funds are going to dissipated. So in terms of the other cabin, we have no information other than it being listed, potentially being sold.

13 THE COURT:
14 injunction.

And run me through the test for a Mareva

16 MR. KIRK:

So in terms of the test, My Lord, we've set it out in the brief which is before you. And that's at page -- starting at page 8 and following from there. But essentially, the test is cited from the Tiger Calcium decision of the Court of Appeal and the cite is at -- the footnote 4 and the decision is at tab 4, and that is Secure 2013 Group Inc. v. Tiger Calcium Services Inc., 2017 decision of the Alberta Court of Appeal. I believe it was Justice Strekaf that made the decision. But the test is at -- in paragraph 40, and we quote from that decision quoting from the Etna (phonetic) case in the Supreme Court of Canada:

24
25 There are a number of procedural requirements, and the usual
26 tripartite test for ordinary injunctions probably also must be satisfied.
27 On the merits, the plaintiff must show a strong prima facie case for 28 his suit, and also that there is a real risk that the respondent will 29 remove assets from the jurisdiction, or dissipate them, in order to 30 avoid execution (enforcement) under a judgment.

32 And then so the test is that the strong prima facie case and then the tripartite test of balance 33 of convenience and irreparable harm.

35 THE COURT:

On page 10 of your brief, paragraph 46, you refer to numbered company Alberta Ltd. and Davidson. Does that happen to be the same Davidson or is that just a coincidence?

38
39 MR. KIRK:

Well, I don't -- that's a good question, My Lord.

40
41 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER:

That's just a coincidence. Not the same

1 individual I don't believe.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Okay, thank you. Okay, carry on.

5 MR. KIRK: Oh, I was going to say when I quoted about
6 Justice Lema, this is the quote where in terms of the -- where Justice Lema says: (as read)

8 In its decision, the Court of Appeal upheld, amongst other aspects, 9 Justice Romaine's decision to infer from fraud reflecting 10 circumstances a risk of asset dissipation. In the contest of the Civil 11 Enforcement Act attachment order, I find that inference analysis
12 applies equally in a Mareva injunction.

13

14 That's what I was submitting, that the inference can be drawn in light of the circumstances.

15

16 So I would submit that Mr. Deacon's affidavit does set out a strong prima facie case. The 17 irreparable harm, which we set out in the brief, is the fact that the assets will be dissipated
18 and the balance of convenience here clearly favours the applicant PDP in these

21 THE COURT: And you will -- I see I have got an undertaking
22 as to damages.

24 MR. KIRK: Yes, Sir. Correct.

25

26 THE COURT: From -- by the Debt Partners. You told me a few 27 minutes ago that you will undertake to serve -- was it Mr. Simard?

29 MR. KIRK: Yes. Mr. Chris Simard at Bennett Jones in 30 Calgary.

32 THE COURT: Okay.

33

34 MR. KIRK: We will -- I don't know how long it will take to 35 file the -- all the materials. We've sent them in. I mean, I -- the statement of claim likely 36 can get filed very quickly and perhaps the order, should you grant one. But to the extent 37 we'll send unfiled copies with our undertaking to send the filed copies when they're 38 received.

40 Decision

41

- 1 THE COURT: Okay. Will you go to paragraph 2 of your draft
2 order, please?
- 4 MR. KIRK: Yeah.
- 6 THE COURT: So in paragraph 2 the prohibition in paragraph 1, 7 which is just a very general prohibition --
- 9 MR. KIRK: Yes.
10
- 11 THE COURT: -- applies to all of his assets, whether in his own 12 name or not and whether solely or jointly owned, and you have raised the issue that the 13 home is -- or the residence is jointly owned.
- 15 MR. KIRK: Correct.
16
- 17 THE COURT: So that may be an issue. So (a) is the proceeds of 18 sale of the property, that is fine. (b) says any bank or investment account including those 19 listed in the attached Schedule A. There are none.
20
- 21 MR. KIRK: We don't know of any.
22
- 23 THE COURT: So my preference would be that we just delete
24 that 'B', okay.
25
- 26 MR. KIRK: That's fair, My Lord.
27
- 28 THE COURT: Because we have had these before where it
29 freezes everything where that was not the intent.
30
- 31 MR. KIRK: And I would submit, Sir, that the same would 32 apply to subparagraph (c).
33
- 34 THE COURT: The motor vehicles, correct.
35
- 36 MR. KIRK: Right. Subparagraph (d) would likely catch the 37 Montana property, which is listed in Schedule A.
38
- 39 THE COURT: Yes.
40
- 41 MR. KIRK: And perhaps schedule E could be -- or sorry,

1 subparagraph (e) could be struck as well.

3 THE COURT: Yes, that could be (INDISCERNIBLE). Is 4 paragraph 3 necessary for your purposes today?

6 MR. KIRK: Probably is not, Sir, and I would -- probably 7 there are other -- using the template from the court sometimes you become a slave to the 8 precedent.

10 THE COURT: No, I know. But I -- because these are 11 extraordinary remedies.

13 MR. KIRK: Yeah.

14

15 THE COURT: I appreciate you have done a full disclosure. I am 16 satisfied the test is met but I do not think that we need to be sort of blanketing some of 17 these things.

19 MR. KIRK: Right. I would submit that paragraphs 4, 5, and 6
20 might be appropriate in terms of the net proceeds from the sale, but I leave it to your 21 comment and judgment as to whether they are too broad or more sufficient.

23 THE COURT: Okay. What about paragraph -- I am not too
24 fussed about 4, 5, and 6, but what about 7. It strikes me that that is something that should 25 be dealt with in the course of the litigation and will likely ensue.

27 MR. KIRK: I'll provide you with the rationale for this 28 disclosure order because we do not have -- the concern, My Lord, would be, as much as 29 we know about the proceeds or the sale of its closing, we don't have any other sense of 30 whether Mr. Davidson might be moving any other monetary assets to -- out of the country, 31 given the concern that he may be moving. And a disclosure provision is the basis for 32 that -- or the concern the basis for that disclosure provision.

34 THE COURT: Okay. So then I think all that I need to do, Mr.
35 Kirk, is in paragraph 2(a) we just need to make sure that it's not the proceeds of sale but 36 the net proceeds of sale.

38 MR. KIRK: So add the word "net".

39

40 THE COURT: I think if we say the net proceeds of -- I mean, as 41 term of (INDISCERNIBLE) as lawyers and judges we probably know what that means but,

1 again, what I want to make sure is that we have not frozen the money in the lawyer's trust
2 account to prevent that lawyer from paying out the CICB mortgage or whatever.

4 MR. KIRK: Correct. That's fair.

6 THE COURT: So if we were to say the proceeds of sale -- or the 7 net proceeds -- why do I not put in brackets net of --

9 MR. KIRK: Adjustments. Adjustments and mortgage.

10

11 THE COURT: -- net of third party --

12

13 MR. KIRK: You might know a little bit better in that area of 14 the law than I, Sir.

16 THE COURT: -- net of third-party mortgages, commissions,
17 and other -- I am going to say other required adjustments. So why do you not take a look 18 at this order, Mr. Kirk, and just see if -- see if I have missed anything.

20 MR. KIRK: My Lord, that captures our -- 21

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23

24 MR. KIRK: -- what we've just discussed, thank you.

25

26 THE COURT: I am going to give you back all of this material
27 because I think you need to file some or all of these, right.

29 MR. KIRK: Yes, we'll take that. I've got sufficient storage
30 space. Thank you for hearing this matter on an urgent basis, My Lord.

32 THE COURT: Okay. The Court's pleasure.

Dear Mr. Kirk:

Re: Private Debt Partners Senior Opportunities Fund GP Inc. d.b.a. Private Debt Partners
v Andrew Davidson and 20187212 Alberta Ltd. – Action No. 2203-10785

I am writing further to our telephone conversation on Monday, July 25, 2022.

I confirm that we have been retained to represent Mr. Davidson in the above-referenced action. You advised me that you had not yet served your filed pleadings in this action, and I confirm that we can accept service of documents on behalf of Mr. Davidson.

There are a number of matters which must be addressed urgently. First, we received an email late yesterday afternoon from a Judicial Scheduler at the Court of Queen's Bench yesterday, advising that Justice Little is unavailable to hear a comeback application until October, 2022. I assume that your instructions remain the same as you advised me in our telephone call on July 25; namely that your client wishes to apply to extend the Mareva Order before it expires on August 4, 2022. Please confirm that is still the case. I can advise you that our instructions are to apply to set aside the Mareva Order. Thus, it seems that both parties share an interest in scheduling a hearing on or before August 4. Given the response we received from the Judicial Scheduler, I think the appropriate next step is to jointly write to the Associate Chief Justice to request an urgent hearing in front of another Justice on August 4. I am available to discuss this morning, any time after 9 am. Please advise when you are available so that we can have a call and then urgently contact the Associate Chief Justice.

The second matter requiring urgent attention is that Mr. Davidson advised me yesterday that a financial institution has cut off a credit card that was being used by him and his wife. Obviously, this is contrary to the Mareva Order, since Justice Little struck paragraph 3 from the Order before granting it. Your client has obviously served the Mareva Order on one or more financial institutions, and at least one institution has misinterpreted the order and is acting in contempt of it. This must be rectified immediately, as Mr. Davidson's ability to pay his family's living expenses is being severely hampered while as a result of this contemptuous conduct. The subject financial institution, and your client, will be liable for any damages suffered as a result of this contempt. Accordingly, we hereby demand the following, at your earliest convenience:

- that you send us copies of all correspondence sent by your office or your client, by which the Mareva Order was served on financial institutions and any other third parties;
- that you also send us copies of any subsequent correspondence exchanged between your office or your client, and such financial institutions and third parties; and
- that your office write immediately, copying us, to all financial institutions and third parties that were served with the Mareva Order, demanding that they immediately comply with the Order, and cease acting in contempt (including, without limitation, by restoring Mr. Davidson's access to any credit cards).

When we spoke on Monday, you advised me that you would have someone send me the Bench Brief that was presented to the Court at the application on July 14, but we have not yet received a copy. Please arrange to have that sent to me as soon as possible.

Finally, with respect to the anticipated comeback application, we have determined that we need to cross-examine Mr. Deacon on his Affidavit. Please advise of his availability for cross-examination on Friday, July 29, 2022. I do not anticipate that I will require more than three hours. We expect to be filing one or more Affidavits on behalf of Mr. Davidson, and we will endeavor to deliver those as soon as possible after our cross-examination of Mr. Deacon, so that you may consider whether you require cross-examination prior to the hearing.

Thank you, and we appreciate your prompt attention to these urgent inquiries.

Yours truly,

Chris Simard

Importance: High

Chris,

Further to our discussion with respect to your client having their credit cards frozen, I have received instructions to provide you with the letters sent to the various banks. As was indicated, we sent these to the major banks to attach to the sales proceeds from the Calgary residence. All financial institutions other than Scotiabank confirmed they had no accounts for Mr. Davidson, as I reiterate the issue was attaching to the sales proceeds and nothing else.

We did receive a rather cryptic message from Scotiabank indicating that they were auctioning the order, and nothing further. As indicated, the intent of the Order and as reflected by the strike outs from Justice Little in relation to credit cards, was to attach to the sales proceeds only. The letters sent are attached.

- Letter to TD Bank;
- Letter to CWB;
- Letter to BMO;
- Letter to SERVUS;
- Letter to RBC;
- Letter to CIBC;
- Letter to Scotiabank; and
- Letter to ATB.

As discussed, the preamble of the Order reflects that Mr. Davidson is not to deal with the exigible property other than meeting his ordinary and reasonable business or living expenses, and I would ask that as his counsel you confirm that is the case with respect to the credit card use. As indicated in our last telephone conversation can you confirm the credit limit of the frozen card or cards.

I know that you requested the brief that was provided to Justice Little and I will send that via separate email.

If you have any questions please let me know.

Re: Order for Immediate Injunctive Relief
Private Debt Partners Senior Opportunities Fund GP Inc. d.b.a. Private Debt
Partners v. Andrew Davidson and 2087212 Alberta Ltd. – No Court File Number

I am counsel for Private Debt Partners (“PDP”) in relation to the above-captioned matter. Yesterday, on July 14, 2022, PDP was successful in an application without notice for immediate injunctive relief in the form of a Mareva injunction/attachment order. Please find enclosed copies of the following documents:

1. Statement of Claim of PDP (filed).
2. Signed Order of Justice Little, granted July 14, 2022 (unfiled).

The unfiled documents have been sent in for filing and we will forward filed copies once we receive the same.

While we do not have specific information that Mr. Davidson had any accounts with TD Bank, we are serving this Order to provide TD Bank notice of the Mareva injunction and its effect on any accounts that he might have with TD Bank.

Please note that the above Order is now in effect. This Order enjoins you from dealing with or disbursing any funds or assets deposited in all accounts held in the defendant, Andrew Davidson’s, name, or such accounts in which the defendant, Andrew Davidson, is authorized to conduct transactions, due to the Freezing Order imposed on the net proceeds from the sale of the property located at 25 Walden Park, Calgary, Alberta, and any real property in which the Defendant, Andrew Davidson, has any interest, further outlined at Schedule “A” to the Order.

Please carefully review the Order and other enclosed materials in order to determine your rights and obligations. Paragraphs 4-6 of the Order address the obligations of Third Parties, including banks, financial institutions and other financial entities.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at your convenience.

Yours truly,

Dear Sirs and Madam:

Re: Private Debt Partners Senior Opportunities Fund GP Inc. d.b.a. Private Debt Partners
v Andrew Davidson and 20187212 Alberta Ltd. – Action No. 2203-10785

We are legal counsel to Andrew Davidson, the Defendant in the above-referenced action. We have been in discussions with Michael Kirk at Miller Thomson LLP in Edmonton, who is legal counsel to the Plaintiff. We have copied Mr. Kirk on this letter.

On July 14, 2022, the Plaintiff applied ex parte to the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta in Edmonton, and obtained a Mareva injunction against our client Mr. Davidson (the "Mareva Order"). Mr. Kirk's office then served the Mareva Order on you (via the letter delivered to Mr. Arellano by email on July 15, 2022, which Mr. Kirk has sent to us and which we have attached to this letter for your ease of reference, along with a copy of the Mareva Order).

Last week, Mr. Davidson's Scotiabank credit card stopped working, without warning or any apparent reason. He made inquiries at the bank and was eventually directed to Keshan Adid, manager of the Gates of Walden branch in Calgary. On Tuesday, July 26, 2022, Scotiabank told Mr. Davidson that the reason his credit card had been frozen was the Mareva Order that was served on Scotiabank. Subsequently, Mr. Kirk provided us with the email exchange between his office and Mr. Zulfiqar Ali, in which Mr. Zulfiqar Ali advised that Scotiabank had acted on the Mareva Order. We have also attached that email exchange to this letter, for your ease of reference.

We are writing to demand that Scotiabank immediately take all necessary steps to provide Mr. Davidson with full and unfettered access to his credit card (i.e. "unfreeze" it). When the Court granted the Mareva Order, the judge crossed out paragraph 3 (which, if it had not been crossed out and instead had been granted, would indeed have authorized the bank to freeze Mr. Davidson's credit card). However, because paragraph 3 was not granted by the Court, the Mareva Order does not authorize Scotiabank to freeze Mr. Davidson's credit card. By freezing Mr. Davidson's credit card, Scotiabank is acting in contempt of the Mareva Order and could be held liable for any damages suffered by Mr. Davidson as a result of its conduct. While we were not given notice of the Court application and therefore were not present when the Mareva Order was granted, Mr. Kirk has confirmed to us that the Court did not authorize the freezing of any credit cards.

We encourage you to communicate with Mr. Kirk as soon as possible if you would like to independently verify our statements set out above.

We also look forward to receiving confirmation, at your earliest possible opportunity, that Scotiabank will abide by the terms of the Mareva Order, and that it has "unfrozen" Mr. Davidson's credit card.

Thank you very much. If you would like to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours truly,

Partners v. Andrew Davidson and 2087212 Alberta Ltd. – No Court File Number

I am counsel for Private Debt Partners ("PDP") in relation to the above-captioned matter. Yesterday, on July 14, 2022, PDP was successful in an application without notice for immediate injunctive relief in the form of a Mareva injunction/attachment order. Please find enclosed copies of the following documents:

1. Statement of Claim of PDP (filed).
2. Signed Order of Justice Little, granted July 14, 2022 (unfiled).

The unfiled documents have been sent in for filing and we will forward filed copies once we receive the same.

While we do not have specific information that Mr. Davidson had any accounts with Scotiabank, we are serving this Order to provide Scotiabank notice of the Mareva injunction and its effect on any accounts that he might have with Scotiabank.

Please note that the above Order is now in effect. This Order enjoins you from dealing with or disbursing any funds or assets deposited in all accounts held in the defendant, Andrew Davidson's, name, or such accounts in which the defendant, Andrew Davidson, is authorized to conduct transactions, due to the Freezing Order imposed on the net proceeds from the sale of the property located at 25 Walden Park, Calgary, Alberta, and any real property in which the Defendant, Andrew Davidson, has any interest, further outlined at Schedule "A" to the Order.

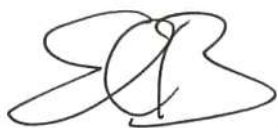

Please carefully review the Order and other enclosed materials in order to determine your rights and obligations. Paragraphs 4-6 of the Order address the obligations of Third Parties, including banks, financial institutions and other financial entities.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at your convenience.

Dear Sirs and Madam:

v Andrew Davidson and 20187212 Alberta Ltd. – Action No. 2203-10785

We are legal counsel to Andrew Davidson, the Defendant in the above-referenced action. We have been in discussions with Michael Kirk at Miller Thomson LLP in Edmonton, who is legal counsel to the Plaintiff. We have copied Mr. Kirk on this letter.

On July 14, 2022, the Plaintiff applied ex parte to the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta in Edmonton, and obtained a Mareva injunction against our client Mr. Davidson (the "Mareva Order"). Mr. Kirk's office then served the Mareva Order on you (via the letter delivered to Mr. Arellano by email on July 15, 2022, which Mr. Kirk has sent to us and which we have attached to this letter for your ease of reference, along with a copy of the Mareva Order).

Last week, Mr. Davidson's Scotiabank credit card stopped working, without warning or any apparent reason. He made inquiries at the bank and was eventually directed to Keshan Adid, manager of the Gates of Walden branch in Calgary. On Tuesday, July 26, 2022, Scotiabank told Mr. Davidson that the reason his credit card had been frozen was the Mareva Order that was served on Scotiabank. Subsequently, Mr. Kirk provided us with the email exchange between his office and Mr. Zulfiqar Ali, in which Mr. Zulfiqar Ali advised that Scotiabank had acted on the Mareva Order. We have also attached that email exchange to this letter, for your ease of reference.

We are writing to demand that Scotiabank immediately take all necessary steps to provide Mr. Davidson with full and unfettered access to his credit card (i.e. "unfreeze" it). When the Court granted the Mareva Order, the judge crossed out paragraph 3 (which, if it had not been crossed out and instead had been granted, would indeed have authorized the bank to freeze Mr. Davidson's credit card). However, because paragraph 3 was not granted by the Court, the Mareva Order does not authorize Scotiabank to freeze Mr. Davidson's credit card. By freezing Mr. Davidson's credit card, Scotiabank is acting in contempt of the Mareva Order and could be held liable for any damages suffered by Mr. Davidson as a result of its conduct. While we were not given notice of the Court application and therefore were not present when the Mareva Order was granted, Mr. Kirk has confirmed to us that the Court did not authorize the freezing of any credit cards.

We encourage you to communicate with Mr. Kirk as soon as possible if you would like to independently verify our statements set out above.

We also look forward to receiving confirmation, at your earliest possible opportunity, that Scotiabank will abide by the terms of the Mareva Order, and that it has "unfrozen" Mr. Davidson's credit card.

Thank you very much. If you would like to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours truly,

Chris Simard

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT(S)

You are being sued. You are a defendant.

Go to the end of this document to see what you can do and when you must do it.

Note: State below only facts and not evidence (Rule 13.6)

Statement of facts relied on:

The Parties

1. The Plaintiff Private Debt Partners Senior Opportunities Inc. carrying on business as Private Debt Partners ("PDP") is a body corporate duly incorporated pursuant to the laws of the Province of Ontario.
2. The Defendant 2087212 Alberta Ltd. ("208") is a body corporate duly incorporated pursuant to the laws of the Province of Alberta and is the holding company for the Defendant Davidson and beneficial owner of Class C Common shares in Home Solutions.
3. The Defendant Andrew Davidson is currently a resident of the City of Calgary, and at all material times was the President and Chief Executive Offer and directing mind and will of Home Solutions.

Home Solutions Credit Facilities

4. On November 10, 2021, the Plaintiff PDP delivered a commitment letter to Home Solutions, (the "Commitment Letter") which included the requirement and conditions, inter alia, for the provisions of the review of Home Solutions 2021 financial statements, an updated 13-week cash flow model, and the implementation of a satisfactory operating facility with The Toronto Dominion Bank ("TD") or another operating facility provider.

5. On the application of Home Solutions, PDP agreed to extend to Home Solutions a non-revolving credit facility in the principal amount of $9,135,000.00 (the "Credit Facility") pursuant to a Credit Agreement dated January 11, 2022 (the "Credit Agreement").

6. The Credit Agreement contained the following terms:

Section 2.2: the majority of the Credit Facility would be used to repay the TD term loan and demand loan, to pay down the TD line of credit. $889,000 would be allocated towards working capital.

Section 4.5(a): Davidson was to provide a personal limited guarantee in respect of 15% of the Credit Facility, to be released 18 months after Closing provided there was no default.

Section 5.1(a): the representations and warranties set forth in the Credit Facility shall be true and correct.

Section 5.1(b): no default or event of default shall have occurred and be continuing on Closing.

Section 5.1(e)(vi): as of Closing there would be confirmation of a $1.2million equity injection by shareholders, 3M and Gemstone.

Section 8.4(d): the Company's availability under TD's operating line would not be less than $500,000 at any time.

7. The Credit Facility was primarily used to replace the Defendant Home Solutions' terms loan with the Toronto Dominion Bank ("TD").

8. The Credit Facility was payable on demand.

9. To secure due payment and discharge of all present and future indebtedness and liabilities of Home Solutions to the Plaintiff PDP, Home Solutions granted or caused to be granted a General Security Agreement in favour of PDP dated January 11, 2022. PDP was first in priority on all non-working capital assets, whereas TD sat first in priority on all working capital assets.

The Guarantee by the Defendant Davidson

10. To further secure the due payment and discharge of all present and future indebtedness and liability of Home Solutions to the Plaintiff PDP, the Defendants Davidson and 208 provided the following guarantee:

- (a) A Limited-Recourse Guarantee and Share Pledge Agreement dated January 11, 2022 was granted by 208 in favour of the Plaintiff PDP with respect to the indebtedness and obligations of Homes Solutions to the Plaintiff PDP, plus interest thereon, and all costs and expenses, including reasonable legal fees and expenses on a full indemnity basis, and the sole recourse is against the pledged collateral.

- (b) A Personal Guarantee dated January 11, 2022 was granted by the Defendant Davidson in favour of the Plaintiff PDP with respect to 15% of the outstanding obligations of Home Solutions to the Plaintiff PDP, plus interest thereon, and all costs and expenses, including reasonable legal fees and expenses on a full indemnity basis.

(the "Guarantees").

Security of Home Solutions

11. To secure the due payment and discharge of all present and future indebtedness and liability of Home Solutions to the Plaintiff PDP, Home Solutions granted or caused to be granted, among other things, a General Security Agreement dated January 11, 2022 in favour of the Plaintiff PDP granting a security interest in all of its present and after-acquired property, real and personal, wherever situated (the "Home Solutions Security").

Contractual Representations

12. Pursuant to the express and implied terms of the Credit Facility and the Credit Agreement, Home Solutions and the Defendant Davidson and in order to induce the Plaintiff PDP to extend funding to Home Solutions, the Defendant Davidson made a series of representations with respect to Home Solutions' financial position, which included the following, inter alia:

- (a) Financial Statements: the Defendant Davidson caused Home Solutions to prepare internal, non-audited financial statements which showed a positive trend in revenues, especially in Q4 of 2021 (the period immediately prior to funding). These trends were based on information which the Defendant Davidson knew to be inaccurate;

- (b) Projection Documents: the Defendant Davidson caused Home Solutions to prepare internal projection documents, including a 13-week cash flow statement, which purported to show that several hundreds of thousands of dollars in accounts receivable were expected in January and February 2022, and the Defendant Davidson knew that these accounts receivable would never materialize but he included them, or caused them to be included, for the sole purpose of inducing the Plaintiff PDP to lend the funds as set out in paragraph 6 above.

- (c) Inventory Overstatements: the Defendant Davidson represented that Home Solutions' inventory was valued at $1.8 million at the time of advance of the funds as set out in paragraph 6 above when in reality, the actual inventory was valued at close to $150,000.00.

(collectively the "Fraudulent Misrepresentations")

Allegations of Deceit and Fraudulent Misrepresentation

13. Through the period from November 2021 to at least January 2022, the Defendant Davidson fraudulently misrepresented and created falsified and inaccurate documents and information with respect to Home Solutions and its financial state and viability. This falsified information included, inter alia:

- (a) overstatement of accounts receivable;
- (b) overstated inventory values;

- (c) falsified and inaccurate financial statements; and
- (d) such further and other particulars that may be proven at or before the trial of this action.

(collectively, the “Falsified Information”)

14. To the best of the Plaintiff PDP’s knowledge, the Falsified Information was created prior to the advancement of the Credit Facility and prior to the execution of the Security Agreement, between November 2021 and January 2022.

15. The Defendant Davidson directed or procured by fraudulent means, and provided the Falsified Information to the Plaintiff PDP, with the intent that it would be relied on by the Plaintiff PDP to extend the Credit Facility to Home Solutions.

16. The Defendant Davidson provided the Falsified Information to the Plaintiff PDP representing to the Plaintiff PDP that the Falsified Information was true and accurate when the Defendant Davidson knew that False Information was in fact false and fabricated (the “Fraudulent Misrepresentation and Deceit”).

17. Further, the Falsified Information was provided by the Home Solutions at the direction of the Defendant Davidson the Plaintiff PDP, and with the intention that the Falsified Information would be used and relied on by the Plaintiff PDP to extend the Credit Facility to the Home Solutions.

18. The Plaintiff PDP relied on the Falsified Information provided by Home Solutions at the direction of the Defendant Davidson, and was induced to extend the Credit Facility to Home Solutions which was then used by Home Solutions and drawn down on the Credit Facility to the detriment of the Plaintiff PDP.

19. As a result of the Fraudulent Misrepresentation and Deceit, as aforementioned, the Plaintiff PDP did rely on the Falsified Information and was induced to extend the Credit Facility to Home Solutions and has suffered damages as a result.

Assets of the Defendant Davidson

20. The Defendant Davidson is the owner as joint tenant of a residence in Calgary, Alberta with a municipal address of 25 Walden Park, and a legal description of:

Plan 1312932

Block 11

Lot 6

Excepting thereout all mines and minerals

(the “Calgary Property”).

21. The Calgary Property has been sold and there is a concern that the Defendant Davidson is disposing of this property and the net proceeds will not be available should the Plaintiff PDP be successful in its claim.

22. The Defendant Davidson is also the joint owner of a cabin located at 90 Kelly Court in Marion, Montana, USA (the “Montana Property”).

23. The Montana Property has been listed for sale and there is a further concern that the Defendant Davidson is disposing of this property and the net proceeds will not be available should the Plaintiff PDP be successful in its claim.

24. Accordingly, the Plaintiff PDP claims that is entitled to injunctive relief to attach to and preserve the net proceeds of sale pending the outcome of this claim. The injunctive relief is required to protect the interests of the Plaintiff PDP.

25. The actions of the Defendant Davidson as set out above are egregious, and reprehensible and as such give rise to punitive and aggravated damages.

26. The Plaintiff PDP pleads the provisions of the Personal Property Security Act, RSA 2000, c P-7, the Judicature Act, RSA 2000, c J-2, the Civil Enforcement Act, RSA 2000, c C-15 and the Judgment Interest Act, RSA 2000, c. J-1, as amended.

Remedy sought:

As against the Defendants Andrew Davidson:

27. An interim and permanent Mareva injunction and or Pre-Judgment Attachment order, preventing the Defendant Davidson from from directly, or indirectly, by any means whatsoever, dealing with, transferring, mortgaging, charging, using, disposing of his interests in the Calgary Property, Montana Property or any other assets that are located or identified, or wherever situated.

As against the Defendants Andrew Davidson and 2087212 Alberta Ltd., jointly and severally:

29. Judgment in the amount of $9,153,000.00 (or such other amount as may be proven at trial), with respect to the Indebtedness, interest to accrue on such judgment at the applicable contractual interest rates provided in the Credit Agreement, both before and after judgment, until the date of payment.

30. Punitive, aggravated and exemplary damages in the amount of $500,000.00 or such other amount as the Court may order.

31. A Declaration that the Defendants' liability arose as a result of Fraudulent Misrepresentation and Deceit.

32. Alternatively, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest pursuant to the provisions of the Judgment Interest Act.

33. Waiver of the requirement that the parties engage in a dispute resolution process as contemplated by Rule 4.16 of the Alberta Rules of Court.

34. Such further and other relief as this Honourable Court deems just.

AFFIDAVIT OF ANDREW SHEER

Sworn on August 12, 2022.

I, Andrew Sheer, of Calgary, Alberta, SWEAR AND SAY THAT:

1. Prior to its bankruptcy in May 2022, I was the Controller of Home Solutions Corporation, carrying on business as Simple Spaces ("Home Solutions" or the "Company"), and as such, have personal knowledge of the matters hereinafter deposed to except where stated to be based on information and belief, in which case I verily believe the same to be true.

INTRODUCTION

2. I make this Affidavit in support of an application to set aside and discharge the Mareva Injunction / Attachment Order granted in this Action on July 14, 2022 (the "Mareva Order") as against the Defendant, Andrew Davidson ("Davidson").
3. I understand that this legal action relates to a loan advanced by the Plaintiff, Private Debt Partners Senior Opportunities Fund GP Inc., doing business as Private Debt Partners ("PDP"), to Home Solutions, on January 12, 2022 in the amount of $9,135,000 (the "Loan"). I was hired as the Controller of Home Solutions on or about August 31, 2021, and continued in that role until Home Solutions was assigned into bankruptcy.
4. My education and work background, prior to my employment with Home Solutions, is as follows:
 - (a) I obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Management with a focus on Accounting from the University of Lethbridge in 2004 (with distinction);
 - (b) I articulated at Deloitte, completed my articles at Grant Thornton and received my Chartered Accountant designation in 2008;
 - (c) In 2008, I was headhunted by ConocoPhillips to join the tax group within its Finance Group, and was employed by ConocoPhillips in the roles of Analyst, Senior Analyst, and Advisor, until approximately 2018. During that time, I presented the month-end reporting to ConocoPhillips' VP Finance for Canada;
 - (d) From July 2018 to March 2019, I was employed as Executive Services Lead at Achen Henderson, Chartered Accountants (in Calgary). In that role, I provided outsourced chief financial officer and controller services for clients, which involved managing a team of bookkeepers and managing the outsourcing of full-service accounting services for clients; and

- (e) I founded Paragon BI in April 2019, and was self-employed there until approximately August of 2021. In that role, I contracted with clients to advise on or provide outsourced management accounting and finance function lead services for businesses that did not have a chief financial officer or controller.

GENERAL RESPONSE TO JEFFREY DEACON'S ALLEGATIONS OF FRAUD

5. I have reviewed the Affidavit of Davidson, sworn on August 12, 2022 (the "Davidson Affidavit"). While I am not personally aware of all the facts described in the Davidson Affidavit, it is true and accurate with respect to the facts of which I have personal knowledge.
6. I have also reviewed the Affidavit of Jeffrey Deacon ("Deacon") sworn on July 14, 2022 (the "Deacon Affidavit") and the Supplementary Affidavit of Deacon sworn on August 9, 2022 (the "Deacon Supplementary Affidavit"). In the Deacon Affidavit, Deacon has made numerous allegations that Davidson made fraudulent statements to PDP and Deacon, both before and after PDP advanced the Loan. I was directly involved with many of the documents that Home Solutions provided to PDP and Deacon, and which Deacon now alleges were dishonest. I totally disagree with those allegations. To the best of my knowledge, all the information provided to PDP by Home Solutions, or by Davidson on its behalf, was true and accurate, was presented fairly, and was based on the best information available to Home Solutions and our accounting team at the time.
7. When I started at Home Solutions, its accounting team included an accounting manager, two accounting technicians, and an inventory technician (Scott Nalder). These employees reported to me. The accounting manager resigned at the end of December, 2021. By the spring of 2022:
- (i) Home Solutions' accounting team had three accounting technicians; the third accounting technician was hired in or about February 2022 to assist with getting invoices issued;
 - (ii) to address the issues with the accuracy of the Company's inventory:

- (A) the Company's Purchasing & Estimating Manager, Makenzie Romanovitch, became the manager responsible for purchasing, estimating and inventory; and
- (B) the role of inventory technician was changed to report to Ms. Romanovitch, rather than to me, because of the need to put more focus on resolving the issues with the accuracy of the inventory.

8. The manner in which Home Solutions typically prepared financial records and reports, during my time as Controller, was as follows:
- (a) the Company's accounting team, under my supervision as Controller, would prepare financial reports, projections and statements using the numbers and data in the Company's computer system, and other manual inputs;
 - (b) Davidson and I would meet to review and discuss the financial records, projections and statements; we would discuss them until we were both satisfied that they were as accurate as possible, based on the information available to us;
 - (c) after this review process, the financial documents would be issued or delivered on behalf of the Company, by one or more employees of the Company (including me, from time to time). Davidson was Home Solutions' main contact person with its lenders, Toronto Dominion Bank ("TD") and PDP; he had strong knowledge and awareness of the Company's financial situation.
9. All the financial records and reports that the Company provided to PDP and Deacon during the relevant time period were prepared and reviewed in accordance with this typical process, to the best of my knowledge. Neither Davidson, nor anyone else to my knowledge, ever "altered" or "concocted" such documents, to present a particular picture or narrative. The documents and the information contained in them were based on the best information available to Home Solutions at the time.

SPECIFIC RESPONSE TO PARAGRAPHS 74 – 79 OF THE DEACON AFFIDAVIT

10. In paragraphs 74 – 79 of the Deacon Affidavit, Deacon describes emails exchanged between me, him and Davidson on May 10 and May 12, 2022. On the basis of these emails, he concludes that Davidson made false representations to Home Solutions staff and in a borrowing base certificate ("BBC"). I strongly disagree with that conclusion. Davidson did not make any false representations to my knowledge, and these emails certainly do not provide any evidence of false representations. Deacon simply misunderstands or has misstated the true facts.
11. Home Solutions was required to complete a BBC and provide it to TD every month. The BBC showed TD what amounts of collateral were held by the Company, and in turn determined the amount that would be available to the Company under TD's operating line of credit. The BBC had to be prepared in accordance with a specific formula set out in the TD credit agreement.
12. I agree that I sent the May 12, 2022 email to Deacon that is attached as Exhibit "X" to the Deacon Affidavit. Attached to that Exhibit is a May 10, 2022 BBC that I prepared for TD (the "May TD BBC", which is on the last page of Exhibit "X"). The May TD BBC listed net accounts receivable of $996,455 and net inventory of $1,824,760. These amounts were obtained from Home Solutions' accounting system. However, Davidson and I both believed that the inventory figures in the Company's accounting system were not reliable because of the ongoing problems with that system (as accurately described throughout the Davidson Affidavit). The only way to get an accurate figure for the Company's inventory was to do a full inventory count.
13. In my 2:45 p.m. May 10, 2022 email to Davidson (also in Exhibit "X"), I reported to him the figures pulled from the Company's accounting system that I considered to be reliable. Although the Company's accounting system was showing an inventory figure of $2,939,414, I did not consider that figure to be reliable, for the reasons described above. Therefore, I left the inventory section of the table blank (the Company had inventory, so $0 was not the correct number, but without an inventory count, I did not know what the accurate number was).

14. Subsequent to me sending that email, Davidson and I had a discussion and agreed that the BBC should report the figures reflected in the Company's accounting system but that a notation should be made to notify TD that the inventory figure was not accurate and an inventory count was required. Basically, to make sure that the May TD BBC was as accurate as we could make it, we had two options: report $0 inventory, or report the figures from the accounting system, with a clear warning. Davidson proposed the latter, and I agreed that was reasonable. Therefore, Davidson told me to write the asterisked note beside the inventory figure in the May TD BBC (this note reads "*Inventory is overstated. Inventory count needs to be finalized to determine adjustment"). I made that notation on the BBC when I prepared it. I then sent the completed May TD BBC, including the handwritten notation, to Davidson at 4:03 p.m. on May 10, 2022. Attached as Exhibit "1" to this Affidavit is a true copy of that email.
15. Deacon suggests in paragraph 73 of the Deacon Affidavit that although Davidson executed the May TD BBC, I somehow "declined to certify" it, and thereafter added the handwritten notation beside the inventory figure in the May TD BBC. That is completely wrong: I added the notation at the direction of Davidson, at the same time I completed the May TD BBC on the Company's behalf.
16. Davidson's and my agreement to make that note, and the reason why, is recorded in my email to Davidson at 2:45 p.m. on May 10, 2022 (also in Exhibit "X") when I said to him "As has been proven in the past, we can't rely on the users of this information to remember that we have warned them about inventory. We can't be associated with these numbers, especially at this critical time." To my knowledge, PDP and TD were aware of the inventory calculation issue, but I was concerned that if they were passing the May TD BBC onto others who did not also have this awareness, I did not want those people to be misled.
17. At paragraph 75 of the Deacon Affidavit, Deacon says that he "interpreted this email to mean that Home Solutions' sales team was being told by Davidson that they had sufficient inventory to continue making sales, when in fact the Company had little to no inventory and would be unable to satisfy purchase orders once placed." I have no idea what Deacon has based this speculation on. I am not aware of Davidson ever misrepresenting inventory levels to sales staff. The fact that the inventory accounting system could not generate reliable inventory numbers was generally known to all head office employees, including sales staff.

18. I also don't understand what Deacon is implying in paragraph 76 of the Deacon Affidavit. The fact that there was a difference in the inventory numbers between my "reliable" BBC table and the table in the May TD BBC on which I made the notation, was exactly the point. That is precisely why Davidson and I agreed to make the notation on the table in the May TD BBC. There was nothing dishonest about this. On the contrary, we were trying to make sure that TD was not misled by the Company's records.
19. I also don't understand Deacon's comments in paragraphs 77 and 78 of the Deacon Affidavit. As can be seen by comparing Exhibit "X" and Exhibit "Y", the BBC table I emailed him on May 13, 2022 was based on the figures in the Company's accounting system, just as was the table in the May TD BBC. The reason I advised Deacon that I made no representation about the information and that he should use it at his own risk was exactly the same reason that Davidson and I agreed to put the handwritten notation in the May TD BBC: the figures produced by the Company's inventory system were not reliable.
20. Contrary to Deacon's statement in paragraph 79 of the Deacon Affidavit, I do not believe I was "going to lengths" to avoid certifying the BBC calculations. I was warning him and PDP, just as Davidson and I had warned TD, that the inventory figures were not reliable. That is what I told him when he asked me about the email.

SPECIFIC RESPONSE TO PARAGRAPHS 32 – 36 OF THE DEACON SUPPLEMENTARY AFFIDAVIT

21. In paragraphs 32 – 36 of the Deacon Supplementary Affidavit, Deacon makes two allegations: first, that I told the Trustee in Bankruptcy of Home Solutions (MNP) that the Company's inventory was significantly overstated; and second, that the Company knew this to be the case before the Loan transaction closed (and was using an alternative inventory tracking system), but did not tell PDP.

22. Although I do not recall the specifics of the conversation, I confirm that I did have a conversation with Vanessa Allen of MNP. This discussion was initiated by Ms. Allen, who reached out to me to ask for an explanation as to why the Company's inventory, pursuant to an inventory count being conducted by MNP, did not align with the Company's records. I believe that MNP conducted an actual physical count of inventory to determine the accurate level of inventory held by the Company. This was the correct and appropriate step to get a good understanding of inventory. Davidson and I had been planning to have staff take this exact step since late 2021, but were unable to do so because of the intensity of the Company's business activity and the many other challenges being dealt with by the Company and our staff, as described in the Davidson Affidavit.
23. During my conversation with her, I advised Ms. Allen that the amount of inventory reflected in the Company's business records was not accurate. The reason I did so was exactly the same reason why Davidson and I carefully put caveats on the May TD BBC and why I warned Deacon about the inventory records: the figures produced by the Company's inventory system were not reliable. This should not have been a surprise to PDP, as the Company had been telling PDP this.
24. In response to paragraphs 34 and 35 of the Deacon Supplementary Affidavit, it is correct that I had the accounting team work on implementing a simplified inventory accounting system in early 2022. This is because it was clear to us that the existing system was mis-reporting the Company's inventory levels.
25. After reviewing historical accounting records, Davidson and I made the following conclusions as to the methodology the Company had used for tracking inventory prior to his acquisition of the Company (the "COGS Method"):
 - (a) the Company adjusted inventory at the end of each month by calculating the Cost of Goods Sold (COGS) for the month as approximately 30% of revenues. The percentage was not always exactly 30%, historically or while I was Controller, but reasonably close. As is typical, an element of judgment is used for adjustments and accruals; Davidson and I used our judgment in that regard as well;

- (b) the Company performed an inventory count at the end of each fiscal year and would adjust the accounting system inventory balance to agree to the inventory count.
26. I was advised by members of the accounting team that in March 2020, the Company had started implementing a new accounting and inventory control software package called "Business Central", and that the full implementation was delayed by about a year, primarily because of COVID. Shortly after I joined the Company on August 31, 2021, it was clear to me that Business Central was not accurately reporting the Company's inventory. It also became clear that members of the accounting team, including the previous controller of the Company, had not been properly utilizing, and had not fully implemented the inventory module of, the Business Central system.
27. By January, 2022, I had come to the conclusion that in the short term, we could no longer rely on Business Central to track inventory. We considered using what we hoped would be a simple and straightforward manual inventory tracking spreadsheet, under the control of a single employee, Scott Nalder (our inventory technician). In this spreadsheet, Scott would keep track of inventory in, inventory out and rolling inventory stock count, with the intention of using this system to estimate the Company's inventory levels, including for the inventory reported to TD in BBC's. This is the "SharePoint-based Excel spreadsheet" referenced in my email to Ms. Romanovitch on January 20, 2022 attached as Exhibit "J" to the Deacon Supplementary Affidavit.
28. While I believed this simplified system, once developed, would provide more accurate data than the Business Central system had been providing, we still could not have confidence in the inventory numbers. As mentioned above, a full inventory count would have been required to re-establish a proper inventory baseline, from which inventory levels could be accurately tracked, and unfortunately, with all of the urgent challenges the Company was facing, as described in the Davidson Affidavit, we were unable to complete one. That is why, as noted above at paragraphs 10 to 20 of this Affidavit, we warned TD and PDP about the accuracy of the Company's reported inventory. That is also why, upon coming to the conclusion that we could not rely on the Business Central system, we reverted to the COGS Method for recording inventory. Historically, the Company had functioned without an accurate month-to-month inventory tracking system, using the COGS Method. We intended to complete an inventory count at the end of April, 2022.

29. To my knowledge, none of the Company's inventory issues were ever hidden from PDP.

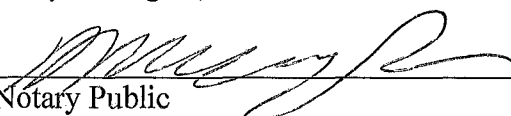

CONCLUSION

30. Based on my experience and observations working with Davidson, all of Davidson's actions were taken in good faith to help the Company's business, keep it going and thrive; that was of utmost priority for Davidson. I saw no evidence whatsoever of Davidson acting dishonestly and I do not believe that he would have done so.

31. I make this Affidavit in support of Davidson's application to set aside and discharge the Mareva Order, and for no other or improper purpose.

32. I am not physically present before the Commissioner for Oaths to swear this Affidavit, but am linked with the Commissioner for Oaths utilizing video technology. The process for remote commissioning of affidavits specified in Notice to the Profession and Public NPP#2020-02 dated March 25, 2020 (the "Notice") is being followed. The Notice is attached hereto. I undertake to send this signed affidavit with its exhibits electronically to the Commissioner for Oaths.

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION AND PUBLIC

REMOTE COMMISSIONING OF AFFIDAVITS FOR USE IN CIVIL AND FAMILY PROCEEDINGS DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

During the COVID-19 pandemic, some accommodation must be made for the commissioning of affidavits in circumstances where it is not possible or is medically unsafe for the deponent to physically attend before a commissioner. Examples might include deponents who are unable to leave their residences, are not permitted to receive visitors, or for those who are required to self-isolate or self-quarantine.

With the approval of the Law Society of Alberta, until further notice, the following accommodations will be made for affidavits to be used in the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, subject always to the discretion of the Courts to apply the best evidence requirements to their use:

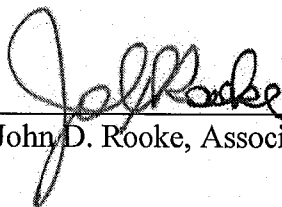

1. Any affidavit to be sworn using video technology must contain a paragraph at the end of the body of the affidavit describing that the deponent was not physically present before the commissioner, but was linked with the commissioner utilizing video technology and that the process described below for remote commissioning of affidavits was utilized.
2. While connected via video technology, the deponent must show the commissioner the front and back of the deponent's current government-issued photo identification and the commissioner must compare the video image of the deponent and information in the deponent's government-issued photo identity document to be reasonably satisfied that it is the same person and that the document is valid and current. The commissioner must also take a screenshot of the front and back of the deponent's government-issued photo identity document and retain it.
3. The commissioner and the deponent are both required to have a paper copy of the affidavit, including all exhibits, before each of them while connected via video technology.
4. The commissioner and the deponent must review each page of the affidavit and exhibits to verify that the pages are identical and if so, must initial each page in the lower right corner.

5. At the conclusion of the review, the commissioner will administer the oath, the deponent will state what needs to be said to swear or affirm the truth of the facts, and the commissioner must watch the deponent sign his or her name to the affidavit.
6. The deponent will then send the signed affidavit with exhibits electronically to the commissioner.
7. Before completing the affidavit, the commissioner must compare each page of the copy received from the deponent against the initialed copy that was before him or her in the video conference and may affix his or her name to the jurat only upon being satisfied that the two copies are identical.
8. The two copies will then be attached together with a certificate signed by the commissioner stating that the commissioner was satisfied that the process was necessary because it was impossible or unsafe, for medical reasons, for the deponent and the commissioner to be physically present together.
9. The completed package would then be permitted to be filed.

AFFIDAVIT OF ANDREW SHEER

Sworn on August 12, 2022.

I, Andrew Sheer, of Calgary, Alberta, SWEAR AND SAY THAT:

1. Prior to its bankruptcy in May 2022, I was the Controller of Home Solutions Corporation, carrying on business as Simple Spaces ("Home Solutions" or the "Company"), and as such, have personal knowledge of the matters hereinafter deposed to except where stated to be based on information and belief, in which case I verily believe the same to be true.

INTRODUCTION

2. I make this Affidavit in support of an application to set aside and discharge the Mareva Injunction / Attachment Order granted in this Action on July 14, 2022 (the "Mareva Order") as against the Defendant, Andrew Davidson ("Davidson").
3. I understand that this legal action relates to a loan advanced by the Plaintiff, Private Debt Partners Senior Opportunities Fund GP Inc., doing business as Private Debt Partners ("PDP"), to Home Solutions, on January 12, 2022 in the amount of $9,135,000 (the "Loan"). I was hired as the Controller of Home Solutions on or about August 31, 2021, and continued in that role until Home Solutions was assigned into bankruptcy.
4. My education and work background, prior to my employment with Home Solutions, is as follows:
 - (a) I obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Management with a focus on Accounting from the University of Lethbridge in 2004 (with distinction);
 - (b) I articulated at Deloitte, completed my articles at Grant Thornton and received my Chartered Accountant designation in 2008;
 - (c) In 2008, I was headhunted by ConocoPhillips to join the tax group within its Finance Group, and was employed by ConocoPhillips in the roles of Analyst, Senior Analyst, and Advisor, until approximately 2018. During that time, I presented the month-end reporting to ConocoPhillips' VP Finance for Canada;
 - (d) From July 2018 to March 2019, I was employed as Executive Services Lead at Achen Henderson, Chartered Accountants (in Calgary). In that role, I provided outsourced chief financial officer and controller services for clients, which involved managing a team of bookkeepers and managing the outsourcing of full-service accounting services for clients; and

AB

- (e) I founded Paragon BI in April 2019, and was self-employed there until approximately August of 2021. In that role, I contracted with clients to advise on or provide outsourced management accounting and finance function lead services for businesses that did not have a chief financial officer or controller.

GENERAL RESPONSE TO JEFFREY DEACON'S ALLEGATIONS OF FRAUD

5. I have reviewed the Affidavit of Davidson, sworn on August 12, 2022 (the "Davidson Affidavit"). While I am not personally aware of all the facts described in the Davidson Affidavit, it is true and accurate with respect to the facts of which I have personal knowledge.
6. I have also reviewed the Affidavit of Jeffrey Deacon ("Deacon") sworn on July 14, 2022 (the "Deacon Affidavit") and the Supplementary Affidavit of Deacon sworn on August 9, 2022 (the "Deacon Supplementary Affidavit"). In the Deacon Affidavit, Deacon has made numerous allegations that Davidson made fraudulent statements to PDP and Deacon, both before and after PDP advanced the Loan. I was directly involved with many of the documents that Home Solutions provided to PDP and Deacon, and which Deacon now alleges were dishonest. I totally disagree with those allegations. To the best of my knowledge, all the information provided to PDP by Home Solutions, or by Davidson on its behalf, was true and accurate, was presented fairly, and was based on the best information available to Home Solutions and our accounting team at the time.
7. When I started at Home Solutions, its accounting team included an accounting manager, two accounting technicians, and an inventory technician (Scott Nalder). These employees reported to me. The accounting manager resigned at the end of December, 2021. By the spring of 2022:
- (i) Home Solutions' accounting team had three accounting technicians; the third accounting technician was hired in or about February 2022 to assist with getting invoices issued;
 - (ii) to address the issues with the accuracy of the Company's inventory:

AS

- (A) the Company's Purchasing & Estimating Manager, Makenzie Romanovitch, became the manager responsible for purchasing, estimating and inventory; and
 - (B) the role of inventory technician was changed to report to Ms. Romanovitch, rather than to me, because of the need to put more focus on resolving the issues with the accuracy of the inventory.
8. The manner in which Home Solutions typically prepared financial records and reports, during my time as Controller, was as follows:
- (a) the Company's accounting team, under my supervision as Controller, would prepare financial reports, projections and statements using the numbers and data in the Company's computer system, and other manual inputs;
 - (b) Davidson and I would meet to review and discuss the financial records, projections and statements; we would discuss them until we were both satisfied that they were as accurate as possible, based on the information available to us;
 - (c) after this review process, the financial documents would be issued or delivered on behalf of the Company, by one or more employees of the Company (including me, from time to time). Davidson was Home Solutions' main contact person with its lenders, Toronto Dominion Bank ("TD") and PDP; he had strong knowledge and awareness of the Company's financial situation.
9. All the financial records and reports that the Company provided to PDP and Deacon during the relevant time period were prepared and reviewed in accordance with this typical process, to the best of my knowledge. Neither Davidson, nor anyone else to my knowledge, ever "altered" or "concocted" such documents, to present a particular picture or narrative. The documents and the information contained in them were based on the best information available to Home Solutions at the time.

SPECIFIC RESPONSE TO PARAGRAPHS 74 – 79 OF THE DEACON AFFIDAVIT

10. In paragraphs 74 – 79 of the Deacon Affidavit, Deacon describes emails exchanged between me, him and Davidson on May 10 and May 12, 2022. On the basis of these emails, he concludes that Davidson made false representations to Home Solutions staff and in a borrowing base certificate ("BBC"). I strongly disagree with that conclusion. Davidson did not make any false representations to my knowledge, and these emails certainly do not provide any evidence of false representations. Deacon simply misunderstands or has misstated the true facts.
11. Home Solutions was required to complete a BBC and provide it to TD every month. The BBC showed TD what amounts of collateral were held by the Company, and in turn determined the amount that would be available to the Company under TD's operating line of credit. The BBC had to be prepared in accordance with a specific formula set out in the TD credit agreement.
12. I agree that I sent the May 12, 2022 email to Deacon that is attached as Exhibit "X" to the Deacon Affidavit. Attached to that Exhibit is a May 10, 2022 BBC that I prepared for TD (the "May TD BBC", which is on the last page of Exhibit "X"). The May TD BBC listed net accounts receivable of $996,455 and net inventory of $1,824,760. These amounts were obtained from Home Solutions' accounting system. However, Davidson and I both believed that the inventory figures in the Company's accounting system were not reliable because of the ongoing problems with that system (as accurately described throughout the Davidson Affidavit). The only way to get an accurate figure for the Company's inventory was to do a full inventory count.
13. In my 2:45 p.m. May 10, 2022 email to Davidson (also in Exhibit "X"), I reported to him the figures pulled from the Company's accounting system that I considered to be reliable. Although the Company's accounting system was showing an inventory figure of $2,939,414, I did not consider that figure to be reliable, for the reasons described above. Therefore, I left the inventory section of the table blank (the Company had inventory, so $0 was not the correct number, but without an inventory count, I did not know what the accurate number was).

AS

14. Subsequent to me sending that email, Davidson and I had a discussion and agreed that the BBC should report the figures reflected in the Company's accounting system but that a notation should be made to notify TD that the inventory figure was not accurate and an inventory count was required. Basically, to make sure that the May TD BBC was as accurate as we could make it, we had two options: report $0 inventory, or report the figures from the accounting system, with a clear warning. Davidson proposed the latter, and I agreed that was reasonable. Therefore, Davidson told me to write the asterisked note beside the inventory figure in the May TD BBC (this note reads "*Inventory is overstated. Inventory count needs to be finalized to determine adjustment"). I made that notation on the BBC when I prepared it. I then sent the completed May TD BBC, including the handwritten notation, to Davidson at 4:03 p.m. on May 10, 2022. Attached as Exhibit "1" to this Affidavit is a true copy of that email.
15. Deacon suggests in paragraph 73 of the Deacon Affidavit that although Davidson executed the May TD BBC, I somehow "declined to certify" it, and thereafter added the handwritten notation beside the inventory figure in the May TD BBC. That is completely wrong: I added the notation at the direction of Davidson, at the same time I completed the May TD BBC on the Company's behalf.
16. Davidson's and my agreement to make that note, and the reason why, is recorded in my email to Davidson at 2:45 p.m. on May 10, 2022 (also in Exhibit "X") when I said to him "As has been proven in the past, we can't rely on the users of this information to remember that we have warned them about inventory. We can't be associated with these numbers, especially at this critical time." To my knowledge, PDP and TD were aware of the inventory calculation issue, but I was concerned that if they were passing the May TD BBC onto others who did not also have this awareness, I did not want those people to be misled.
17. At paragraph 75 of the Deacon Affidavit, Deacon says that he "interpreted this email to mean that Home Solutions' sales team was being told by Davidson that they had sufficient inventory to continue making sales, when in fact the Company had little to no inventory and would be unable to satisfy purchase orders once placed." I have no idea what Deacon has based this speculation on. I am not aware of Davidson ever misrepresenting inventory levels to sales staff. The fact that the inventory accounting system could not generate reliable inventory numbers was generally known to all head office employees, including sales staff.

18. I also don't understand what Deacon is implying in paragraph 76 of the Deacon Affidavit. The fact that there was a difference in the inventory numbers between my "reliable" BBC table and the table in the May TD BBC on which I made the notation, was exactly the point. That is precisely why Davidson and I agreed to make the notation on the table in the May TD BBC. There was nothing dishonest about this. On the contrary, we were trying to make sure that TD was not misled by the Company's records.
19. I also don't understand Deacon's comments in paragraphs 77 and 78 of the Deacon Affidavit. As can be seen by comparing Exhibit "X" and Exhibit "Y", the BBC table I emailed him on May 13, 2022 was based on the figures in the Company's accounting system, just as was the table in the May TD BBC. The reason I advised Deacon that I made no representation about the information and that he should use it at his own risk was exactly the same reason that Davidson and I agreed to put the handwritten notation in the May TD BBC: the figures produced by the Company's inventory system were not reliable.
20. Contrary to Deacon's statement in paragraph 79 of the Deacon Affidavit, I do not believe I was "going to lengths" to avoid certifying the BBC calculations. I was warning him and PDP, just as Davidson and I had warned TD, that the inventory figures were not reliable. That is what I told him when he asked me about the email.

SPECIFIC RESPONSE TO PARAGRAPHS 32 – 36 OF THE DEACON SUPPLEMENTARY AFFIDAVIT

21. In paragraphs 32 – 36 of the Deacon Supplementary Affidavit, Deacon makes two allegations: first, that I told the Trustee in Bankruptcy of Home Solutions (MNP) that the Company's inventory was significantly overstated; and second, that the Company knew this to be the case before the Loan transaction closed (and was using an alternative inventory tracking system), but did not tell PDP.

22. Although I do not recall the specifics of the conversation, I confirm that I did have a conversation with Vanessa Allen of MNP. This discussion was initiated by Ms. Allen, who reached out to me to ask for an explanation as to why the Company's inventory, pursuant to an inventory count being conducted by MNP, did not align with the Company's records. I believe that MNP conducted an actual physical count of inventory to determine the accurate level of inventory held by the Company. This was the correct and appropriate step to get a good understanding of inventory. Davidson and I had been planning to have staff take this exact step since late 2021, but were unable to do so because of the intensity of the Company's business activity and the many other challenges being dealt with by the Company and our staff, as described in the Davidson Affidavit.
23. During my conversation with her, I advised Ms. Allen that the amount of inventory reflected in the Company's business records was not accurate. The reason I did so was exactly the same reason why Davidson and I carefully put caveats on the May TD BBC and why I warned Deacon about the inventory records: the figures produced by the Company's inventory system were not reliable. This should not have been a surprise to PDP, as the Company had been telling PDP this.
24. In response to paragraphs 34 and 35 of the Deacon Supplementary Affidavit, it is correct that I had the accounting team work on implementing a simplified inventory accounting system in early 2022. This is because it was clear to us that the existing system was misreporting the Company's inventory levels.
25. After reviewing historical accounting records, Davidson and I made the following conclusions as to the methodology the Company had used for tracking inventory prior to his acquisition of the Company (the "COGS Method"):
 - (a) the Company adjusted inventory at the end of each month by calculating the Cost of Goods Sold (COGS) for the month as approximately 30% of revenues. The percentage was not always exactly 30%, historically or while I was Controller, but reasonably close. As is typical, an element of judgment is used for adjustments and accruals; Davidson and I used our judgment in that regard as well;

- (b) the Company performed an inventory count at the end of each fiscal year and would adjust the accounting system inventory balance to agree to the inventory count.
26. I was advised by members of the accounting team that in March 2020, the Company had started implementing a new accounting and inventory control software package called "Business Central", and that the full implementation was delayed by about a year, primarily because of COVID. Shortly after I joined the Company on August 31, 2021, it was clear to me that Business Central was not accurately reporting the Company's inventory. It also became clear that members of the accounting team, including the previous controller of the Company, had not been properly utilizing, and had not fully implemented the inventory module of, the Business Central system.
27. By January, 2022, I had come to the conclusion that in the short term, we could no longer rely on Business Central to track inventory. We considered using what we hoped would be a simple and straightforward manual inventory tracking spreadsheet, under the control of a single employee, Scott Nalder (our inventory technician). In this spreadsheet, Scott would keep track of inventory in, inventory out and rolling inventory stock count, with the intention of using this system to estimate the Company's inventory levels, including for the inventory reported to TD in BBC's. This is the "SharePoint-based Excel spreadsheet" referenced in my email to Ms. Romanovitch on January 20, 2022 attached as Exhibit "J" to the Deacon Supplementary Affidavit.
28. While I believed this simplified system, once developed, would provide more accurate data than the Business Central system had been providing, we still could not have confidence in the inventory numbers. As mentioned above, a full inventory count would have been required to re-establish a proper inventory baseline, from which inventory levels could be accurately tracked, and unfortunately, with all of the urgent challenges the Company was facing, as described in the Davidson Affidavit, we were unable to complete one. That is why, as noted above at paragraphs 10 to 20 of this Affidavit, we warned TD and PDP about the accuracy of the Company's reported inventory. That is also why, upon coming to the conclusion that we could not rely on the Business Central system, we reverted to the COGS Method for recording inventory. Historically, the Company had functioned without an accurate month-to-month inventory tracking system, using the COGS Method. We intended to complete an inventory count at the end of April, 2022.

29. To my knowledge, none of the Company's inventory issues were ever hidden from PDP.

CONCLUSION

30. Based on my experience and observations working with Davidson, all of Davidson's actions were taken in good faith to help the Company's business, keep it going and thrive; that was of utmost priority for Davidson. I saw no evidence whatsoever of Davidson acting dishonestly and I do not believe that he would have done so.

31. I make this Affidavit in support of Davidson's application to set aside and discharge the Mareva Order, and for no other or improper purpose.

32. I am not physically present before the Commissioner for Oaths to swear this Affidavit, but am linked with the Commissioner for Oaths utilizing video technology. The process for remote commissioning of affidavits specified in Notice to the Profession and Public NPP#2020-02 dated March 25, 2020 (the "Notice") is being followed. The Notice is attached hereto. I undertake to send this signed affidavit with its exhibits electronically to the Commissioner for Oaths.

Statement of facts relied on:

1. Except as specifically admitted herein, the Defendants deny each and every allegation in the Statement of Claim and put the Plaintiff to the strict proof thereof.
2. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Statement of Defence are intended to bear their meanings as defined in the Statement of Claim.

The Parties

3. PDP is a private debt fund, with its offices in Toronto, Ontario. All of PDP's employees are located in Ontario. It has no offices, representatives or assets outside Ontario, and more specifically, it has no offices, representatives or assets in Alberta.

4. Jeffrey Deacon ("Deacon") is an individual who resides in Toronto, Ontario. At all material times, Deacon was a Managing Director of PDP. Deacon was the primary representative of PDP, in all its dealings with the Defendants.

5. Home Solutions Corporation, carrying on business as Simple Spaces ("Home Solutions" or the "Company") is a corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Alberta. Home Solutions, at all material times, operated a Calgary-based glass and closet supply and manufacturing company, primarily servicing commercial and residential clients in the new-build industry, in Calgary and Edmonton (the "Business").

6. The Defendant 2078212 Alberta Ltd. ("208") is a corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Alberta. From approximately January 1, 2019 until May 11, 2022, 208 owned approximately 79% of the voting shares of the Company.

7. The Defendant Andrew Davidson ("Davidson") was, at all material times, the sole director of 208 and the owner of 75% of the voting shares of 208. From approximately January 1, 2019 until May 11, 2022, Davidson was:

- (a) a director of the Company; and
- (b) the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

8. From approximately January 1, 2019 until May 11, 2022, the other directors of the Company were:

- (a) John Davidson;
- (b) Mark Fairbanks;
- (c) Kendall James; and
- (d) Justin Palmer

(collectively, the "Other Directors").

9. From approximately January 1, 2019 and thereafter, 21% of the voting shares of the Company were owned by a number of parties, who were friends, family or associates of Davidson (the "Minority Shareholders").

Background

10. On or about January 1, 2019, through a series of transactions, 208 and the Minority Shareholders purchased all outstanding shares of the Company (the "Share Purchase Transaction") from Soren Nielsen and Wendy McAllister, who had previously owned the company through their entities "S. Nielsen Family Trust" and "Sonego Family Trust" (the "Previous Owners"), for approximately $13.3 Million.

11. The Share Purchase Transaction was financed by way of:

- (a) a $9.6 Million term loan from The Toronto-Dominion Bank ("TD"). TD had been financing the Business for approximately 30 years;
- (b) a $1.6 Million vendor-take-back ("VTB") mortgage granted by the Previous Owners; and
- (c) $2.1 Million from the Minority Shareholders.

12. After the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction, the Company's outstanding debt facilities were:

- (a) the term loan from TD;
- (b) the VTB from the Previous Owners; and
- (c) an operating line of credit from TD with a limit of $1,500,000.

13. Davidson and 208 provided unlimited guarantees to TD, of the Company's obligations to TD (the "TD Guarantees").

14. After the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction, the Company experienced a number of financial challenges that limited its growth and constrained its working capital, including but not limited to:

- (a) the inventory tracking and reporting system used by the Company prior to the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction required improvement and as a result, the Company was unable to efficiently and effectively order product, bid on jobs, complete work and promptly invoice for completed work;
- (b) the job cost estimating system used by the Company prior to the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction required improvement and as a result, the Company was unable to efficiently and effectively bid on jobs and predict its profit margin;
- (c) in September 2019, the Company's computer system was hacked, causing it to lose significant data, as a result of which its financial reporting became significantly less accurate;
- (d) the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic in March 2020 greatly impacted the Company's ability to operate effectively and the Company had to transfer its (largely paper-based) record-keeping systems to a fully digital format, effectively overnight;
- (e) certain of the Company's legacy accounting staff, who were in place with the Company prior to the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction and remained in place immediately thereafter, were unable to effectively implement the solutions that the Company attempted to improve its internal systems, and this further prevented accurate and real-time financial reporting for the Business;

- (f) the COVID-19 pandemic also impacted the Company by, among other things:
- (i) causing a large surge in new residential construction in Calgary and Edmonton which led to an increase in the volume of work being booked by the Company, but which it lacked sufficient working capital to effectively complete; and
 - (ii) causing significant global supply chain bottlenecks, with the result that the Company's customers (commercial and residential builders) could not complete and sell their completed products as quickly as they normally would, slowing down their receipt of revenues and causing them to slow down their payments of amounts owed to suppliers like the Company.

15. Despite the Company's efforts to rectify the problems over which it had control, the foregoing challenges negatively impacted the Company's financial performance after the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction. In November, 2019, TD transferred the administration of its loans to the Company into its "special loans" group, signifying that the Company was in distressed circumstances and was potentially in need of financial restructuring or refinancing.

16. The global COVID-19 pandemic presented significant ongoing challenges for the Company and the industry in which it operated, and by mid-2021, the Company realized that it needed to obtain new financing to increase the amount of working capital available to it, to meet its financial challenges.

Refinancing Efforts

17. TD advised the Company that it would continue to support the Company by providing the existing operating line after any refinancing, but that it would not provide increased operating credit to the Company. The Company engaged Diamond Willow Advisory ("Diamond Willow") in mid-May 2021, to assist it in looking for alternative sources of financing.

18. Diamond Willow contacted PDP and other potential lenders in connection with the refinancing of the Company.

PDP's Due Diligence

19. Commencing in June, 2021, PDP expressed an interest in providing refinancing to the Company, and in connection therewith, it:

- (a) conducted extensive written and oral communications with Diamond Willow and the Company;
- (b) was provided with, and reviewed, numerous financial reports, financial statements and other data regarding the Company, provided by Diamond Willow and the Company; and

- (c) conducted a comprehensive due diligence review of the Company and all aspects of the Business, including the Company's financial systems and financial performance.

20. In specific response to paragraphs 12 to 19 of the Statement of Claim, the Defendants state that, at all material times:

- (a) Davidson did not make any misrepresentations to PDP or Deacon with respect to Home Solutions' financial position or otherwise, either as alleged or at all;
- (b) to the knowledge of the Defendants, no other party made any misrepresentations to PDP or Deacon with respect to Home Solutions' financial position or otherwise, either as alleged or at all;
- (c) on the contrary, all of the information about Home Solutions that was provided to PDP was true, current and accurate at the time it was provided, and Davidson believed all such information to be true, current and accurate at the time it was provided;
- (d) by late 2021, at the latest, PDP ought to have had comprehensive knowledge of the Company and all aspects of the Business, including the Company's financial systems and financial performance (including but not limited to the Company's financial challenges and distressed circumstances, and the causes thereof), as a result of its lengthy due diligence process and the voluminous information provided by the Company and Diamond Willow. However (as was evidenced by later events, and indeed by the allegations of fraud being made in this action) PDP, and specifically Deacon, lacked the business knowledge, experience and expertise to fully understand the Company, the industry in which it operated and the impact on the Company of the business environment and circumstances prevalent in late 2021 and 2022; and
- (e) PDP was not "induced" by the information it received from the Company and others, to fund the Loan (as defined below). PDP decided to fund the Loan based on its own independent judgment and analysis of the lending opportunity.

The Loan Transaction

21. On January 12, 2022, PDP provided a demand term loan to the Company in the amount of $9.135 Million (the "Loan"). Part of the proceeds of the Loan (approximately $6,536,020.64) were used to pay out TD's existing term loan, part of the proceeds of the Loan (approximately $1,520,299.31) were used to fully repay the TD demand loan, and the balance of the proceeds of the Loan (approximately $1,078,680.05) were utilized by the Company as working capital (this latter amount would be deposited at TD and reduce the Company's operating balance by that amount).

22. After the closing of the Loan, the Company commenced reporting to PDP in accordance with the terms of the January 12, 2022 Credit Agreement entered into between the parties (the "Credit Agreement"). By way of this reporting, the Company continued to provide to PDP (as it had before the closing of the Loan transaction) current and accurate information about the Company's financial circumstances and performance.

23. Davidson provided to PDP a personal guarantee of the Loan, was limited to 15% of the obligations of the Company to PDP (the "Personal Guarantee").

24. 208 provided to PDP an unlimited guarantee of the Loan (the "208 Guarantee"). To secure the 208 Guarantee, 208 pledged to PDP its shares in the Company, which represented a 79% ownership interest in the Company (the "Pledged Shares").

PDP's and Deacon's Breaches of the Credit Agreement and Other Breaches

25. PDP delayed the closing of the Loan, from November 2021 to December 2021 and finally to January 12, 2022. The impact of these delays was to further exacerbate the Company's ongoing financial challenges. Had PDP closed the Loan transaction in November, 2021 (as it had promised the Company it would), the Company would have been much better positioned to deal with challenges that it faced in early 2022.

26. After the closing of the Loan, the Company's financial challenges continued, and in fact increased. The Company's builder customers slowed down their payments of the Company's invoices to an extent even greater than had been experienced in 2021. As a result, the Company's revenue was lower than forecast, based on lower than anticipated collections of accounts receivable.

27. The Company required additional liquidity to viably carry on in business and "weather the storm" until industry conditions improved. Because of its lack of liquidity and its consequent inability to purchase inventory and staff jobs, in January and February 2022, the Company's customers cancelled a number of previously-placed (but not yet completed) purchase orders.

28. All of these developments were reported accurately and faithfully to PDP. Further, PDP engaged two accountants to work with the Company to identify and address the Company's financial challenges and to report independently to PDP; these accountants were given complete and unfettered access to the Company's computer network and its books and records.

29. Commencing in about mid-March 2022, PDP and Deacon began taking active steps to undermine the position of Davidson and to seek to appropriate, for the exclusive benefit of PDP, the economic interest of 208 and the Minority Shareholders in the Company. These active steps included, but were not limited to:

- (a) communicating about the Company, including its financial circumstances, with other investors in the Company, to the exclusion of Davidson, 208 and the Minority Shareholders and without the consent of the Company;
- (b) communicating about the Company, including its financial circumstances, with the Previous Owners, to the exclusion of Davidson, 208 and the Minority Shareholders and without the consent of the Company;

- (c) communicating about the Company, including its financial circumstances, with parties unknown to the Defendants, to the exclusion of Davidson, 208 and the Minority Shareholders and without the consent of the Company;
- (d) disclosing to such parties confidential information about the Company, without the consent of the Company; and
- (e) concealing such steps and denying to Davidson that they had taken such steps, when confronted with proof that they had done so.

30. The conduct of PDP and Deacon described in paragraph 29 of this Statement of Defence constituted, among other things:

- (a) breaches by PDP of its contractual obligations under the Credit Agreement, the Personal Guarantee and the 208 Guarantee;
- (b) breaches by PDP of its duty of honest and good faith performance of its obligations under the Credit Agreement, the Personal Guarantee and the 208 Guarantee;
- (c) breaches by PDP and Deacon of their obligations of confidentiality owed to the Company, Davidson and 208;
- (d) a breach of the duty of care owed by PDP and Deacon to the Company, Davidson and 208; and
- (e) intentional interference with the economic relations of the Company, Davidson and 208.

31. As the financial condition of the Company continued to be impaired, PDP and Deacon began intimidating Davidson, the Other Directors and the Minority Shareholders, including by threatening that PDP would sue them personally and they would face significant personal liability if they did not resign their director and officer positions with the Company and their ownership of the Company to PDP.

Efforts to Restructure the Business

32. In late April and early May 2022, the Company was preparing to file a Notice of Intention to Make a Proposal pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act ("NOI"), to ensure that the Company would be restructured in an orderly way with supervision by the Court, so as to ensure that the interests of all stakeholders of the Company were appropriately protected.

33. The Company informed PDP and Deacon of this plan and Deacon reacted angrily, stating that PDP would never allow that to happen, and repeating his threats and personal intimidation against Davidson, the Other Directors and the Minority Shareholders. PDP repeated its demands that 208 and the Minority Shareholders deliver their shareholdings in the Company to PDP.

34. PDP and Deacon advised the Company and Davidson that they would never allow the Company to commence and conduct NOI proceedings under the direction of Davidson and the Other Directors. They also advised Davidson that they would never allow him to retain control of the Company, or repurchase the Company in NOI proceedings; rather, they would ensure that they would "credit bid" the Company to retain control of it.

35. At the same time that PDP and Deacon were intimidating and threatening Davidson, the Other Directors and the Minority Shareholders, they were representing that if control of the Company was handed over to PDP, PDP would restructure the Company and allow the Business to carry on.

PDP Takes Control of the Company

36. The Company and PDP held negotiations over the weekend of May 7 and 8, 2022 and by Monday morning, May 9, the parties had reached consensus on the main points of an agreement, to be memorialized in a formal written forbearance agreement. These main points were:

- (a) 208 would transfer the Pledged Shares to PDP;
- (b) the directors of the Company would sign a resolution (the "Resolution") appointing Deacon as a director and then would resign all their positions with the Company, leaving Deacon as the sole director;
- (c) Deacon would cause the Company to engage a Chief Restructuring Officer ("CRO") and file an NOI, in which the Company would conduct a sale process for its business and assets;
- (d) the parties would all assist in maximizing the value of the Company, for the benefit of its stakeholders;
- (e) PDP would submit a stalking horse bid in the NOI sale process, in which it would offer to purchase the Company or its assets, and fully assume the debt owed to PDP and the debt owed to TD; and
- (f) PDP would forbear from enforcing the Loan, the Personal Guarantee and the 208 Guarantee, for six months.

37. Prior to and after the execution of the Forbearance Agreement (defined below), Deacon and PDP made the following representations to the Defendants, the Company, the Other Directors and other parties:

- (a) PDP had an investor who was prepared to inject $4 million or $5 million in capital into the Company;
- (b) Deacon and PDP would ensure that there was necessary funding was in place to meet the Company's liquidity needs, including its payroll costs;
- (c) PDP would initiate NOI proceedings for Home Solutions by May 24, 2022 and appoint a CRO to oversee the NOI proceedings;

- (d) in the NOI proceedings, an orderly restructuring process would be followed which would include a Court-supervised sale process; and
- (e) PDP would submit a stalking horse bid in the NOI sale process, in which it would offer to fully assume the debt owed to PDP and the debt owed to TD

(collectively, the "Representations").

38. Prior to and after the execution of the Forbearance Agreement, Deacon and PDP omitted to tell the Defendants, the Company or the Other Directors that:

- (a) PDP did not have access to the funds necessary to allow the Company to continue in business and to fund the NOI process, contrary to the Representations;
- (b) PDP needed to reach agreement with one or more third parties to obtain such funds, and it had not yet done so; and
- (c) PDP would not or could not perform its obligations under the Forbearance Agreement, unless it was able to finalize such agreements with one or more third parties;

(collectively, the "Omissions").

39. When Deacon and PDP made the Representations to the Defendants, the Company and the Other Directors, they knew or ought to have known that the Representations were untrue. They made the Representations willfully, to induce the Defendants, the Company and the Other Directors to enter into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of the Company to PDP. The Defendants, the Company and the Other Directors reasonably relied on the Representations and were thereby caused to enter into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of the Company to PDP. As a result, the Defendants suffered damages.

40. When Deacon and PDP omitted to tell the Defendants, the Company and the Other Directors about the Omissions, they knew or ought to have known of the Omissions. They failed to inform the Defendants, the Company and the Other Directors of the Omissions willfully, to induce the Defendants, the Company and the Other Directors to enter into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of the Company to PDP. The Defendants, the Company and the Other Directors reasonably relied on the absence of the Omissions and were thereby caused to enter into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of the Company to PDP. As a result, the Defendants suffered damages.

41. By willfully making the Representations and Omissions, PDP and Deacon breached a duty of care owed to the Defendants, the Company and the Other Directors.

42. On May 11, 2022, Davidson and the Other Directors held a board meeting and passed the Resolution, appointing Deacon as a director of the Company. Subsequently on that day, the Company, Davidson, 208 and PDP executed the Forbearance Agreement and thereafter, Davidson and the Other Directors resigned all their positions and offices with the Company, leaving Deacon as the sole director of the Company.

43. Thereafter, Deacon was in sole and complete control of the Company. Despite this fact, Deacon never caused the Alberta Corporate Registry to be updated to reflect his tenure as the sole director of the Company, commencing on May 11, 2022.

44. In the Forbearance Agreement, the Company, Davidson, 208 and PDP agreed to the following terms, among others:

- (a) 208 would transfer its shares representing a 79% interest in the Company, to PDP;
- (b) Davidson would call a meeting of the directors of the Company at which the directors would pass the Resolution, which would do the following:
 - (i) authorize the Company to enter into the Forbearance Agreement;
 - (ii) appoint Deacon as a director of the Company;
 - (iii) appoint a CRO to be selected by PDP, who would be authorized to commence the NOI proceedings and the sales process therein;
 - (iv) accept the resignation of Davidson as a director and officer of the Company; and
 - (v) authorize the Company to terminate Davidson and his wife, Jody Davidson, as employees of the Company;
- (c) on or before May 31, 2022, PDP would initiate the NOI proceedings, and a sale process therein, which would include a stalking horse bid that would fully assume the entire debt owed by the Company to PDP and the entire debt owed by the Company to TD, along with assuming other debts to be determined by PDP;
- (d) PDP would procure interim financing to pay the costs of the NOI and the sale process therein;
- (e) PDP would ensure that the Company was sufficiently funded to meet its payroll expenses; and
- (f) PDP would support efforts by the Company to seek releases in the NOI proceedings for the benefit of the present and former directors and officers of the Company, among other parties.

Deacon's Failure to Competently Manage the Company and PDP's and Deacon's Further Breaches

45. At all material times, including but not limited to the times at which:

- (a) Deacon and PDP made the Representations and the Omissions;

- (b) PDP negotiated the Forbearance Agreement;
- (c) PDP entered into the Forbearance Agreement; and
- (d) Deacon accepted his appointment as a director of the Company;

PDP and Deacon knew or ought to have known, by virtue of the Company's reporting to them, of the Company's financial circumstances.

46. Deacon was completely ill-equipped and ill-prepared to manage a construction supply business like Home Solutions. He had no experience in taking on such a task. After he gained complete control of the Company, Deacon refused or neglected to take the basic steps required to allow the Company to remain in business, including:

- (a) maintaining strong communications, or any substantial communications at all, with customers, suppliers and staff;
- (b) rejecting offers of assistance from Davidson that would have helped him keep the Business operating;
- (c) severely disrupting the Company's staff and operations by inviting the Previous Owners to attend at the Company's offices, unannounced, and communicate directly with the Company's staff; and
- (d) working to collect the Company's accounts receivable so that the Company continued to receive revenue.

47. After Deacon gained complete control of the Company, Deacon and PDP completely refused, neglected and failed to:

- (a) engage a CRO;
- (b) commence NOI proceedings; and
- (c) provide or procure the funding necessary to allow the Company to cover its costs, and the costs of the promised NOI proceedings.

48. Deacon was in over his head. He did not know how to operate a company like Home Solutions that was experiencing financial distress. After May 11, 2022, he panicked and failed to take even the most rudimentary steps to stabilize the Business.

49. When Deacon and PDP failed to reach the agreements with third parties that PDP needed to be able to perform its obligations under the Forbearance Agreement, Deacon caused the Company to assign itself into bankruptcy on May 19, 2022. This was only 8 days after Deacon took over complete control of the Company. Had Deacon not panicked, and had he instead taken the advice and assistance that was being offered by Davidson and others, and exercised prudent business judgment, the Company could have been restructured and saved.

50. Had PDP faithfully performed its obligations under the Forbearance Agreement, the Company would have successfully restructured and continued in Business, for the benefit of its employees, customers and suppliers. Davidson and 208 would have had no liability under the Personal Guarantee and the 208 Guarantee.

51. Deacon's conduct described above constituted, among other things:

- (a) breaches of his duty of care and his fiduciary duty as the sole director of the Company;
- (b) breaches of his duty of care owed to the Defendants, and indeed gross negligence; and
- (c) intentional interference with the economic relations of the Defendants.

52. PDP's conduct described above constituted, among other things:

- (a) breaches of the Credit Agreement, the Personal Guarantee, the 208 Guarantee and the Forbearance Agreement;
- (b) breaches of its duty of honest and good faith performance of its obligations under the Credit Agreement, the Personal Guarantee, the 208 Guarantee and the Forbearance Agreement;
- (c) breaches of its duty of care owed to the Defendants, and indeed gross negligence; and
- (d) intentional interference with the economic relations of the Defendants.

53. On May 20, 2022, PDP sent a notice to Home Solutions and Davidson, cynically alleging that Home Solutions and Davidson had breached the Forbearance Agreement. On the basis of these allegations, PDP purported to terminate the Forbearance Agreement. PDP took this step to attempt to excuse its and Deacon's numerous and egregious breaches described above, including PDP's complete failure to perform its obligations under the Forbearance Agreement.

54. PDP made numerous efforts to purchase the Company or its assets out of bankruptcy, but these efforts apparently failed because PDP lacked the funds to do so, and could not reach agreement with third parties to allow it to do so.

Damages Alleged to be Suffered by the Plaintiff

55. If PDP suffered any damages, those damages were caused by the gross negligence, negligence, contributory negligence, breaches and fault of PDP, including as alleged in this Statement of Defence, and as shall be further proven at trial.

56. PDP voluntarily assumed the risk of the losses and damages alleged in the Statement of Claim and the Defendants specifically plead and rely on the doctrine of volenti non fit injuria, which provides a complete defence to the Defendants.

57. PDP failed to take any reasonable steps to mitigate its damages, including as alleged in this Statement of Defence, and as shall be further proven at trial.

Any matters that defeat the claim of the plaintiff:

58. The factual matters pleaded above.

Remedy sought:

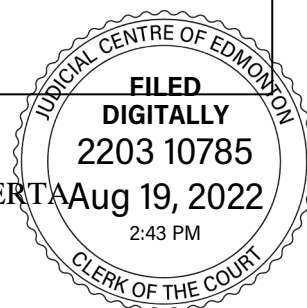

59. The Defendants ask that this Honourable Court:

- (a) dismiss the entirety of PDP's claims herein, with solicitor and client (full indemnity) costs to the Defendant, Davidson, as a result of the Plaintiff's unfounded allegations of fraud, or in the alternative, costs to the Defendant, Davidson, on such other basis as this Honourable Court deems appropriate, and costs to the Defendant, 208;
- (b) direct that the venue for the adjudication of this matter be moved to the Judicial Centre of Calgary; and
- (c) Such further and other relief as this Honourable Court may deem just.

NOTICE TO DEFENDANTS BY COUNTERCLAIM

You are being sued. You are a defendant by counterclaim.

Go to the end of this document to see what you can do and when you must do it.

Statement of facts relied on:

1. The Plaintiffs by Counterclaim repeat and adopt the facts, allegations, and defined terms set out in their Statement of Defence.

Causes of Action

2. By way of its conduct as described in the Statement of Defence, including but not limited to paragraphs 25 - 54, PDP:

- (a) breached its contractual obligations under the Credit Agreement, the Personal Guarantee, the 208 Guarantee and the Forbearance Agreement;
- (b) breached its duty of honest and good faith performance of its obligations under the Credit Agreement, the Personal Guarantee, the 208 Guarantee and the Forbearance Agreement;
- (c) breached its obligations of confidentiality owed to the Company, Davidson and 208;
- (d) breached its duty of care owed to the Company, Davidson and 208, to the level of gross negligence;
- (e) intentionally interfered with the economic relations of the Company, Davidson and 208; and
- (f) made the Representations and failed to inform the Defendants of the Omissions willfully, knowing they were untrue, to induce the Plaintiffs by Counterclaim and others to enter into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of the Company to PDP.

3. By way of his conduct as described in the Statement of Defence, including but not limited to paragraphs 29 - 54, Deacon:

- (a) breached his obligations of confidentiality owed to the Company, Davidson and 208;
- (b) breached his duty of care owed to the Company, Davidson and 208, to the level of gross negligence;
- (c) intentionally interfered with the economic relations of the Company, Davidson and 208;
- (d) made the Representations and failed to inform the Defendants of the Omissions willfully, knowing they were untrue, to induce the Plaintiffs by Counterclaim and others to into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of the Company to PDP; and
- (e) breached of his duty of care and his fiduciary duty as the sole director of the Company.

4. In or about July, 2022, PDP commenced this Action and without any reasonable justification whatsoever, obtained a Mareva/Attachment Order against Davidson (the "Mareva Order").

5. Thereafter, PDP:

- (a) indiscriminately served the Mareva Order on all major financial institutions in Canada;
- (b) at the same time irresponsibly and completely unnecessarily provided to those institutions the Statement of Claim in this Action, in which PDP made completely unfounded and malicious allegations, including but not limited to allegations of fraud, against Davidson; and
- (c) failed to take reasonably prudent steps in such correspondence to advise the financial institutions of the limited scope of the Mareva Order (the Mareva Order purported to attach only Davidson's interest in the sale proceeds of two jointly-owned real properties);

6. These actions were designed to, and did, interfere with Davidson's economic interests, denigrate Davidson's reputation and impair his ability to obtain credit, obtain employment, and conduct business in the future. This conduct amounted to a reckless abuse of the process of the Court, defamation and intentional interference with Davidson's economic relations.

7. As a result of the conduct described in paragraphs 2 to 6 of this Counterclaim, PDP and Deacon caused damages to Davidson and 208.

Punitive, Aggravated, and Exemplary Damages

8. In all of these circumstances, the conduct of the Defendants by Counterclaim to intentionally inflict economic harm on Davidson was aggravated and reckless conduct and entitles Davidson to punitive, aggravated, and exemplary damages for the scandalous and baseless allegations by and behavior of the Defendants by Counterclaim.

Venue

9. The more appropriate venue for the adjudication of this litigation is in the judicial centre of Calgary because it is the closest judicial centre to the Alberta residences and Alberta places of business of all the parties. The central documents and records engaged by the issues in this litigation are stored in Calgary and most of the key witnesses reside or maintain a residence in Calgary. Furthermore, Calgary was, at the time, the location of the Company's head office.

Remedy sought:

10. The Plaintiffs by Counterclaim seek the following remedies:

- (a) an Order setting aside the Mareva Order, with solicitor and client full indemnity costs payable by the Defendants by Counterclaim to Davidson, forthwith, or in the alternative, costs to Davidson on such other basis as this Honourable Court deems appropriate, and costs to 208;

- (b) an award of damages against PDP and Deacon, in the same amount as any damages awarded to PDP herein with respect to the Personal Guarantee and the 208 Guarantee;
- (c) an award of damages against PDP and Deacon, in the same amount as any amounts that the Plaintiffs by Counterclaim become liable to pay, or do pay, with respect to the TD Guarantees; of the

Preamble

[1] This dispute engages two cross-applications: one to affirm the Interim Order at issue and the other to set it aside. Accordingly, it is somewhat unhelpful to use the terms Applicants or Respondents. Consistent with the submissions, I will refer to the Plaintiff lender Private Debt Partners as “PDP”; the borrower Home Solutions Corporation as “Home Solutions”; and the Defendant guarantor on the debt (together with his holding corporation where appropriate) as “Davidson”.

[2] As expressed to counsel at the close of oral argument, I regret that late filing to upload materials and post-hearing commitments have impeded the delivery of these written reasons on a more timely basis.

Overview

[3] PDP obtained an ex parte Mareva Injunction and Attachment Order from the Court of Queen's Bench on July 14, 2022 (the "Interim Order"). The transcript of that court appearance has been referenced by both sides during argument as a brief emergency application to protect net proceeds payable to Davidson from the anticipated sale of two properties owned jointly by Davidson and his spouse, namely:

- A home in Calgary where Davidson had been residing with his wife and four children (the "Calgary Residence"); and
- A cabin in Marion, Montana (the "Montana Cabin").

[4] Because the terms of the Interim Order were due to expire before this matter could be reviewed on the merits, the parties obtained a Consent Order on August 3, 2022 to extend the terms and set a schedule for preparation of further evidence and formal briefs of argument.

[5] Having filed a Statement of Claim alleging fraud against Davidson and now alleging that he may be relocating to the United States, PDP urges on this review that the Court should extend the Interim Order. Davidson strenuously denies all fraud allegations. He specifically asserts that the evidence simply does not support any inference that assets are being liquidated as part of a plan to leave Alberta or otherwise dissipated to avoid enforcement of any judgment against him.

[6] In the alternative, counsel for Davidson profiles that the Court may direct release of some portion of any net proceeds to enable Davidson to pay ordinary living expenses and reasonable legal fees.

[7] Without disclosure of net proceeds, it now appears that the sale of the Montana Cabin closed on June 30, 2022 and that the Calgary Residence closed on July 14, 2022.

[8] The bulk of extensive submissions focused on the relative strength of the allegations of PDP as may support injunctive relief.

Background

[9] Home Solutions was first established in Calgary by Soren Neilson and Wendy McAllister in 1990 as a glass and closet supply and manufacturing company. The scope of business involved contracts in both the commercial and residential new-builds industry. The initial owners were financed by the Toronto Dominion Bank (TD) for nearly 30 years.

[10] In the summer of 2018, Davidson and other entities expressed interest in acquiring Home Solutions. An Agreement for the purchase of Home Solutions closed on January 1, 2019 for $13.3M, the terms of which are not particularly relevant today except that it involved a significant term loan from TD, as well as a vendor takeback mortgage issued by the prior owners Nielson and McAllister.

[11] Davidson effectively acquired a controlling interest, with appointment as president, chief executive officer, and a director of Home Solutions.

[12] PDP commenced its business in about April 2020, as a specialized private debt firm that acts as a lender to mid-market Canadian companies. The principal and managing partner of PDP is Jeffrey Deacon (“Deacon”).

[13] During the summer of 2021, PDP expressed interest in assisting Home Solutions with supplementary financing. Home Solutions had retained an advisory firm, Diamond Willow Advisory (“Diamond Willow”) to assist with refinancing efforts. From approximately July 2021 to January 2022, PDP engaged in a due diligence analysis in support of a potential loan arrangement with Home Solutions. Various reports were prepared, and discussions were held, including such matters as: operating systems, business projections, the effects of supply on collection of receivables, the reliability of inventory reports, and other financial topics with PDP and TD.

[14] One such report was a ten-page review of issues raised by PDP for which responses were provided by Home Solutions with involvement of Diamond Willow on a variety of ongoing matters as of September 2021 (the “Due Diligence List”).

[15] There were personnel issues at Home Solutions, and Andrew Sheer (“Sheer”) was hired by Home Solutions as its new controller for September 2021.

[16] During this period, two other corporations, Gemstone Lights Calgary Ltd. and 3M Holdings Ltd., injected approximately $1,200,000 as an investment to assist cash flow issues for Home Solutions.

[17] On January 11, 2022, Davidson executed a personal guarantee for 15% of the repayment obligations of Home Solutions to PDP on specified terms tied to a Loan Agreement for $9.135M, in conjunction with TD under a Credit Account/Funding Facility. Under the Loan Agreement, monies were advanced by PDP to address several priorities affecting the business of Home Solutions, including repayment of specified loans to TD and working capital (the “Funding”).

[18] Over the next several weeks, issues continued to affect the business of Home Solutions, including impacts of Covid-19 on invoicing, an unreliable inventory system, as well as global supply issues. By March 2022, financial specialists were retained on directions of Deacon. Cash flow difficulties persisted, raising a distinct need for infusion of more capital from investors.

[19] In late April and facing default with TD, the directors of Home Solutions proposed to file a Notice of Intention to Make a Proposal pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, RSC 1985, c B-3 (“NOI”), but Deacon rejected the idea. The parties dispute how and when Deacon was first made aware that TD noted Home Solutions in default.

[20] PDP issued a Notice of Default on loan payments on May 5, 2022, and the relationship between Davidson and Deacon deteriorated. With input from other participants, the parties negotiated a forbearance on May 10, 2022 on terms which included that:

- Davidson’s corporation transfer its 79% share interest in Home Solutions to PDP;
- Davidson resign as President, Director, and CEO of Home Solutions and Deacon take over responsibility as sole director;
- PDP forbear on enforcement of its loan, security, and guarantees for 6 months; and

- PDP cause Home Solutions to engage a Chief Restructuring Officer and file a Notice of Intention to initiate a sale process of the business supervised by a proposal trustee with a stalking horse bid by May 31, 2022.

Court Proceedings

[21] On May 20, 2022, Home Solutions was assigned into bankruptcy on application of TD, and MNP was appointed as Insolvency Trustee.

[22] On June 28, 2022, PDP obtained its own receiver in respect of the Home Solutions bankruptcy. Under the terms of the Order of Nixon J, the office of Grant Thornton was appointed as Receiver of assets, excluding Inventory and Accounts Receivable secured by TD.

[23] In the ex parte application on July 14, 2022, Counsel for PDP relied on the first Affidavit of Deacon (“First Deacon Affidavit”) which identified the Calgary Residence and the Montana Cabin as the two main assets listed in the net worth statement of Davidson in support of his Personal Guarantee. Counsel noted the Statement of Claim and asserted a strong prima facie case to support relief, including “... reasonable grounds for believing Davidson is dealing or likely to deal with Davidson’s exigible property otherwise than to meet reasonable and ordinary business or living expenses in a manner that would be likely to seriously hinder the Plaintiff in the enforcement of judgment against the Defendant; and reasonable grounds to believe there is a risk of dissipation or removal before judgment or satisfaction.”

[24] Counsel acknowledged the duty of full disclosure to the Court and offered to review the details of the alleged financial misrepresentations; the Court declined the offer to review, stating (Transcript at 4, ll.6-9):

No, I see that from – it’s a lengthy affidavit and I will not claim to have read every word of it - but I am on a numbered page. But in para 93 after you’ve talked about the alleged fraudulent activities and so on, you are talking about the sale of Mr. Davidson’s residence.

[25] As reflected in the Transcript and the form of the filed Interim Order, a number of amendments were made by the Court to narrow the template to net proceeds of sale for the two properties.

[26] On August 3, 2022, Fagnan J endorsed a Consent Order for extension of the Injunction to August 26, 2022. Pursuant to the terms of the Consent Order, the status of any funds held in trust from the sales of the Calgary Residence and the Montana Cabin have been reported to counsel for Davidson. In turn, Davidson has instructed counsel to provide that sworn evidence of his assets to the Court to remain sealed, unless the Court finds it necessary to review that evidence in consideration of the alternative remedy.

[27] When it became apparent that a written decision was required in this application and cross-application, the Court extended the interlocutory injunction on a without prejudice basis and authorized the release of a portion of funds not to exceed $75,000 for Davidson to support his family and contribute to the costs of this litigation.

Alleged Fraud

[28] The dispute between Deacon as principal for PDP and Davidson as former President of Home Solutions in particular centres on a number of allegations of fraudulent misrepresentations. These were initially listed in the First Deacon Affidavit (at para 22) under four categories (although the Statement of Claim listed only the first three).

- a. Financial Statements: allegations that Davidson caused Home Solutions to prepare internal, non-audited financial statements, which showed a positive trend in revenues, especially in Q4 of 2021 (the period immediately prior to funding).

Deacon deposed that these trends were clearly based on information which Davidson knew to be inaccurate and that he believes these financials were concocted in order to bring Home Solutions into purported compliance with PDP's conditions precedent to induce PDP to advance funding to the company.

- b. Projection Documents: allegations that Davidson caused Home Solutions to prepare internal projection documents, including a 13-week cash flow statement, which purported to show that several hundreds of thousands of dollars in accounts receivable were expected to be collected in January and February 2022.

Again, Deacon asserts that these documents were concocted in order to comply with PDP's conditions precedent for the sole purpose of inducing PDP to lend under false pretenses.

- c. Inventory Overstatements: allegations that Davidson misrepresented the value of Home Solutions' inventory in January and again in May 2022 by more than $1,600,000. As later determined in an inventory liquidation process for auction dated June 14, 2022, the inventory was valued at approximately $40,000.

Although Davidson was aware of issues with the inventory system, at no time did he initiate an inventory count.

- d. Default of Loan Agreement: allegations that Davidson signed off on the Credit Facility knowing full well from and after PDP advanced funds on January 12, 2022 that Home Solutions was in breach of the covenant in the Loan Agreement to maintain a minimum of $500,000 available on its line of credit with TD.

According to section 1.1 of the Loan Agreement, Home Solutions had committed to reducing their line of credit with TD to $1,250,000.

In order to stay within the terms of the Loan Agreement, however, Home Solutions covenanted that it could only draw down on the line to a maximum of $750,000 in order to maintain the $500,000 of available credit. Although more than $600,000 was paid down within days, Home Solutions still exceeded the maximum draw by $368,000 and failed to disclose this default to PDP at any time.

[29] Davidson unequivocally denies each allegation, including his alleged role and motives. Equally, he attributes a significant level of information and knowledge to Deacon derived from the five-month due diligence inquiry of PDP before funds were advanced; also, Davidson maintains that the financial issues affecting the business of Home Solutions in 2022 continued to be provided to Deacon by the accounting staff, including through communications from the Controller and Davidson with Deacon or consultants retained at his directions.

[30] Davidson deposes that certain communications on key issues were reflected in materials attached to the First Deacon Affidavit. However, they were not noted in the Brief for the July 14 hearing. In other instances, Davidson states that the communications were distorted by Deacon's selective interpretation as demonstrated by additional materials provided by Davidson.

[31] The submissions on behalf of the parties related to the fraud allegations – both oral and written – are as profoundly discordant as they are laboriously detailed.

Analysis

[32] Although counsel for the parties have submitted a significant volume of case law and academic material dealing with the test for attachment orders, as well as Mareva injunctions, the principles are largely settled.

Attachment Order

[33] The Civil Enforcement Act, RSA 2000, c C-15, s 17 sets out the requirements for an attachment order:

- proof of commencement or intention to commence action in Alberta;
- a reasonable likelihood that the claim against the defendant will be established; and
- reasonable grounds for believing that the defendant is dealing or is likely to deal with its exigible property other than for the purpose of meeting its reasonable and ordinary business and living expenses and in a manner that would likely seriously hinder the claimant in the enforcement of a judgment against the defendant.

[34] In addition, an undertaking to pay damages is required; inconvenience is to be minimized; the value of property attached must not exceed the claim, unless such a limitation is unworkable; and there must be an expiry date not longer than 21 days from the date the order is granted unless it is extended: Civil Enforcement Act, ss 17-19.

Mareva* Injunction

[35] Many similar requirements apply to applications for the extraordinary relief of Mareva injunctions. As expressed in Secure 2013 Group Inc v Tiger Calcium Services Inc, 2017 ABCA 316 [Tiger Calcium] at para 67, quoting Cho v Twin Cities Power-Canada ULC, 2012 ABCA 47 at para 5:

There are a number of procedural requirements, and the usual tripartite test for ordinary injunctions probably also must be satisfied. On the merits, the plaintiff must show a strong prima facie case for his suit, and also that there is a real risk that the respondent will remove assets from the jurisdiction, or dissipate them, in order to avoid execution (enforcement) under a judgment.

[36] In R v Canadian Broadcasting Corp, 2018 SCC 5, the Supreme Court explained that a strong prima facie case means a strong likelihood on the law and the evidence presented that the applicant will be successful at proving the allegations at trial: at para 17. In other words, it means that the case is “very likely” to succeed at trial: ibid.

[37] The procedural requirements for a Mareva injunction are similar to an attachment order and include: utmost good faith with full, fair, and candid disclosure, including adverse facts and potential defences as part of a comprehensive brief, in order to protect the integrity of the legal system (Tiger Calcium at paras 44-50 and cases cited).

Interim Order

[38] As in Tiger Calcium, the Interim Order conflated the Attachment Order and the Mareva Injunction. As the Court observed in Tiger Calcium (at para 116): “This combination is discouraged because it makes it difficult to determine whether the provisions of the Civil Enforcement Act are intended to govern or whether the principles of the law of equity apply.”

[39] It is also complicated because some courts have articulated that a strong prima facie case is higher than a “reasonable likelihood”: Osman Auction Inc v Belland, 1998 ABQB 964 at para 39; First Mortgage Fund (V) Inc v Boychuk, 2003 ABQB 217 at para 16; 1498587 Alberta Inc v Devani, 2012 ABQB 324 at paras 21-22; 1007374 Alberta Ltd v Ruggieri, 2013 ABQB 420 at para 26; GEMBA LLC v Nixious Investments Inc, 2014 ABQB 197 at paras 33-34; 1773907 Alberta Ltd v Davidson, 2016 ABQB 2 at para 89, aff’d 2017 ABCA 267; Pinto Ventures Ltd v Soost, 2016 ABQB 454 at paras 73-75, aff’d 2017 ABCA 25; Royal Bank of Canada v McLaughlin, 2016 ABQB 80 at para 30; Athabasca Minerals Inc v Syncrude Canada Ltd, 2017 ABQB 47 at para 140. In Bank of Nova Scotia v Five Star Motor Group Ltd, 2020 ABCA 244, the Court of Appeal held that the reasonable likelihood standard is “arguably lower” than a strong prima facie case: at para 17.

[40] I am respectful of these expressions of the standard but will apply the test of a strong prima facie case. I will also bear in mind the principles of the law of equity. In that regard, I clarify as a matter of fairness that at least in the circumstances presented by this case, the proof of a “reasonable likelihood” is not materially lower than a strong prima facie case.

[41] As such, the factors which will inform my conclusion under the law of equity are entirely consistent with the Civil Enforcement Act. Accordingly, I will not review the case separately under both regimes for which there is near-complete overlap. I interpret the presentations of both parties to support this approach.

[42] I will then return to the “usual tripartite test” (set out in RJR McDonald v Canada (AG), [1994] 1 SCR 311 [RJR-McDonald]), including irreparable harm and the balance of convenience. Addressing two of the procedural prerequisites for an attachment order, PDP has filed its Statement of Claim and has recently perfected an undertaking as to damages.

[43] However, it is important to address the objections to the ex parte proceedings held on July 14, 2022.

Ex Parte Hearing

[44] As noted earlier, the judge in emergency chambers (the “Emergency Judge”) very briefly declined the offer of counsel to go through the background of the alleged financial misrepresentations. With great respect, that exchange does not discharge the duty. An emergency judge without an advance opportunity to review materials must be properly advised of the basis to support a strong prima facie case or reasonable likelihood that the claim against the defendant will be established.

[45] As an officer of the Court, counsel must also alert the Court to the risks associated with the extraordinary relief sought without notice, including some sense of differing interpretations and possible defences. PDP did include three paragraphs in the written brief presented to the emergency chambers judge referring to some potential factual disputes. At minimum, those needed to be drawn to the specific attention of the emergency Judge.

[46] Davidson's initial critique is that the Interim Order should not have been issued because PDP "deliberately" failed to point out extensive evidence which contradicted the allegations against Davidson, both in the First Deacon Affidavit and also as otherwise known to Deacon.

[47] Mindful that an extension hearing ought not to condone the limited account of circumstances in support or opposition to extraordinary relief at first instance (even where a Court declines the offer of some review of the circumstances), I find it to be both unnecessary and imprudent to conclude that any failures were deliberate. My reasoning is specific to the circumstances as presented, but it is founded in the case law to be applied.

[48] Firstly, it is important not to speculate or generalize as to the extent of disclosure if the Emergency Judge had encouraged and probed the evidentiary support for the allegations. The materials provided to the Emergency Judge included some potential defences in the brief, and the Court did express appreciation for the full disclosure, even though that comment may have been more connected to the amendments to tighten the wording of the Interim Order.

[49] Notably, the review of the Interim Order granted ex parte is a hearing de novo: Tiger Calcium at para 173, citing Marcil v Ellefson, 2014 ABCA 169 at para 23. As will be seen from a review of the allegations of fraudulent misrepresentation to be considered below, the Interim Order must be set aside, because, based on what has been presented to this Court, there is not a strong prima facie case which is reasonably likely to succeed at trial. That determination will be dispositive of these cross applications.

[50] Moreover, the dynamics between Davidson and Deacon leading up to the bankruptcy do not reflect objectivity; a hearing based on transcripts and a large volume of documents is not conducive to attributing motive over an extended period, particularly where such findings will be central to a trial on the merits.

[51] The consequences of non-disclosure on application for extraordinary relief are within the discretion of the Court. In Tiger Calcium at para 47, the Court of Appeal quotes from Duke Energy Corp v Duke/Louis Dreyfus Canada Corp, 1998 ABCA 196 to say that the Court will sometimes set aside an order based on breach of full disclosure. It declines to define the circumstances as may trigger setting aside on this ground.

[52] Davidson has amplified the interpretations from the evidence which speak against fraudulent misrepresentations. Because differing versions of events and document content must be weighed fully in relation to the onus on PDP to prove its case, that evidence is most reliably analysed as part of a full trial rather than a mini-trial: National Bank Trust v Yurov, [2016] EWHC 1913 at para 19; Alliance Bank v Zhunus, [2015] EWHC 714 at para 67; Polar Supplies Ltd v Cape Dorset (Hamlet), 2013 NUCA 11.

[53] Nonetheless, the simplistic presentation of the initial application by PDP as critiqued does constitute a relevant factor in reviewing whether the Interim Order ought to be extended or set aside. The failure of PDP to refer to two instances where Davidson and Deacon discussed possible sale of the Calgary Residence and Montana Cabin (in March and May) is ostensibly relevant to any inference or attribution of a hasty intent to dissipate. I will examine the arguments as to substantive shortcomings of the PDP evidence as part of whether a strong prima facie case exists to support continuation of the Interim Order.

Strong Prima Facie Case

[54] As set out in Hryniak v Mauldin, 2014 SCC 7 at para 87, the elements of fraud in a civil context requires the following proofs:

- a false representation by the Defendant;
- some level of knowledge of the falsehood of the representation on the part of the Defendant (whether knowledge or recklessness);
- the false representation caused the Plaintiff to act; and
- the Plaintiff's actions resulted in a loss.

[55] This is a pre-trial and by no means final assessment. To determine whether the evidence meets the strong prima facie onus to support continuation of the Interim Order, I will examine in turn each of the four allegations of fraud summarized earlier.

[56] Counsel for Davidson raised some concern that Deacon has prepared two additional affidavits to “bootstrap” the evidence in support of extending the Interim Order. To address that briefly, the Court’s discretion to admit new evidence on review must balance both legal and practical considerations.

[57] The parties agreed to a process for the preparation of affidavits, Questioning, and true reply evidence, as well as written briefs. Evidence which was available but not profiled initially must be treated with caution: Tiger Calcium at para 176. However, despite some obvious overlap and repetition, the supplementary and reply affidavits do not amount to bootstrapping or otherwise offend the fairness of the assessment of the merits of the positions advanced.

Financial Statements

[58] PDP asserts that Davidson caused the preparation of the financial statements to show a positive trend in revenue from April 2021 prior to the Funding; that the Statements were based on information which Davidson knew to be inaccurate; and that the Statements were concocted to induce PDP to advance funding to Home Solutions.

[59] From Questioning, Deacon identified two documents in support:

1. An email from Sheer, as Controller, to Davidson, Deacon, and a consultant party with the November 2021 reporting package to TD; and
2. A similar reporting package to TD for October 2021 without any email to reflect how and by whom it was prepared.

[60] While Deacon asserts that Davidson caused preparation of the Statements with trends he knew to be inaccurate, such a conclusion would require the Court to draw serious inferences from limited information that:

- Davidson's review of data assembled by the accounting team from electronic and other records of Home Solutions for the Controller on a regular report format to TD was a sustained sham by him; and
- Davidson had actual knowledge that figures were falsely generated, because he had a strong knowledge and awareness of the financial situation.

[61] Those inferences are not compelling, nor can they reasonably oust other explanations of the alleged inaccuracies. He did not prepare or control the electronic and other inputs for the statements; as well, the nature, extent, and cause of any inaccuracies remains unclear.

[62] After the Funding, Davidson was the person who enclosed the financial statements for January and February in an email to Deacon on March 23, 2022, where he identified eight questions for consideration. By that point, PDP had placed financial specialists on site. Nothing would support that Davidson's questions were distractions to what he identified as unreliable figures.

[63] What the evidence does support is that Davidson recognized and acknowledged ongoing financial challenges from at least the Spring of 2021. Home Solutions required refinancing and it had retained Diamond Willow to assist, which is how PDP first began to look at the request for refinancing.

[64] Issues were identified by PDP in the Due Diligence Document. Deacon also wrote to Diamond Willow about the effect of supply chain matters. The Questioning of Deacon confirms that discussions continued on numerous financial issues before and after the Funding in January 2022. The level of knowledge by Davidson and the control of reporting is unclear. His affidavit evidence pointed to a need for more liquidity to take on more and larger projects as the company grew. The extent to which this may have tied into problems with financial reporting and the inventory system is unclear.

[65] The affidavit and Questioning of Sheer speak not only to the preparation of financial statements for TD and others according to typical business practices; he also expressly disagreed with the allegations of dishonesty against Davidson, based on his knowledge.

[66] The evidence presented to date may support the suspicions and concerns as articulated. It does not amount to strong prima facie proof of fraud by Davidson as a concoction to induce the Funding.

Projection Documents

[67] PDP asserts that Davidson caused Home Solutions to prepare internal projection documents, including a 13-week cash flow statement, which purported to show that several hundreds of thousands of dollars in accounts receivable were expected to be collected in January and February 2022. During Questioning, Deacon confirmed that the projection was prepared and emailed by Sheer, although he maintained that Davidson was involved and had full knowledge of the financial affairs of Home Solutions.

[68] The evidence does not ascribe the level of control by Davidson of the information upon which the projection is based. Too many business variables are at play to draw firm conclusions at this stage. Davidson's response evidence noted at least two factors:

1. Optimism derived from a large backlog of orders; and
2. Supply chain issues impacting payments and completions.

[69] Even dramatically faulty projections will seldom support a characterization of fraud without significant evidence of concoction. A statement of belief in concoction must be supported in the evidence: Hembruff v Ontario Municipal Employees Retirement Board (2005), 78 OR (3d) 561, [2005] OJ No 4667 at paras 76- 77; see also Motkoski Holdings Ltd v Yellowhead (County of), 2010 ABCA 72 at paras 43-45; Hogarth v Rocky Mountain Slate Inc, 2013 ABCA 57 at paras 59-60.

[70] Inferences to be derived from lower accounts receivable, evidence of invoicing for incomplete work, or difficulties in collection will not support deliberate concoction as evidence of fraud.

[71] There is some evidence that some invoices were issued by Home Solutions, before and after the Funding, for work that was incomplete. Davidson alleges that some projects will be invoiced for completed portions where other parts are incomplete, and collection is a matter of working with the customer. The Court must always be alert to the potential colourability of receivables, which may be based in whole or in part on work in progress.

[72] Nonetheless, at this stage, suspicions and concerns as articulated do not enable the Court to find a strong prima facie proof of fraudulent misrepresentations to PDP by Davidson to induce the Funding.

Inventory Overstatements

[73] PDP alleges that Davidson misrepresented the value of Home Solutions' inventory both in January and in May 2022. This topic was a central aspect of all affidavits, Questioning, and argument. For the purposes of this analysis, I reject any material distinction between problems with the inventory system and problems with the accuracy or reliability of stock count. The two are inextricably linked. In an email to Deacon dated March 11, 2022, Davidson reported a number of points, including that "We need to do an inventory count so the inventory number can be corrected, system problems with the inventory are slowing us down when we invoice and making the monthly reporting slower."

[74] Inventory was included in the monthly Borrowing Base Certificates ("BBC") provided by Home Solutions to TD throughout 2021 and into 2022. All parties had awareness of problems with inventory.

[75] Deacon specifically acknowledged awareness by September 2021 that:

- Home Solutions were implementing a new inventory system in September 2021 and that Home Solutions was uncertain why its records showed a $400,000 increase in inventory levels in 2021;
- The new system would require working out the bugs and training staff for better use; and

- One explanation for the 2021 increase may be bad entries on the unit of measurement for certain products.

[76] Since the Interim Order, the allegations of fraud in regards to Inventory shifted from an alleged lack of knowledge of the issue by PDP; rather, the allegation became that the amount or magnitude of the problem was not reported and no count was completed. Davidson asserts strenuously that he and others alerted Deacon to the unreliability of inventory prior to the Funding and then over a period of 5 months as reflected in a text message dated May 12, 2022 that Deacon acknowledged was sent. Deacon's only response in these proceedings repeats the alleged distinction between the inventory system and the count, which I have rejected.

[77] The evidence indicates a significant call down on inventory as supplies were held up and Home Solutions became strapped for cash in the months of February through to May 2022. Davidson admits in Questioning that the inventory value of 2.9 million was provided just 10 days prior to bankruptcy, following which the trustees ascribed an actual value of approximately $500,000. Even though inventory was secured by TD, the magnitude of the difference is a legitimate matter of concern to PDP.

[78] PDP urges that the handwritten note on the May 2022 BBC prepared by Sheer on directions of Davidson was the first written notification that inventory was unreliable. Sheer's evidence is that he knew of the inventory problem from when he was hired, and it was known by TD and PDP as a problem from discussions. The note was because Sheer "was concerned that if they were passing the May TD BBC onto others who did not also have this awareness, I did not want those people to be misled."

[79] In the context of proving a strong prima facie case of fraud, the Sheer evidence, if believed at trial, would support that concerns about inventory were sufficiently disclosed to PDP.

[80] So too, the assertion that Davidson was making excuses and blaming others must be weighed fully against the difference between reported and actual inventory. The impact of any bar coding, the shift to Excel, and the changes in personnel and reporting must all be carefully assessed. The last annual inventory count by Home Solutions was done in March 2021.

[81] It may be problematic that Davidson represented that an inventory count was under way on May 10, 2022 when on Questioning he clarifies that only preparatory work was yet under way. He may be open to criticism for not ensuring that an accurate inventory count was undertaken and completed on a more timely basis, even in the face of Covid, lack of personnel, and other business priorities.

[82] But Davidson does not bear that fault alone. It was clearly available to others with a vested interest in the financial success of Home Solutions to initiate the count as a priority:

- PDP not later than March when it put two financial specialists in place;
- TD – essentially whenever it may have considered necessary, because importantly it was TD that held its security claim attached to the Inventory of Home Solutions.

[83] And perhaps given the earlier involvement and the status as Landlord on a take back mortgage and a promissory note, the prior owners may have been entitled at minimum to raise concerns to warrant closer attention to inventory, as would affect their financial interests.

[84] Without any measure to correlate the inventory issue to the current bankruptcy, it was part of the challenge leading up to the Notice of Default. However, for the purposes of this application, the evidence overall is inadequate proof of a false representation by Davidson, much less that it was misrepresented by Davidson knowingly and in order to induce the Funding from PDP, whereas TD held the security on inventory.

Default of TD Credit Agreement

[85] PDP alleges that Davidson signed off on the Credit Facility knowing full well from and after PDP advanced funds on January 12, 2022 that Home Solutions was in breach of the covenant to maintain a minimum of $500,000 available on its line of credit.

[86] Davidson specifically deposed that he understood the Funding would include sufficient monies directly to TD to reduce the credit with TD to within the minimum required, and he believed that Home Solutions was compliant. He was not questioned on this statement. While it may be a faulty account based on the actual numbers, it is difficult to ascribe any fraudulent misrepresentation without at least some cross-examination.

[87] Even the reduced flow of funding to TD because of fees and transaction costs does not fix a level of knowledge by Davidson to support a strong prima facie case for fraudulent misrepresentation. Davidson's expectation that everything would be fine based on the anticipated collection of receivables may well be colourable; however, there is no evidence to indicate that PDP was unaware of those charges as part of the disbursement from Funding.

[88] As to alleged non-compliance with the credit restrictions after the Funding, alleged concealment could not form an inducement for the Funding. Deacon agreed in Questioning that PDP knew and discussed with TD that Home Solutions was offside its existing credit facilities with TD in the fall of 2021 and was in the special loans group because of financial distress and a lack of data caused by hacking. Whether that level of knowledge is sufficient as a defence, it certainly affects the current assessment of a strong prima facie case on this ground.

[89] In addition, Davidson raises further uncertainty as to the mechanism that may trigger default on access under the TD Credit Agreement. The BBC statements did not necessarily reflect the status of the operating line, and TD did not freeze or issue a Notice of Default until the end of April. The tolerance of TD's funding pursuant to the Credit Agreement is a genuine issue for trial.

Other Matters

[90] PDP raised a number of issues that were, at best, ancillary to the allegations of fraudulent misrepresentation against Davidson upon which PDP profiled its claim for injunctive relief. These included the timing of notification to Deacon that a lawsuit of which he was aware had been settled; whether Davidson's spouse actually provided marketing services for Home Solutions; the continued relationship of Home Solutions with Kluane Group; and the payment of insurance premiums after Davidson was terminated.

[91] PDP also argued that Davidson canceled jobs after the Funding that are inexplicable; failed to disclose a $120,000 invoice owing to Diamond Willow; and failed to provide particulars of his reported $40,000 interest in a builder corporation, Element Building Group Inc.

[92] These points may warrant careful attention in a full trial, where the credibility of Davidson's perspective can be weighed in the full circumstances. As presented, they do not materially assist this Court in relation to the four allegations of fraudulent misrepresentation.

[93] Having reviewed the original allegations as amplified by the supplementary evidence, Questioning, and responses to undertakings as argued, the case of PDP does not establish a strong prima facie case or a reasonable likelihood that it will prevail at trial.

Removal or Dissipation

[94] PDP argues that specific factors support the reasonable inference of a significant risk of removal or dissipation by Davidson of the proceeds of sale of the Calgary Residence and the Montana Cabin:

- The nature and context of the fraudulent misrepresentations;
- The haste of listing and sale of the properties; and
- Information about plans for Davidson to move to the United States.

[95] Davidson asserts that selling the Calgary Residence and the Montana Cabin was not a dissipation. These properties had been listed as part of the Net Worth statement of Davidson; however, neither property was pledged as security on the personal guarantee to PDP.

[96] The evidence is that Davidson and his spouse looked at listing both properties in the fall of 2021 because of concerns whether Home Solutions could survive without refinancing. Significantly, the sale of these properties was specifically proposed by Deacon in March 2022 in the context of the need for fresh capital. Nothing specific derived from those discussions at the time, but Davidson insists that he was always transparent about those assets.

[97] Deacon acknowledges that the sale of the properties arose again in early May in connection with a proposed NOI in which Davidson would participate; however, Davidson says he heard nothing from Deacon to support this proposal.

[98] Davidson did not specifically report the listings of the properties for sale to Deacon in May 2022. His evidence was that he and his wife were both discharged from Home Solutions at that point and needed money to support the family. The sale of these assets falls within the scope of disposition to address reasonable, ordinary business and living expenses.

[99] Once again this is not the proper forum to determine the full strength of these divergent interpretations of the circumstances surrounding the listing and sale of the properties. It is sufficient in the face of the reliance on hearsay and suspicions, to note that the circumstances as described by Davidson in response to alleged dissipation are at least plausible.

[100] The Court rejects any inference that the evidence of consultation by Davidson with a tax advisor after the sale of the Montana Cabin demonstrates any intention to flee Alberta and set up a new business in the United States. The effect of a sale by a non-resident can easily justify a request for tax advice without more. Deacon fairly confirmed in Questioning that he did not know what advice Davidson may have sought.

Inference of Dissipation

[101] PDP points to the case law that the risk of dissipation may be inferred in cases of fraud. In Ice District Development Partnership v Hahn, 2020 ABQB 786 at paras 42-43, the Court quotes from Tiger Calcium:

In some cases of alleged fraud, even in the absence of such evidence, courts have been prepared to draw an inference from all of the circumstance, including the circumstance of the fraud itself, that there is a serious risk that a defendant will attempt to dissipate assets or put them beyond the reach of the plaintiffs: 1773907 Alberta Ltd v Davidson, 2016 ABQB 2 at paras 81–83, [2015] AJ No 1463 (QL).

[102] The Court also referred to Sibley & Associates LP v Ross, 2011 ONSC 2951, 334 DLR (4th) 645, where the judge attempted to reconcile inconsistent decisions on this issue in the context of a Mareva injunction (see also 1773907 Alberta Ltd v Davidson, 2017 ABCA 267 at paras 31-36).

[103] The assertions by Deacon as to Davidson’s intentions are conjoined with serious business issues and the discord between them in the months leading up to the bankruptcy. No evidence supports that the circumstances of either transaction – including price, timing, non-arms length purchasers, terms of disbursement, or other aspects of closing – taints the sales in support of injunctive relief. Certainly, at this juncture, there is nothing unreasonable about a decision to sell properties where Davidson and his spouse are without employment and responsible for raising a family.

[104] Noting that injunctions are an exceptional remedy, it is insufficient to simply allege that PDP will be hindered in the enforcement of a judgment against Davidson. Non-secured assets cannot simply be identified as subject to sale that should trigger a freeze on access to the proceeds; there must be some colourability to justify exceptional intervention by the Court.

Fleeing the Jurisdiction

[105] PDP argues further that the risk that Davidson is exploring business opportunities in the United States imposes a taint because it is reasonably likely that he is fleeing the jurisdiction. Deacon relies on hearsay evidence from discussions with Nielson in late June 2022 that he had heard “through the industry that Davidson was looking to purchase a business in the US and was relocating out of Calgary.” Further conversations with others led Deacon to a discussion with Lyle Tomie who “disclosed to me that he had been approached by Davidson to find investors for his ‘new venture’ located in Portland, Oregon.”

[106] Davidson did acknowledge in his own affidavit that he was exploring the possibility of starting a business in the United States. He requires investors and has not made any decisions; he notes that one reason his search to support his family extends beyond Alberta relates to the risk that “PDP’s conduct with respect to Home Solutions might have damaged my personal goodwill in the industry in Calgary.”

[107] Overall, the evidence does not support that the sale of the two properties is for the purpose of fleeing Alberta to avoid judgment.

Irreparable Harm

[108] Turning briefly to the second part of the tripartite test, “irreparable harm” has been defined in Ominayak v Norcen Energy Resources (1985), 36 Alta LR (2d) 137 at 145:

We accept the proposition in High on the Law of Injunction, 4th ed., vol. 1, p. 36 that:

By irreparable injury it is not meant that the injury is beyond the possibility of repair by money compensation; but it must be of such a nature that no fair and reasonable redress may be had in a court of law and that to refuse the injunction would be a denial of justice.

[109] In RJR-MacDonald at 341, the Supreme Court explained:

"Irreparable" refers to the nature of the harm suffered rather than its magnitude. It is harm which either cannot be quantified in monetary terms or which cannot be cured, usually because one party cannot collect damages from the other... The fact that one party may be impecunious does not automatically determine the application in favour of the other party who will not ultimately be able to collect damages, although it may be a relevant consideration (Hubbard v. Pitt, [1976] Q.B. 142 (C.A.)).

[110] The risk that proceeds from the sale of two properties listed in a Net Worth statement but otherwise unsecured may be unavailable in the event of a judgment does not constitute irreparable harm to PDP in these circumstances.

Balance of Convenience

[111] The third part of the test engages a weighing of the relative impact on the positions of parties affected by proposed continuation of the injunction. The arguments on this aspect are equivocal as both sides risk financial consequences. While PDP is correct that an extension of the Interim Order would oblige disclosure of Davidson’s financial circumstances as provided to the Court by counsel but not yet reviewed, that is not a point which affects the relative convenience of both sides. The other factors which have been reviewed are much more informative of the Court’s exercise of discretion.

[112] I return to a topic raised much earlier in the context of the relative merit of the positions taken by the parties. While Davidson’s criticisms of the level of disclosure at the initial application are not fatal, they do serve as a factor in assessing the case to be met and the Court’s discretion to extend or set aside the Interim Order. The Court is not persuaded that the balance of convenience favors PDP on this application.

Summary

[113] The application to extend the Interim Order is dismissed, and it is accordingly set aside effective as of the date of this Decision.

[114] In consequence of this direction, the Court confirms that it has not reviewed the financial information regarding the proceeds from sales of the properties as provided by Davidson through his counsel. That material will remain sealed.

[115] As agreed between counsel, the proceedings are transferred to the Judicial Centre of Calgary effective immediately.

Costs

[116] As stated at the close of oral argument, submissions on costs are impacted by the disposition of the applications.

[117] These reasons do not determine whether the allegations of fraud will be proven at trial, only that the evidence is insufficient at this stage to support the Interim Order. The principles cited in Tabs 31 to 37 of the Defendant Brief as to solicitor-client full indemnity costs are not triggered in these circumstances.

[118] Davidson has been successful and is entitled to costs. If the parties are unable to agree on quantum, either party may apply to the Court within 60 days of the date of this decision to set the amount payable in all events of the cause.

ARTICLE 6 TERMINATION

6.1 The Company shall be entitled to, upon written notice to the Executive, immediately terminate this Agreement and the Executive's employment with the Company at any time for Just Cause. Save and accept only for payment of the pro-rata Annual Base Salary earned for

6.2 The Executive's employment and this Agreement will automatically terminate upon the Executive's death. - (b) All accrued and unused vacation pay, and reimbursable expenses accrued up to and including the Termination Date;
- (c) A retiring allowance equal to twelve (12) months of the Annual Base Salary as of the Termination Date, plus one (1) month of Annual Base Salary for each year or partial year service, to a maximum of twenty-four (24) months of Annual Base Salary;
- (d) An amount equal to two (2) times the Executive's year end bonus eligibility pursuant to section 5.2 above; and

6.4 In exchange for the payment of the amounts set out above, the Executive agrees to sign and provide to the Company a Release substantially in the form attached as Schedule "A" to this Agreement, together with such changes as may be required by the Company, acting reasonably. The payments set out above constitute the entire compensation paid to the Executive upon a termination without cause, and such payments satisfy all of the Company's obligations to the Executive, whether by contract, common law or statute, including without limitation, the Alberta Employment Standards Code.

ARTICLE 7 TERMINATION BY EXECUTIVE

7.1 The Executive may resign from the Executive's employment with the Company by providing the Company with thirty (30) days advance written notice of the Termination Date.

The Company's obligation to compensate the Executive shall cease on the Termination Date, save and accept for payment of the pro-rata Annual Base Salary earned for services rendered up to and including the Termination Date, plus any accrued and unused vacation pay, and any reimbursable expenses owing up to and including the Termination Date. However, the Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to waive the notice provided by the Executive (or any portion thereof) and release the Executive from any further duties with the Company on payment to the Executive of the Annual Base Salary and any accrued and unused vacation pay, and any reimbursable expenses remaining due to the Executive to the end of the thirty (30) day notice period, subject to such withholdings and deductions as may be required under applicable law. Upon the expiry of the said thirty (30) day notice period (or payment in lieu, as applicable), the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive under this Agreement, or otherwise, and no other compensation shall be payable to the Executive after the expiry of the said notice or payment in lieu thereof.

7.2 In the event of a Change of Control, and within twelve (12) months of a Change of Control, there is an event or series of events that constitute Good Reason, the Executive shall have the right, for a period of sixty (60) days following the event or series of events that constitute Good Reason, to notify the Company, in writing, of the Good Reason, and to terminate his employment and this Agreement upon providing sixty (60) days written notice to the Company of the Termination Date.

7.3 If the Executive elects to terminate this Agreement and the Executive's employment with the Company pursuant to section 7.2 above, the Company shall pay to the Executive within five (5) business days of the Termination Date, the payments provided for in section 6.3 above, in exchange for the Executive signing and providing to the Company a Release substantially in the form of the Release attached as Schedule "A" to this Agreement, together with such changes as may be required by the Company, acting reasonably.

7.4 If the Executive does not elect to exercise the option to terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to section 7.2 above, the Executive's employment shall continue in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, or on such other terms as mutually agreed in writing by the Company and the Executive.

7.5 The parties hereto agree that, because there can be no exact measure of the damages which would occur to the Executive as a result of the termination of employment and termination of this Agreement, such payments contemplated in sections 6 and 7 shall be deemed to constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty and the Company agrees that the Executive shall not be required to mitigate the Executive's damages, nor shall the amount of any payment provided for in this Agreement be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive as a result of employment by another employer after termination, or otherwise.

If the Executive's personal information is disclosed to any potential acquiring organization, the Company will require the potential acquiring organization to agree to protect the privacy of the Executive's personal information in a manner that is consistent with any policy of the Company dealing with privacy that may be in effect from time to time and/or any applicable law that may be in effect from time to time

2. Affidavit of Jeffrey Deacon submitted in support of the ex parte Mareva Injunction and Attachment Order granted July 14, 2022 (the "Mareva Order");
3. Affidavit of Andrew Davidson filed in support of his application to set aside the Mareva Order;

Dear Ms. Allen:

Re: In the Matter of the Bankruptcy of Home Solutions Corporation

As you know, we are legal counsel to Andrew Davidson and Jody Davidson, creditors of Home Solutions Corporation ("Home Solutions"), in accordance with the proofs of claim that we submitted to your attention on December 14, 2022. We write to request that the Trustee in Bankruptcy of Home Solutions commence litigation against Private Debt Partners Senior Opportunities Fund GP Inc. d.b.a. Private Debt Partners ("PDP") and Jeffrey Deacon.

In particular, and as set out in further detail in the Statement of Defence and Counterclaim of Mr. Davidson and his numbered company, 2087212 Alberta Ltd., filed in Court of King's Bench of Alberta Court File No. 2201-12293 (the "Action", formerly Court File No. 2203-10785; the Court File Number was changed when the Action was transferred to the Judicial District of Calgary by Consent Order filed October 5, 2022), copies of which have been provided to you, we are of the view that PDP:

1. breached its contractual obligations under the Credit Agreement and the Forbearance Agreement;
2. breached its duty of honest and good faith performance of its obligations under the Credit Agreement and the Forbearance Agreement;
3. breached its obligations of confidentiality owed to Home Solutions;
4. breached its duty of care owed to Home Solutions, to the level of gross negligence;
5. intentionally interfered with the economic relations of Home Solutions; and
6. made the Representations and failed to inform Home Solutions of the Omissions, willfully, knowing they were untrue, to induce Home Solutions and others to enter into the

Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of Home Solutions to PDP; (capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall bear the meaning given them in the Statement of Defence and Counterclaim filed in the Action).

Further, we are of the opinion that Mr. Deacon:

1. breached his obligations of confidentiality owed to Home Solutions;
2. breached his duty of care owed to Home Solutions, to the level of gross negligence;
3. intentionally interfered with the economic relations of Home Solutions;
4. made the Representations and failed to inform Home Solutions of the Omissions willfully, knowing they were untrue, to induce Home Solutions and others to enter into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of Home Solutions to PDP; and
5. breached his duty of care and his fiduciary duties as the sole director of Home Solutions.

The particulars of the above are set out in further detail in the pleadings in the Action.

We are of the view that the Trustee taking proceedings against PDP and Mr. Deacon would benefit the estate of Home Solutions.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you wish to discuss this matter or should you require any further information with respect to the above. Otherwise, we would appreciate hearing from you in January, 2023 as to whether the Trustee will take such proceedings, failing which, we anticipate receiving instructions to seek an order authorizing Mr. Davidson and Ms. Davidson to take the said proceedings in accordance with section 38 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act.

Yours truly,

BENNETT JONES LLP

Hi Vanessa,

I write to follow up on my email below sending the attached letter, and my follow-up voice mail messages on Monday and today. Would you kindly advise whether the Trustee of Home Solutions Corporation will take proceedings as against PDP and Mr. Deacon as set out in the attached letter? If we do not hear from you by February 3, 2023, we will assume that (as contemplated in section 38 of the BIA), the Trustee refuses to take such proceedings, in which case we expect we'll receive instructions to seek an order in accordance with section 38 of the BIA.

Kelsey

Hi Vanessa,

In the course of preparing the affidavit in support of the proof of claim of Jody Davidson as against Home Solutions Corporation, we determined that the proof of claim itself required a revision (the revision is the removal of the claim for a priority under s. 136 of the BIA). As such, please find attached the Revised Proof of Claim of Jody Davidson, and the Affidavit of Jody Davidson in support thereof.

Should you require any further information, please advise. Otherwise, we would appreciate hearing from you regarding the outcome of the inspectors' meeting with respect to our request that the Trustee commence proceedings on behalf of Home Solutions Corporation as against Private Debt Partners Senior Opportunities Fund GP Inc. d.b.a. Private Debt Partners, as per your attached email of January 31st.

It would be best for us to choose from the submissions.

Courtney can do up a digital poster that we can use.

Please feel free to add anything as well!

Morning!

I can definitely help get this moving! If we plan to post on the portal next week we can also bring it up in the H&S meetings Feb 5/6/7 to draw attention to the portal. Let's have a prize on the line for the winning hash tag submission – maybe something around $50 or $100? Think of a generic prize – maybe even just a Visa GC? HSC Branded Water bottle? Once all submissions are posted, do we have a vote for best option or is it better for Jody and you two to select? We may end up with a Boat McBoatface situation (google it) LOL.

Do you want to draft the portal posting and send it over to me for fine tuning and posting to the site? It may seem silly, but I'd consider giving an example of "what is a hashtag" for our less tech savvy folks.

Chat soon!

Subject: Portal - Instagram

Good Morning!

We had a meeting with Jody this morning in regards to the Simple Spaces account, we are wondering if you can help us out with two posts on the Portal?

The first idea is to come up with our own Simple Spaces/Home Solutions hashtag that will be used for every post. Similar to how we had #spookysolutions for Halloween, what can be our signature hashtag. We want everyone to be able to submit their ideas.

As well, just a generic post indicating that there will be an increase in seeing myself, Courtney and Jody around taking pictures and videos for the account. We are aiming to get some really authentic posts, less posed so we will be taking these as we see them and they may or may not be used. Everyone does sign a media release at their yearly, so posting these should not cause any issues or need to be filtered with approval.

What do you think, any ideas to add?

Thanks ☺

THIS RECORD OF EMPLOYMENT IS SUBMITTED BY Payroll Service Provider Name, PAYROLL SERVICE PROVIDER, ON BEHALF OF THE EMPLOYER NAMED IN [BOX 4], AS AUTHORIZED BY A LETTER OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PAYROLL SERVICE PROVIDER AND THE EMPLOYER.

Important Information and Instructions for Employees

What is a Record of Employment?

The Record of Employment (ROE) is a form your employer must complete when you stop working. Your employer has to issue the ROE to you, even if you do not intend to apply for EI benefits. On the ROE, you will find details about your work history with your employer. You do not need your ROEs to apply for EI benefits. If you delay filing your EI claim for more than four weeks after you stop working, you may lose benefits.

How do I apply for EI benefits?

You can apply for EI benefits online at www.servicecanada.ca or by visiting your nearest Service Canada Centre.

To find the location of your nearest Centre, click on "Find a Service Canada Office" on the Web site or call 1 800 O-Canada (1-800-622-6232).

What do I do with my ROEs?

After you submit your EI application online, you will need to provide us with any paper ROEs issued to you during the last 52 weeks. We cannot process your application until we receive them. For this reason, you must submit your paper ROEs as soon as possible after you submit your EI application. You can either mail us your paper ROEs (the address is provided when you apply for EI online - if you need the address, call us at 1-800-206-7218 (TTY: 1-800-529-3742)) or drop them off in person at a Service Canada Centre.

This ROE was submitted electronically by your employer to Service Canada. For this reason, you do not need to provide us with a copy of it. For copies of all ROEs in your name that have been submitted electronically, visit My Service Canada Account on the Service Canada Web site at www.servicecanada.ca.

What if I'm not planning to apply for EI benefits?

If you are not applying for EI benefits, keep this and all other ROEs in a safe place for two years after the date shown in Block 11.

What do I do if the information on the ROE is incorrect?

If any information on this form appears to be incorrect, talk with your employer right away to correct or clarify it. Do not make any changes yourself.

What does the information in Blocks 15A, 15B, and 15C mean?

Attention: Kelsey Meyer

Dear Kelsey,

RE: Home Solutions Corporation – in Bankruptcy (the “Company”)
Proof of claim filed by Andrew Davidson and Jody Davidson

As you are aware, MNP Ltd. acts as Trustee of the Company's bankrupt estate. Further to your correspondence dated December 21, 2022, we can confirm that we have consulted with the eligible inspector for the bankrupt estate and that we will not be commencing proceedings against Private Debt Partners Senior Opportunity Fund GP Inc. d.b.a. Private Debt Partners and Jeffrey Deacon. We understand that your clients may wish to take such proceedings in accordance with Section 38 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act.

Additionally, we have reviewed the proofs of claim filed by Jody and Andrew Davidson and can advise as follows:

1. We are prepared to accept the unsecured claim filed by Jody Davidson in the amount of $7,029.23, which can be broken down as follows:
 - a. Termination pay $3,629.23
 - b. Vacation pay $3,400.00

We do not have any information to support Ms. Davidson's claim for outstanding wages. If you have additional information you would like to provide, please let us know. If not, we will proceed to issue the Notice of Disallowance revising the claim as set out above.

2. We do not have sufficient information to accept the claim filed by Andrew Davidson. Our understanding at the time that Dr. Davidson left the Company was that he had resigned. In addition, the Company's records indicated that Mr. Davidson would not have been eligible to receive a bonus for 2021. If you wish to provide additional information to support that Mr. Davidson was terminated or other support for Mr. Davidson's claim, we invite you to do so. If not, we will proceed to issue a Notice of Disallowance in respect of this claim in its entirety.

Should you have any questions, please contact the undersigned.

Yours truly,

MNP Ltd., in its capacity as Trustee of Home Solutions Corporation and not in its personal or corporate capacity

Hi Vanessa,

Thanks for your letter of March 20th. I write with respect to your understanding as set out in the letter that Mr. Davidson resigned from Home Solutions Corporation ("Home Solutions"), which, in fact, is not accurate. Mr. Davidson resigned as a director of Home Solutions, but his employment with Home Solutions, as well as that of Mrs. Davidson, was terminated by Home Solutions. The forbearance agreement entered into between Home Solutions, Mr. Davidson, 2087212 Alberta Ltd., and PDP included terms at section 5.03(d) and (e) that:

- Mr. Davidson would resign as a director of Home Solutions; and
- The employment of both Mr. and Mrs. Davidson with Home Solutions would be terminated.

Indeed, that is what occurred, as confirmed by the following evidence (attached):

- Mr. Davidson's Affidavit sworn August 12 and filed August 15, 2022, in support of Mr. Davidson's (successful) application to set aside the ex parte Mareva injunction and attachment order that PDP obtained against him (this Affidavit was also provided to you in December 2022). Please see paragraphs 7, 37 and 115(f) thereof;

- Chris Simard's email to Larry Ellis of Miller Thomson LLP, counsel for PDP, on May 11, 2022, which includes as attachments:
 - The Forbearance Agreement, signed by Mr. Davidson (Mr. Simard's email requests PDP's signature page of the same), and, as contemplated by the Forbearance Agreement:
 - the fully-executed Resolution of the Directors of Home Solutions dated May 11, 2022, which sets out at Preambles D(ii) and F and paragraph 3 that pursuant to that Resolution, Home Solutions terminated the employment of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, effective immediately;
 - the signed resignations of the directors and officers of Home Solutions;
 - the termination of employment letters to both Mr. and Mrs. Davidson;
- An email from Sam Massie of Miller Thomson LLP to Chris Simard, cc'd to Larry Ellis, on May 12, 2022, thanking Chris for the above-referenced email and providing the fully-executed Forbearance Agreement;
- An email from Andrew Davidson to Jeffrey Deacon of PDP on May 12, 2022, cc'd to Chris Simard, attaching the same documents as were attached to Mr. Simard's email to Mr. Ellis on May 11, 2022;
- The fully-executed Forbearance Agreement, attached as Exhibit "U" to the Affidavit of Jeffrey Deacon sworn July 14, 2022 in support of the ex parte Mareva injunction and attachment order that PDP obtained against Mr. Davidson (which was subsequently set aside by the Court, with costs awarded in favour of Mr. Davidson).

As such, there is no question that Mr. Davidson's employment with Home Solutions was terminated by Home Solutions, by way of a fully-executed Directors' Resolution, in accordance with the Forbearance Agreement.

Your letter of March 20th also requests that we let you know if we have additional information to be provided in support of Mrs. Davidson's claim for outstanding wages, and otherwise to support Mr. Davidson's claim. In that respect:

- With respect to Mrs. Davidson, she has provided sworn Affidavit evidence that there had been two months during her employment with Home Solutions, in or about June and September 2019, when she had not been paid her salary. That evidence supports Mrs. Davidson's claim for outstanding wages. You have not indicated a reason why you have not accepted Mrs. Davidson's evidence in that regard. As Mrs. Davidson does not have access to Home Solutions' books and records (nor does Mr. Davidson), she has no way of proving that Home Solutions did not pay her salary in or about those months; she is effectively being asked to prove a negative. We are advised that at the time, Home Solutions was using an in-house accounting software called Microsoft GP, which included all payroll data and was kept on its local servers, so we expect the Trustee should have access to that software on the company's servers. We are advised that the payroll data will reflect that Home Solutions did not pay Mr. Davidson or Mrs. Davidson for two months in 2019, so as to ensure that the company met its covenant requirements. Will your office check / provide Mrs. Davidson with access to Home Solutions' payroll / accounting records on Microsoft GP so as to allow her to provide further evidence in support of her sworn Affidavit evidence? In the meantime, we are checking as to whether there is any further evidence that Mrs. Davidson can provide to support her sworn evidence already provided that she was not paid salary for two months in 2019.
- You've advised in your letter that "the Company's records indicated that Mr. Davidson would not have been eligible to receive a bonus for 2021." I understand from our telephone conversation on March 22nd that the basis for your comment in this regard is that Mr. Davidson's Executive Employment Agreement states at section 5.2 that "In addition to the Annual Base Salary, the Executive will be eligible to receive a twenty-five thousand dollar ($25,000) year-end bonus if the Company reaches or exceeds fifteen million dollars ($15,500,000) in gross revenue in a fiscal year", and that (we note the inconsistency in the numbers is in the agreement itself), and section 6.3(d) states that upon termination of Mr. Davidson's employment, he is entitled to "An amount equal to two (2) times the Executive's year end bonus eligibility pursuant to section 5.2 above." We note again that Mr. Davidson does not have access to Home Solutions' books and records, but his recollection is that the company's gross revenue for 2021 met the $15 Million threshold. Considering that, would you please advise what the Company's records are that form the basis for your statement that Mr. Davidson was not eligible to receive a bonus for 2021, and provide copies of the same?

Please do not hesitate to contact me to discuss the above further. However, to confirm, in addition to the above and the attached, we do intend to put forth further evidence in support of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson's claims against Home Solutions, and we request that you consider the above, the attached, and any such further evidence with respect to the same. Upon hearing from you with respect to the questions above, we can provide the additional evidence in a more formal manner (eg., further affidavit evidence in support of the proofs of claim) if necessary.

Thanks,

Kelsey

- F. The PDP Debt is secured by various loan and security agreements, including, without limitation, a General Security Agreement, dated January 11, 2022, as granted by the Borrower to and in favour of the Lender (collectively the “PDP Loan Security”).

G. The PDP Debt was guaranteed by the Guarantors pursuant to: (i) a personal guarantee dated January 11, 2022, granted by Mr. Davidson to the Lender; and (ii) a limited recourse guarantee and share pledge agreement dated January 11, 2022, granted by 2087 to the Lender; (collectively, the “Guarantees”).

H. The obligations stemming from the Guarantees are secured by: (i) a General Security Agreement dated January 11, 2022, granted by Mr. Davidson in favour of the Lender (the “Davidson Security”); and (ii) a Share Pledge Agreement dated January 11, 2022 granted by 2087 in favour of the Lender (the “2087 Share Pledge” and together with the Davidson Security, the “Guarantee Security” and together with the PDP Loan Security, the “PDP Security”).

I. On May 5, 2022, counsel for the Lender issued a default letter as against the Borrower, along with demands for repayment and a Notice of Intention to Enforce Security under Section 244 of the BIA as against each of the Obligors (collectively, the “PDP Demand Letters”).

J. The Business has experienced significant liquidity issues. The Borrower has failed to generate sufficient revenue to meet its payroll obligations in the months of March and April, 2022. The Borrower anticipates that it will fail to meet its payroll obligations coming due on May 11, 2022 (the “Payroll Expense”).

K. On May 6, 2022, the Borrower informed the Lender that it intended to file a Notice of Intention to Make a Proposal under Part III Division I of the BIA (the “NOI Proceedings”).

L. The Borrower wishes to utilize the NOI Proceedings to conduct a sales process (the “Sale Process”) with the goal of preserving and maximizing the value of its Business for the benefit of its stakeholders. The Guarantors wish to assist the Borrower in such efforts. The Obligors have requested that the Lender forbear from exercising its rights and remedies under the PDP Loan Agreement, the Guarantees and the PDP Security.

M. The Lender is willing to forbear from exercising such rights and remedies for the Forbearance Period (as defined herein), provided that the Obligors comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the mutual covenants, terms and conditions set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Obligor Acknowledgments

The Obligors irrevocably and unconditionally acknowledge, covenant, represent, confirm and agree that:

Section 1.01 Recitals. Each of the foregoing recitals is true and accurate in all respects.

Section 1.02 Defaults. The Borrower is in default under the PDP Loan Agreement by virtue of the defaults described in the PDP Demand Letters (collectively, the “Existing Defaults”).

Section 1.03 Loan Documents. The PDP Loan Agreement, the Guarantees, the PDP Security, and all other agreements, instruments and other documents executed in connection with or relating to the PDP Debt (the “Loan Documents”) are in full force and effect, constitute legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligations against the Obligor in accordance with their terms, and each Obligor is hereby estopped from asserting or causing to be asserted on its behalf, any rights of defense, dispute, counterclaim, set-off, deduction or other rights, claims, demands, challenges, objections or appeals of any kind whatsoever existing as of the date of this Agreement, whether in respect of the obligations of the Obligor thereunder or the enforceability of same. The terms of the Loan Documents remain unchanged, except as modified herein.

Section 1.04 PDP Debt. The PDP Debt, as of close of business on May 5, 2022 was equal to $9,224,815.23. The PDP Debt is due and owing and is not subject to any set-off, deduction, claim, counterclaim or defence of any kind, nature, character or description whatsoever. The PDP Debt is subject to certain fees and expenses which continue to accrue, including interest, costs, fees and expenses incurred by the Lender in connection with the Loan Documents and the PDP Debt.

Section 1.05 Collateral. The Lender has valid, enforceable and perfected security interests in the collateral described in the Loan Documents (the “Collateral”), as to which there are no set-offs, deductions, claims, counterclaims or defences of any kind or character whatsoever.

Section 1.06 No Lending Obligation. The Lender has no obligation to make loans or otherwise extend credit to the Obligor under the Loan Documents.

Section 1.07 Right to Accelerate Obligations. As a result of the Existing Defaults, the Lender has the right to accelerate the maturity and demand immediate payment of the PDP Debt.

Section 1.08 Default Notice. To the extent required by the Loan Agreements or the Guarantees, the Obligor has received timely and proper notice of the Existing Defaults and the opportunity to cure (if any), in accordance with the Loan Documents, or applicable law, and hereby waive any rights to receive further notice thereof. All applicable cure periods relating to the Existing Defaults have lapsed or are hereby explicitly waived.

Section 1.09 No Waiver of Defaults. Neither this Agreement, nor any actions taken in accordance with this Agreement or the Loan Documents, shall be construed as a waiver of or consent to the Existing Defaults or any other existing or future defaults under the Loan Documents, as to which the Lender’s rights shall remain reserved.

Section 1.10 Preservation of Rights and Remedies. Upon expiration of the Forbearance Period (as defined in Section 3.01), all of the Lender’s rights and remedies under the Loan Documents, and at law and in equity, shall be available without restriction or modification, as if the forbearance had not occurred, and the obligations of the Obligor under the Loan Documents shall continue to exist, as amended herein.

Section 1.11 Execution and Authorization. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer on behalf of each Obligor, and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Obligor enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 1.12 Lender Conduct. The Lender has fully and timely performed all of its obligations and duties in compliance with the Loan Documents and applicable law and has acted in a commercially reasonable manner, in good faith and appropriately under the circumstances. The Borrower and the Guarantors hereby agree that, upon the execution of this Agreement, they shall each absolutely and irrevocably release the Releasees (as defined herein), of and from any and all claims which they may have in respect of their default against the Releasees up to and including the Effective Date including, without limitation, any actions taken by the Lender in dealing with the Obligers.

Section 1.13 Purpose of Forbearance. The purpose of this Agreement is to provide the Guarantors an opportunity to assist with the Borrower's efforts to maximize value for the benefit of the Borrower's stakeholders, free from any action the Lender might otherwise initiate during the Forbearance Period.

Section 1.14 Request to Forbear. The Borrower and the Guarantors have requested the Lender's forbearance as provided herein, which shall enure to their direct and substantial benefit.

ARTICLE II Tolling Provisions

Section 2.01 Tolling. As of the date hereof and continuing until the Termination Date (defined herein) and thereafter until the termination of the tolling arrangements hereof in the manner provided for at Section 2.02 and whether or not demand for payment has previously been delivered by the Lender in respect of the Obligations, the Lender, the Borrower and the Guarantors hereby agree to toll and suspend the running of the applicable statutes of limitations, laches or other doctrines related to the passage of time in relation to the Obligations, the PDP Security, and the Guarantees and any entitlements arising from the Obligations, the PDP Security and the Guarantees and any other related matters, and each of the parties confirm that this Agreement is intended to be an agreement to suspend or extend the basic limitation period, provided by the applicable limitations legislation as well as the ultimate limitation period provided by the applicable limitations legislation, and any contractual time limitation on the commencement of proceedings, any claims or defences based upon such applicable statute of limitations, contractual limitations, or any time related doctrine including waiver, estoppel or laches.

Section 2.02 Termination of Tolling. The tolling provisions of this Agreement will terminate upon any party providing the others with 45 days written notice of an intention to terminate the tolling provisions hereof, and upon the expiry of such 45 day notice, and any time provided for under the statutes of limitations, laches, or any other doctrine related to the passage of time in relation to the Obligations, the PDP Security, and the Guarantees or any entitlements arising from the Obligations, the PDP Security, and the Guarantees and any other related matters, will recommence running as of the effective date of such notice, and, for greater certainty, the time during which the limitation period is suspended pursuant to the tolling provisions of this Agreement shall not be included in the computation of any limitation period.

ARTICLE III Lender Forbearance

Section 3.01 Forbearance Period. Subject to compliance by the Obligers with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Lender hereby agrees to forbear from exercising its rights and remedies against the Obligers under the Loan Documents with respect to the Existing Defaults during the period (the "Forbearance Period") commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the earliest to occur of: (i) November 30, 2022; (ii) the date upon which the Obligations are repaid, in full; and (iii) the date upon which any Forbearance Default (as defined in herein) occurs, subject to the Cure Period (as defined herein). The Lender's forbearance, as provided herein, shall immediately and automatically cease without notice or further action on the earliest to occur of (i), (ii) or (iii) (the "Termination Date"). On and from the Termination Date, the Lender may, in its sole discretion, exercise any and all remedies available to it under the Loan Documents by reason of the occurrence of any default or event of default thereunder or the continuation of any Existing Default.

Section 3.02 Extension of Forbearance Period. In the sole discretion of the Lender and without obligation, after the Termination Date, the Lender may renew or extend the Forbearance Period or grant additional forbearance periods.

Section 3.03 Scope of Forbearance. During the Forbearance Period, the Lender will not, unless explicitly agreed upon herein, initiate enforcement or collection proceedings under the Loan Documents. For certainty, the Share Transfer (as defined herein) shall not constitute enforcement proceedings.

ARTICLE IV Representations and Warranties

Each of the Obligors represents and warrants as to itself that all representations and warranties relating to it contained in the Loan Documents are true and correct as of the Effective Date, except to the extent that such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall have been true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date. The Obligors further represent and warrant to the Lender as follows, and acknowledge that the Lender is relying on the accuracy of such representations and warranties:

Section 4.01 Authorization. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement are within its corporate power and authority and have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action.

Section 4.02 Enforceability. This Agreement constitutes a valid and legally binding Agreement enforceable against the Obligors in accordance with its terms, subject to the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity.

Section 4.03 No Violation. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement do not and will not: (i) violate any law, regulation or court order to which the Obligors are subject; (ii) conflict with the Obligors' constating documents; or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any lien, security interest or encumbrance on any property of the Obligors, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, other than security interests in favour of the Lender.

Section 4.04 Accuracy of Information. All information provided by the Obligors, or any of their respective agents, is true, correct, and complete in all material respects, as of the date provided and does not contain any untrue statements of material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading.

Section 4.05 Advice of Counsel. The Obligors have freely and voluntarily entered into this Agreement with the advice of legal counsel of their choosing, or have knowingly waived the right to do so.

ARTICLE V
Obligors' Covenants

To induce the Lender to forbear from the exercise of its rights and remedies as set forth above, the Borrower and the Guarantors (where applicable) hereby covenant and agree as follows:

Section 5.01 Cooperation with Sale Process. The Obligors shall cooperate with the Lender, and assist in all respects, in order to conduct the Sale Process. The Obligors shall provide the Lender with any and all information necessary to operate the Business including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, operational information, customer and supplier contact information, passwords and login information, accounting and financial information and information related to the manufacture and supply of inventory.

Section 5.02 Transfer of Shares. 2087 shall execute and deliver any and all documentation necessary to effect the transfer to the Lender (or its nominee) of all of the shares subject to the 2087 Share Pledge (the “Share Transfer”). Section 5.03 Corporate Governance. Mr. Davidson shall initiate a board of directors meeting for 10:00 a.m. on May 11, 2022, for the purpose of passing a resolution that:

- (a) approves this Agreement and authorizes the execution of same;

Section 5.06 Other Financial Information and Reporting. The Guarantors shall be available to discuss, and shall promptly provide to the Lender, such other financial information and reporting as the Lender may reasonably request.

Section 5.07 Payments to Shareholders, Related Parties. The Borrower shall not, without the prior written consent of the Lender, incur any capital expenditures, or make any payments, whether directly or indirectly, to any of shareholder or any other persons, whether by way of dividends, capital dividends, redemption or retraction of shares or bonuses, except such payments made in the ordinary course of business on account of salary, which payments shall be consistent with the ordinary practices of the Borrower. There shall be no repayment of any amounts owing by the Borrower to any “related person” as such term is defined under the BIA, without the prior written consent of the Lender.

Section 5.08 No Additional Debt, No Further Security. Except in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or with the prior written consent of the Lender, the Obligors shall not increase existing debt obligations or incur new debt obligations, and shall not grant security interests, mortgages, hypothecs, liens, charges, pledges or other encumbrances whatsoever to any person, firm, corporation or other legal entity.

The Borrower hereby authorizes and directs any entity having information in respect of the Priority Payables to release such information to the Lender or its agents to assist the Lender in evaluating the existence and extent of any indebtedness owing by the Borrower to such entity and the Borrower shall, at the request of the Lender, execute and deliver such authorizations and consents as the Bank may require in respect of same.

Section 5.10 Notice of Adverse Claims. Section 5.11 Notice of Forbearance Default. The Obligors shall give to the Lender prompt notice of any Forbearance Default or any event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a Forbearance Default.

Section 5.12 Further Assurances. Promptly upon the request of the Lender, the Obligors shall take any and all actions, of any kind or nature whatsoever, and execute and deliver additional documents that relate to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein.

Section 5.13 Third Party Release. The Borrower shall seek the court’s approval in obtaining a third party release for the benefit of the Borrower’s former and current officers and directors, which release shall be consistent with recently granted third party releases in insolvency proceedings (the “Third Party Release”). For certainty, the Borrower shall seek a release that includes language that is the same or similar to the language noted on Schedule “A” to this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI Lenders Covenants

Section 6.01 Sale Process. On or before May 31, 2022, the Lender shall cause the Borrower to initiate a robust and fulsome Sale Process, supervised by a qualified proposal trustee (the “Proposal Trustee”), which Sale Process shall:

material inducement to the Lender to enter into this Agreement; and (iii) that their obligations under their Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect until all the Obligations have been paid in full.

ARTICLE VIII

Release of Claims and Waiver of Defences

Section 8.01 Release of Claims and Waiver of Defences. In further consideration of the Lender's execution of this Agreement, the Obligors, on behalf of themselves and their successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents, hereby forever, fully, unconditionally and irrevocably waive and release the Lender and its successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents (collectively, the "Releasees") from any and all claims, liabilities, obligations, debts, causes of action (whether at law, in equity or otherwise), defences, counterclaims, set-offs, of any kind, whether known or unknown, whether liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, fixed or contingent, directly or indirectly arising out of, connected with, resulting from or related to any act or omission by the Lender or any other Releasee with respect to the Loan Documents and any Collateral, other than the Lender's or any Releasee's wilful acts or omissions, on or before the date of this Agreement (collectively, the "Claims"). - (f) Any Obligor takes any action, or any event or condition occurs or exists, which the Lender reasonably believes in good faith is inconsistent in any material respect with any Section 9.02 Waiver. The Lender may waive, in writing, any Forbearance Default, in its sole and absolute discretion, but no such waiver shall constitute a waiver of any other Forbearance Default.

Section 9.03 Cure Period. Upon the occurrence of a Forbearance Default, the Obligor shall be entitled to a five (5) day cure period (the “Cure Period”). If a Forbearance Default is not cured within the Cure Period, the Lender shall be entitled to all of its rights and remedies under this Agreement, the Loan Documents, at law or otherwise.

ARTICLE X Remedies

Section 10.01 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of a Forbearance Default and the expiry of the Cure Period:

Section 11.03 Amendments. The terms of this Agreement may only be waived, amended, modified or supplemented by an agreement in writing signed by all the parties hereto.

Section 11.04 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 11.05 Full Force and Effect. The Loan Documents shall remain unchanged, in full force and effect, and continue to govern and control the relationship between the parties hereto, except to the extent they are inconsistent with, superseded or expressly modified herein. Section 11.09 No Waiver. No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of the Lender, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under the Loan Documents shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. Further, the Lender's acceptance of payment on account of the Obligations or other performance by the Obligors after the occurrence of Forbearance Default shall not be construed as a waiver of such Forbearance Default, any other Forbearance Default, or any of the Lender's rights or remedies.

ARTICLE I

Obligor Acknowledgments

The Obligor irrevocably and unconditionally acknowledge, covenant, represent, confirm and agree that:

All applicable cure periods relating to the Existing Defaults have lapsed or are hereby explicitly waived.

Section 1.09 No Waiver of Defaults. Section 1.10 Preservation of Rights and Remedies. Upon expiration of the Forbearance Period (as defined in Section 3.01), all of the Lender’s rights and remedies under the Loan Documents, and at law and in equity, shall be available without restriction or modification, as if the forbearance had not occurred, and the obligations of the Obligor under the Loan Documents shall continue to exist, as amended herein.

Section 4.03 No Violation. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement do not and will not: (i) violate any law, regulation or court order to which the Obligors are subject; (ii) conflict with the Obligors' constating documents; or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any lien, security interest or encumbrance on any property of the Obligors, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, other than security interests in favour of the Lender.

- (d) accepts the resignation of Mr. Davidson from the Borrower, in his capacities as a director and officer; and
- (e) authorizes the Borrower to terminate Mr. Davidson and Ms. Davidson as employees.

Section 5.04 Compliance with Loan Documents. The Guarantors shall continue to perform and observe all covenants, terms and conditions and other obligations contained in all of the Loan Documents (as expressly modified herein).

Section 5.05 Perfection of Lender's Security Interests. The Obligors shall execute and deliver to the Lender such documents and take such actions as the Lender deems necessary or advisable to perfect or protect the Lender's security interests, mortgages or liens granted by the Obligors to the Lender.

Section 5.06 Other Financial Information and Reporting. The Guarantors shall be available to discuss, and shall promptly provide to the Lender, such other financial information and reporting as the Lender may reasonably request.

Section 5.07 Payments to Shareholders, Related Parties. The Borrower shall not, without the prior written consent of the Lender, incur any capital expenditures, or make any payments, whether directly or indirectly, to any of shareholder or any other persons, whether by way of dividends, capital dividends, redemption or retraction of shares or bonuses, except such payments made in the ordinary course of business on account of salary, which payments shall be consistent with the ordinary practices of the Borrower. There shall be no repayment of any amounts owing by the Borrower to any “related person” as such term is defined under the BIA, without the prior written consent of the Lender.

Section 5.08 No Additional Debt, No Further Security. Except in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or with the prior written consent of the Lender, the Obligors shall not increase existing debt obligations or incur new debt obligations, and shall not grant security interests, mortgages, hypothecs, liens, charges, pledges or other encumbrances whatsoever to any person, firm, corporation or other legal entity.

Section 5.09 Statutory Remittances. From and after the Effective Date, and subject to the provision of the DIP Funding (as defined herein), the Borrower shall keep current all amounts owing by the Borrower to the Crown, including, without limitation, amounts owing under the Income Tax Act (Canada), the Excise Tax Act (Canada), the Retail Sales Tax Act (Ontario) and any other federal, provincial or municipal laws (including all provincial or municipal taxes, rates, duties, levies, fees, charges, local improvement rates, imposed charges, levies and assessments whatsoever in respect of the Project) which could give rise to a claim in priority to the PDP Security (collectively, the “Priority Payables”). The Borrower hereby authorizes and directs any entity having information in respect of the Priority Payables to release such information to the Lender or its agents to assist the Lender in evaluating the existence and extent of any indebtedness owing by the Borrower to such entity and the Borrower shall, at the request of the Lender, execute and deliver such authorizations and consents as the Bank may require in respect of same.

Section 5.10 Notice of Adverse Claims. If the Obligors shall become aware that any person or entity is asserting any lien, encumbrance, security interest or adverse claim (including any writ of seizure and sale, garnishment, judgment, execution, civil enforcement order, or similar process or any claim of control) against any of them or any of their property (each, an “Adverse Claim”), they shall promptly notify the Lender in writing thereof and provide to the Lender all documentation and other information it may request regarding such Adverse Claim.

Section 5.11 Notice of Forbearance Default. The Obligors shall give to the Lender prompt notice of any Forbearance Default or any event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a Forbearance Default.

Section 5.12 Further Assurances. Promptly upon the request of the Lender, the Obligors shall take any and all actions, of any kind or nature whatsoever, and execute and deliver additional documents that relate to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein.

Section 5.13 Third Party Release. The Borrower shall seek the court’s approval in obtaining a third party release for the benefit of the Borrower’s former and current officers and directors, which release shall be consistent with recently granted third party releases in insolvency proceedings (the “Third Party Release”). For certainty, the Borrower shall seek a release that includes language that is the same or similar to the language noted on Schedule “A” to this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI Lenders Covenants

Upon the satisfaction of the Share Transfer Condition, the Lender will work with the Borrower to take all necessary steps to initiate and facilitate the NOI Proceedings on or before May 24, 2022. In connection with the NOI Proceedings, the Lender covenants and agrees as follows:

Section 6.01 Sale Process. On or before May 31, 2022, the Lender shall cause the Borrower to initiate a robust and fulsome Sale Process, supervised by a qualified proposal trustee (the “Proposal Trustee”), which Sale Process shall:

- (a) approve a stalking horse bid, which bid shall be put forward directly or indirectly by the Lender (the “Stalking Horse Bid”). The Stalking Horse Bid shall include:
 - (i) a complete assumption of the PDP Debt;
 - (ii) a complete assumption of the TD Debt; and
 - (iii) an assumption of other debts, to be determined by the Lender in its sole discretion.
- (b) be conducted for a period of time that is consistent with usual and customary practices as it relates to the sale of a business in an insolvency proceeding and as the Proposal Trustee agrees.

Section 6.02 DIP Funding. The Lender shall source interim financing sufficient to ensure that the Borrower can complete the Sale Process and operate the Business in the ordinary course during the NOI Proceedings (the “DIP Funding”).

Section 6.03 D&O Charge. The Lender shall, or shall cause the chief restructuring officer to, seek the court's approval in the NOI Proceedings to grant a charge for the benefit of the Borrower's directors and officers, in accordance with standard practices for proceedings like the NOI Proceedings.

Section 6.04 Payroll Expense. The Lender shall ensure that the Borrower is sufficiently funded to satisfy its obligations in connection with the Payroll Expense (including its obligations to pay the wages and other customary payroll amounts due to Mr. Davidson and his wife Jodie Davidson as part of the Payroll Expense), whether through the DIP Funding or otherwise.

Section 6.05 Third Party Release. The Lender will support the Borrower’s efforts to obtain the Third Party Release.

Section 6.06 Maximize Recovery. The Lender will take all reasonable steps to maximize the recovery of value as it relates to the Borrower and the Business.

ARTICLE VII Reaffirmation of Guarantees

Section 7.01 Reaffirmation of Guarantee. Each Guarantor hereby ratifies and reaffirms: (i) the validity, legality and enforceability of their Guarantee; (ii) that its reaffirmation of the Guarantee is a material inducement to the Lender to enter into this Agreement; and (iii) that their obligations under their Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect until all the Obligations have been paid in full.

ARTICLE VIII

Release of Claims and Waiver of Defences

Section 8.01 Release of Claims and Waiver of Defences. In further consideration of the Lender's execution of this Agreement, the Obligors, on behalf of themselves and their successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents, hereby forever, fully, unconditionally and irrevocably waive and release the Lender and its successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents (collectively, the "Releasees") from any and all claims, liabilities, obligations, debts, causes of action (whether at law, in equity or otherwise), defences, counterclaims, set-offs, of any kind, whether known or unknown, whether liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, fixed or contingent, directly or indirectly arising out of, connected with, resulting from or related to any act or omission by the Lender or any other Releasee with respect to the Loan Documents and any Collateral, other than the Lender's or any Releasee's wilful acts or omissions, on or before the date of this Agreement (collectively, the "Claims"). The Obligors further agree that they shall not commence, institute or prosecute any lawsuit, action or other proceeding, whether judicial, administrative or otherwise, to collect or enforce any Claim.

ARTICLE IX

Forbearance Defaults

Section 9.01 Forbearance Defaults. The occurrence of one or more of the following shall constitute a "Forbearance Default" under this Agreement, unless such default is existing at the time of the execution of this Agreement and the Lender is aware of such default:

- (a) The Obligors, or any of them, fail to abide by or observe any term, condition, covenant or other provision contained in this Agreement or any document related to or executed in connection with this Agreement.
- (b) A default or event of default occurs under any Loan Document or any document related to or executed in connection with this Agreement or any of the Loan Documents (other than the Existing Defaults).
- (c) Any Guarantor ceases to exist or revokes or terminates its liability under any Guarantee, or challenges the validity or enforceability of any Guarantee, or denies any further liability or obligation thereunder.
- (d) Any other creditor of any Obligor commences an action against an Obligor seeking to collect any debt, obligation or liability that is not stayed in connection with the NOI Proceedings.
- (e) Any representation or warranty of any Obligor made herein shall be false, misleading or incorrect in any material respect when made.
- (f) Any Obligor takes any action, or any event or condition occurs or exists, which the Lender reasonably believes in good faith is inconsistent in any material respect with any provision of this Agreement, or impairs, or is likely to impair, the prospect of payment or performance by the Obligors of their obligations under this Agreement or any of the Loan Documents.

Section 9.02 Waiver. The Lender may waive, in writing, any Forbearance Default, in its sole and absolute discretion, but no such waiver shall constitute a waiver of any other Forbearance Default.

Section 9.03 Cure Period. Upon the occurrence of a Forbearance Default, the Obligors shall be entitled to a five (5) day cure period (the “Cure Period”). If a Forbearance Default is not cured within the Cure Period, the Lender shall be entitled to all of its rights and remedies under this Agreement, the Loan Documents, at law or otherwise.

ARTICLE X Remedies

Section 10.01 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of a Forbearance Default and the expiry of the Cure Period:

- (a) The Forbearance Period shall immediately and automatically cease, without notice to, or action by, any party, and the Lender shall have no further obligation to forbear and shall be entitled to enforce all of its rights and remedies against the Obligors.
- (b) The Obligors shall consent to the immediate enforcement of the PDP Security.
- (c) The Lender shall be entitled to exercise any or all of its rights and remedies under the Loan Documents, this Agreement, or any stipulations or other documents executed in connection with or related to this Agreement or any of the Loan Documents, or applicable law, including, without limitation, the appointment of a receiver, receiver manager, interim receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, or other similar official for it or for all or any part of its assets, including the Project.
- (d) The Obligors shall cooperate with the Lender’s repossession of all personal property Collateral, which the Obligors shall immediately surrender to the Lender upon the Lender’s request, at the time and place designated by the Lender.
- (e) The Obligors shall cooperate with the Lender in initiating such proceedings, or filings for the benefit of creditors, as the Lender deems necessary or desirable to satisfy the outstanding Obligations.
- (f) The Lender may set off or apply to the payment of any or all of the Obligations, any deposit balances, any or all of the Collateral or proceeds thereof, or other money which the Lender now or hereafter owes to the Obligors.

Section 11.02 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Loan Documents constitute the sole and entire agreement of the parties to this Agreement with respect to the subject matter contained herein and therein and supersede all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, representations and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter.

Section 11.03 Amendments. The terms of this Agreement may only be waived, amended, modified or supplemented by an agreement in writing signed by all the parties hereto.

Section 11.04 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 11.05 Full Force and Effect. The Loan Documents shall remain unchanged, in full force and effect, and continue to govern and control the relationship between the parties hereto, except to the extent they are inconsistent with, superseded or expressly modified herein. To the extent of any inconsistency, amendment or superseding provision, this Agreement shall govern and control.

Section 11.06 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement is binding upon and shall enure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, successors and assigns; provided that the Obligors may not assign any rights or delegate any obligations arising herein without the prior written consent of the Lender, and any prohibited assignment shall be absolutely void. The Lender may assign its rights and interests in this Agreement, the Loan Documents and all documents executed in connection with or related to this Agreement or the Loan Documents, at any time, without the consent of or notice to the Obligors.

Section 11.07 Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the Province of Alberta or any other jurisdiction).

Section 11.08 Submission to Jurisdiction. Any action or proceeding arising out of this Agreement, the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby will be instituted in the courts of the Province of Alberta, and each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts in any such action or proceeding. The parties irrevocably and unconditionally waive any objection to the venue of any action or proceeding in such courts and irrevocably waive and agree not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

Section 11.09 No Waiver. No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of the Lender, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under the Loan Documents shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. Further, the Lender's acceptance of payment on account of the Obligations or other performance by the Obligors after the occurrence of Forbearance Default shall not be construed as a waiver of such Forbearance Default, any other Forbearance Default, or any of the Lender's rights or remedies.

Section 11.10 Cumulative Rights. The rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative and are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights and remedies available by law, in equity or otherwise.

Section 11.11 Headings. The Section headings in this Agreement are for reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 11.12 Joint Transition. The parties hereby jointly and severally covenant and agree that from the Effective Date, they shall work together to establish fair and balanced transition messaging to the Borrower's employees and other stakeholders, as the case may be.

Section 11.13 Counterparts; Electronic Execution. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which is deemed an original, but all of which together are deemed to be one and the same agreement. - and -

PRIVATE DEBT PARTNERS SENIOR OPPORTUNITIES FUND GP INC. (the “Lender”)

RECITALS:

- A. The Borrower operates a specialty trade contractor business in Calgary, Alberta (the “Business”).
- B. The Borrower is funded by, and indebted to, inter alia: The Toronto-Dominion Bank (“TD”) pursuant to a Demand Operating Facility Agreement, dated March 7, 2022, as subsequently amended pursuant to: (i) Demand Operating Facility Agreement Amendment, dated March 14, 2022; and, (ii) Demand Operating Facility Agreement Amendment, dated April 6, 2022 (collectively, the “TD Loan Agreement”). As at May 5, 2022, the indebtedness under the TD Loan Agreement was approximately $2,030,028.13 (the “TD Debt”).
- C. The TD Debt is secured by various loan and security agreements, including, without limitation, a General Security Agreement dated July 24, 2001, granted by the Borrower to and in favour of TD.
- D. On April 29, 2022, TD issued a default letter as against the Borrower. On May 6, 2022, counsel for TD issued a demand for repayment and a Notice of Intention to Enforce Security under Section 244 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C. 1985 c.B-3, as amended (the “BIA”).
- E. The Borrower is further funded by, and indebted to, the Lender, pursuant to a Credit Agreement dated as of January 11, 2022 (the “PDP Loan Agreement”). As at May 5, 2022, the indebtedness under the PDP Loan Agreement was approximately $9,224,815.23 (the “PDP Debt” or the “Obligations”).
- F. The PDP Debt is secured by various loan and security agreements, including, without limitation, a General Security Agreement, dated January 11, 2022, as granted by the Borrower to and in favour of the Lender (collectively the “PDP Loan Security”).

G. The PDP Debt was guaranteed by the Guarantors pursuant to: (i) a personal guarantee dated January 11, 2022, granted by Mr. Davidson to the Lender; and (ii) a limited recourse guarantee and share pledge agreement dated January 11, 2022, granted by 2087 to the Lender; (collectively, the “Guarantees”).

H. The obligations stemming from the Guarantees are secured by: (i) a General Security Agreement dated January 11, 2022, granted by Mr. Davidson in favour of the Lender (the “Davidson Security”); and (ii) a Share Pledge Agreement dated January 11, 2022 granted by 2087 in favour of the Lender (the “2087 Share Pledge” and together with the Davidson Security, the “Guarantee Security” and together with the PDP Loan Security, the “PDP Security”).

J. The Business has experienced significant liquidity issues. The Borrower has failed to generate sufficient revenue to meet its payroll obligations in the months of March and April, 2022. The Borrower anticipates that it will fail to meet its payroll obligations coming due on May 11, 2022 (the “Payroll Expense”).

K. On May 6, 2022, the Borrower informed the Lender that it intended to file a Notice of Intention to Make a Proposal under Part III Division I of the BIA (the “NOI Proceedings”).

L. The Borrower wishes to utilize the NOI Proceedings to conduct a sales process (the “Sale Process”) with the goal of preserving and maximizing the value of its Business for the benefit of its stakeholders. The Guarantors wish to assist the Borrower in such efforts. The Obligors have requested that the Lender forbear from exercising its rights and remedies under the PDP Loan Agreement, the Guarantees and the PDP Security.

M. The Lender is willing to forbear from exercising such rights and remedies for the Forbearance Period (as defined herein), provided that the Obligors comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the mutual covenants, terms and conditions set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Obligor Acknowledgments

The Obligors irrevocably and unconditionally acknowledge, covenant, represent, confirm and agree that:

Section 1.01 Recitals. Each of the foregoing recitals is true and accurate in all respects.

Section 1.02 Defaults. The Borrower is in default under the PDP Loan Agreement by virtue of the defaults described in the PDP Demand Letters (collectively, the “Existing Defaults”).

Section 1.03 Loan Documents. The PDP Loan Agreement, the Guarantees, the PDP Security, and all other agreements, instruments and other documents executed in connection with or relating to the PDP Debt (the “Loan Documents”) are in full force and effect, constitute legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligations against the Obligor in accordance with their terms, and each Obligor is hereby estopped from asserting or causing to be asserted on its behalf, any rights of defense, dispute, counterclaim, set-off, deduction or other rights, claims, demands, challenges, objections or appeals of any kind whatsoever existing as of the date of this Agreement, whether in respect of the obligations of the Obligor thereunder or the enforceability of same. The terms of the Loan Documents remain unchanged, except as modified herein.

Section 1.04 PDP Debt. The PDP Debt, as of close of business on May 5, 2022 was equal to $9,224,815.23. The PDP Debt is due and owing and is not subject to any set-off, deduction, claim, counterclaim or defence of any kind, nature, character or description whatsoever. The PDP Debt is subject to certain fees and expenses which continue to accrue, including interest, costs, fees and expenses incurred by the Lender in connection with the Loan Documents and the PDP Debt.

Section 1.05 Collateral. The Lender has valid, enforceable and perfected security interests in the collateral described in the Loan Documents (the “Collateral”), as to which there are no set-offs, deductions, claims, counterclaims or defences of any kind or character whatsoever.

Section 1.06 No Lending Obligation. The Lender has no obligation to make loans or otherwise extend credit to the Obligor under the Loan Documents.

Section 1.07 Right to Accelerate Obligations. As a result of the Existing Defaults, the Lender has the right to accelerate the maturity and demand immediate payment of the PDP Debt.

Section 1.08 Default Notice. To the extent required by the Loan Agreements or the Guarantees, the Obligor has received timely and proper notice of the Existing Defaults and the opportunity to cure (if any), in accordance with the Loan Documents, or applicable law, and hereby waives any rights to receive further notice thereof. All applicable cure periods relating to the Existing Defaults have lapsed or are hereby explicitly waived.

Section 1.09 No Waiver of Defaults. Neither this Agreement, nor any actions taken in accordance with this Agreement or the Loan Documents, shall be construed as a waiver of or consent to the Existing Defaults or any other existing or future defaults under the Loan Documents, as to which the Lender’s rights shall remain reserved.

Section 1.10 Preservation of Rights and Remedies. Upon expiration of the Forbearance Period (as defined in Section 3.01), all of the Lender’s rights and remedies under the Loan Documents, and at law and in equity, shall be available without restriction or modification, as if the forbearance had not occurred, and the obligations of the Obligor under the Loan Documents shall continue to exist, as amended herein.

Section 1.11 Execution and Authorization. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by a duly authorized officer on behalf of each Obligor, and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Obligor enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 1.12 Lender Conduct. The Lender has fully and timely performed all of its obligations and duties in compliance with the Loan Documents and applicable law and has acted in a commercially reasonable manner, in good faith and appropriately under the circumstances. The Borrower and the Guarantors hereby agree that, upon the execution of this Agreement, they shall each absolutely and irrevocably release the Releasees (as defined herein), of and from any and all claims which they may have in respect of their default against the Releasees up to and including the Effective Date including, without limitation, any actions taken by the Lender in dealing with the Obligers.

Section 1.13 Purpose of Forbearance. The purpose of this Agreement is to provide the Guarantors an opportunity to assist with the Borrower's efforts to maximize value for the benefit of the Borrower's stakeholders, free from any action the Lender might otherwise initiate during the Forbearance Period.

Section 1.14 Request to Forbear. The Borrower and the Guarantors have requested the Lender's forbearance as provided herein, which shall enure to their direct and substantial benefit.

ARTICLE II Tolling Provisions

The tolling provisions of this Agreement will terminate upon any party providing the others with 45 days written notice of an intention to terminate the tolling provisions hereof, and upon the expiry of such 45 day notice, and any time provided for under the statutes of limitations, laches, or any other doctrine related to the passage of time in relation to the Obligations, the PDP Security, and the Guarantees or any entitlements arising from the Obligations, the PDP Security, and the Guarantees and any other related matters, will recommence running as of the effective date of such notice, and, for greater certainty, the time during which the limitation period is suspended pursuant to the tolling provisions of this Agreement shall not be included in the computation of any limitation period.

ARTICLE III Lender Forbearance

Section 3.01 Forbearance Period. Subject to compliance by the Obligers with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Lender hereby agrees to forbear from exercising its rights and remedies against the Obligers under the Loan Documents with respect to the Existing Defaults during the period (the "Forbearance Period") commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the earliest to occur of: (i) November 30, 2022; (ii) the date upon which the Obligations are repaid, in full; and (iii) the date upon which any Forbearance Default (as defined in herein) occurs, subject to the Cure Period (as defined herein). The Lender's forbearance, as provided herein, shall immediately and automatically cease without notice or further action on the earliest to occur of (i), (ii) or (iii) (the "Termination Date"). ARTICLE IV Representations and Warranties

Each of the Obligors represents and warrants as to itself that all representations and warranties relating to it contained in the Loan Documents are true and correct as of the Effective Date, except to the extent that such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date, in which case such representations and warranties shall have been true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date. The Obligors further represent and warrant to the Lender as follows, and acknowledge that the Lender is relying on the accuracy of such representations and warranties:

Section 4.01 Authorization. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement are within its corporate power and authority and have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action.

Section 4.02 Enforceability. This Agreement constitutes a valid and legally binding Agreement enforceable against the Obligors in accordance with its terms, subject to the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity.

Section 4.03 No Violation. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement do not and will not: (i) violate any law, regulation or court order to which the Obligors are subject; (ii) conflict with the Obligors' constating documents; or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any lien, security interest or encumbrance on any property of the Obligors, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, other than security interests in favour of the Lender.

Section 5.01 Cooperation with Sale Process. The Obligors shall cooperate with the Lender, and assist in all respects, in order to conduct the Sale Process. Section 5.06 Other Financial Information and Reporting. The Guarantors shall be available to discuss, and shall promptly provide to the Lender, such other financial information and reporting as the Lender may reasonably request.

Section 5.07 Payments to Shareholders, Related Parties. The Borrower shall not, without the prior written consent of the Lender, incur any capital expenditures, or make any payments, whether directly or indirectly, to any of shareholder or any other persons, whether by way of dividends, capital dividends, redemption or retraction of shares or bonuses, except such payments made in the ordinary course of business on account of salary, which payments shall be consistent with the ordinary practices of the Borrower. There shall be no repayment of any amounts owing by the Borrower to any “related person” as such term is defined under the BIA, without the prior written consent of the Lender.

Section 5.08 No Additional Debt, No Further Security. Except in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or with the prior written consent of the Lender, the Obligors shall not increase existing debt obligations or incur new debt obligations, and shall not grant security interests, mortgages, hypothecs, liens, charges, pledges or other encumbrances whatsoever to any person, firm, corporation or other legal entity.

The Borrower hereby authorizes and directs any entity having information in respect of the Priority Payables to release such information to the Lender or its agents to assist the Lender in evaluating the existence and extent of any indebtedness owing by the Borrower to such entity and the Borrower shall, at the request of the Lender, execute and deliver such authorizations and consents as the Bank may require in respect of same.

Section 5.11 Notice of Forbearance Default. The Obligors shall give to the Lender prompt notice of any Forbearance Default or any event which, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a Forbearance Default.

Section 5.12 Further Assurances. Promptly upon the request of the Lender, the Obligors shall take any and all actions, of any kind or nature whatsoever, and execute and deliver additional documents that relate to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein.

Section 5.13 Third Party Release. The Borrower shall seek the court’s approval in obtaining a third party release for the benefit of the Borrower’s former and current officers and directors, which release shall be consistent with recently granted third party releases in insolvency proceedings (the “Third Party Release”). For certainty, the Borrower shall seek a release that includes language that is the same or similar to the language noted on Schedule “A” to this Agreement.

Section 6.04 Payroll Expense. The Lender shall ensure that the Borrower is sufficiently funded to satisfy its obligations in connection with the Payroll Expense (including its obligations to pay the wages and other customary payroll amounts due to Mr. Davidson and his wife Jodie Davidson as part of the Payroll Expense), whether through the DIP Funding or otherwise.

Section 6.05 Third Party Release. The Lender will support the Borrower's efforts to obtain the Third Party Release.

material inducement to the Lender to enter into this Agreement; and (iii) that their obligations under their Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect until all the Obligations have been paid in full.

ARTICLE VIII

Release of Claims and Waiver of Defences

Section 8.01 Release of Claims and Waiver of Defences. In further consideration of the Lender's execution of this Agreement, the Obligors, on behalf of themselves and their successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents, hereby forever, fully, unconditionally and irrevocably waive and release the Lender and its successors, assigns, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents (collectively, the "Releasees") from any and all claims, liabilities, obligations, debts, causes of action (whether at law, in equity or otherwise), defences, counterclaims, set-offs, of any kind, whether known or unknown, whether liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, fixed or contingent, directly or indirectly arising out of, connected with, resulting from or related to any act or omission by the Lender or any other Releasee with respect to the Loan Documents and any Collateral, other than the Lender's or any Releasee's wilful acts or omissions, on or before the date of this Agreement (collectively, the "Claims"). The Obligors further agree that they shall not commence, institute or prosecute any lawsuit, action or other proceeding, whether judicial, administrative or otherwise, to collect or enforce any Claim.

ARTICLE IX

Section 9.01 Forbearance Defaults. The occurrence of one or more of the following shall constitute a "Forbearance Default" under this Agreement, unless such default is existing at the time of the execution of this Agreement and the Lender is aware of such default:

- (a) The Obligors, or any of them, fail to abide by or observe any term, condition, covenant or other provision contained in this Agreement or any document related to or executed in connection with this Agreement.
- (b) A default or event of default occurs under any Loan Document or any document related to or executed in connection with this Agreement or any of the Loan Documents (other than the Existing Defaults).

- (e) Any representation or warranty of any Obligor made herein shall be false, misleading or incorrect in any material respect when made.
- (f) Any Obligor takes any action, or any event or condition occurs or exists, which the Lender reasonably believes in good faith is inconsistent in any material respect with any provision of this Agreement, or impairs, or is likely to impair, the prospect of payment or performance by the Obligor of their obligations under this Agreement or any of the Loan Documents.

Section 9.02 Waiver. The Lender may waive, in writing, any Forbearance Default, in its sole and absolute discretion, but no such waiver shall constitute a waiver of any other Forbearance Default.

Section 9.03 Cure Period. Upon the occurrence of a Forbearance Default, the Obligor shall be entitled to a five (5) day cure period (the “Cure Period”). If a Forbearance Default is not cured within the Cure Period, the Lender shall be entitled to all of its rights and remedies under this Agreement, the Loan Documents, at law or otherwise.

ARTICLE X Remedies

Section 10.01 Remedies. Upon the occurrence of a Forbearance Default and the expiry of the Cure Period:

- (b) The Obligor shall consent to the immediate enforcement of the PDP Security.
- (c) The Lender shall be entitled to exercise any or all of its rights and remedies under the Loan Documents, this Agreement, or any stipulations or other documents executed in connection with or related to this Agreement or any of the Loan Documents, or applicable law, including, without limitation, the appointment of a receiver, receiver manager, interim receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, or other similar official for it or for all or any part of its assets, including the Project.

- (e) The Obligor shall cooperate with the Lender in initiating such proceedings, or filings for the benefit of creditors, as the Lender deems necessary or desirable to satisfy the outstanding Obligations.
- (f) The Lender may set off or apply to the payment of any or all of the Obligations, any deposit balances, any or all of the Collateral or proceeds thereof, or other money which the Lender now or hereafter owes to the Obligor.

Section 11.03 Amendments. The terms of this Agreement may only be waived, amended, modified or supplemented by an agreement in writing signed by all the parties hereto.

Section 11.04 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 11.05 Full Force and Effect. The Loan Documents shall remain unchanged, in full force and effect, and continue to govern and control the relationship between the parties hereto, except to the extent they are inconsistent with, superseded or expressly modified herein. No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of the Lender, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under the Loan Documents shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. Further, the Lender's acceptance of payment on account of the Obligations or other performance by the Obligors after the occurrence of Forbearance Default shall not be construed as a waiver of such Forbearance Default, any other Forbearance Default, or any of the Lender's rights or remedies.

PRIVATE DEBT PARTNERS SENIOR OPPORTUNITIES FUND GP INC. (the “Lender”)

RECITALS:

- A. The Borrower operates a specialty trade contractor business in Calgary, Alberta (the “Business”).
- B. The Borrower is funded by, and indebted to, inter alia: The Toronto-Dominion Bank (“TD”) pursuant to a Demand Operating Facility Agreement, dated March 7, 2022, as subsequently amended pursuant to: (i) Demand Operating Facility Agreement Amendment, dated March 14, 2022; and, (ii) Demand Operating Facility Agreement Amendment, dated April 6, 2022 (collectively, the “TD Loan Agreement”). ARTICLE I

Obligor Acknowledgments

The Obligor irrevocably and unconditionally acknowledge, covenant, represent, confirm and agree that:

Section 1.01 Recitals. Each of the foregoing recitals is true and accurate in all respects.

Section 1.02 Defaults. The Borrower is in default under the PDP Loan Agreement by virtue of the defaults described in the PDP Demand Letters (collectively, the “Existing Defaults”).

Section 1.03 Loan Documents. The PDP Loan Agreement, the Guarantees, the PDP Security, and all other agreements, instruments and other documents executed in connection with or relating to the PDP Debt (the “Loan Documents”) are in full force and effect, constitute legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligations against the Obligor in accordance with their terms, and each Obligor is hereby estopped from asserting or causing to be asserted on its behalf, any rights of defense, dispute, counterclaim, set-off, deduction or other rights, claims, demands, challenges, objections or appeals of any kind whatsoever existing as of the date of this Agreement, whether in respect of the obligations of the Obligor thereunder or the enforceability of same. All applicable cure periods relating to the Existing Defaults have lapsed or are hereby explicitly waived.

Section 1.10 Preservation of Rights and Remedies. Upon expiration of the Forbearance Period (as defined in Section 3.01), all of the Lender’s rights and remedies under the Loan Documents, and at law and in equity, shall be available without restriction or modification, as if the forbearance had not occurred, and the obligations of the Obligor under the Loan Documents shall continue to exist, as amended herein.

Section 4.03 No Violation. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement do not and will not: (i) violate any law, regulation or court order to which the Obligors are subject; (ii) conflict with the Obligors' constating documents; or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any lien, security interest or encumbrance on any property of the Obligors, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, other than security interests in favour of the Lender.

This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the Province of Alberta or any other jurisdiction).

Section 11.08 Submission to Jurisdiction. Any action or proceeding arising out of this Agreement, the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby will be instituted in the courts of the Province of Alberta, and each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts in any such action or proceeding. The parties irrevocably and unconditionally waive any objection to the venue of any action or proceeding in such courts and irrevocably waive and agree not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

Section 11.09 No Waiver. No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, on the part of the Lender, any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder or under the Loan Documents shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. Further, the Lender's acceptance of payment on account of the Obligations or other performance by the Obligors after the occurrence of Forbearance Default shall not be construed as a waiver of such Forbearance Default, any other Forbearance Default, or any of the Lender's rights or remedies.

Section 11.10 Cumulative Rights. The rights and remedies under this Agreement are cumulative and are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights and remedies available by law, in equity or otherwise.

Section 11.11 Headings. The Section headings in this Agreement are for reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 11.12 Joint Transition. The parties hereby jointly and severally covenant and agree that from the Effective Date, they shall work together to establish fair and balanced transition messaging to the Borrower's employees and other stakeholders, as the case may be.

Section 11.13 Counterparts; Electronic Execution. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which is deemed an original, but all of which together are deemed to be one and the same agreement. A signed copy of this Agreement delivered by facsimile, email or other means of electronic transmission (that is, .pdf or .tiff) is deemed to have the same legal effect as delivery of an original signed copy of this Agreement.

WHEREAS:

The PDP Debt is secured by various loan and security agreements, including, without limitation, a General Security Agreement, dated January 11, 2022, as granted by the Corporation to and in favour of the Lender (collectively the "PDP Loan Security"). The PDP Debt was guaranteed by Andrew Davidson ("Mr. Davidson") and 2087212 Alberta Ltd. ("2087", and together with Mr. Davidson, the "Guarantors") pursuant to: (i) a personal guarantee dated January 11, 2022, granted by Mr. Davidson to the Lender; and (ii) a limited recourse guarantee and share pledge agreement dated January 11, 2022, granted by 2087 to the Lender; (collectively, the "Guarantees"). - C. the Board has been presented a draft of the Agreement;
- D. in connection with the Agreement, the Corporation also proposes to:
- (i) accept the resignation of Mr. Davidson from the Corporation, in all capacities, including as director and officer of the Corporation (the "Resignation Acceptance");
 - (ii) terminate Mr. Davidson and his spouse Jodie Davidson as employees of the Corporation (the "Employee Terminations");
 - (iii) appoint Jeff Deacon (the "Lender's Nominee"), being the Lender's nominee, to the board of directors of the Corporation (the "Director Appointment");
 - (iv) appoint a chief restructuring officer of the Corporation (the "CRO") to be determined by the Lender's Nominee (the "CRO Appointment"); and
- E. the Lender's Nominee has consented to act a director of the Corporation; and
- F. the Board has determined, following due consideration, that it is in the Corporation's best interest to enter into the Agreement and to carry out and complete the Director Appointment, the Employee

Terminations, the CRO Appointment and the Resignation Acceptance, and wishes to provide for the approvals and authorizations necessary or desirable to give effect to the foregoing;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS RESOLVED THAT:

1. the Agreement, substantially in the form presented to the Board, and all matters provided for and transactions contemplated by such Agreement, are approved with such amendments as may be approved by any one officer or director of the Corporation (such person, an "Authorized Signatory");
2. the resignation of Mr. Davidson from the Corporation, as director and officer of the Corporation, is hereby accepted effective immediately;
3. the Corporation shall terminate the employment of Mr. Davidson and Ms. Davidson, effective immediately;
4. the Lender's Nominee is hereby appointed as a director of the Corporation, such that effective May 11, 2022, the Board consists of: Jeff Deacon, Justin Palmer, John Davidson, Mark Fairbanks and Kendall James;
5. the Lender's Nominee, in his sole discretion, is hereby authorized to select and appoint, for and on behalf of the Corporation, a CRO, with such appointment to be effective as of such date as determined by the Lender's Nominee;
6. the CRO, when appointed, is hereby authorized to in all respects to initiate and facilitate the NOI Proceedings and the Sale Process (each as defined in the Agreement) and do all such things, and execute all such documents, as are required to give effect to the intention of the Agreement;
7. any one Authorized Signatory is authorized to execute and deliver the Agreement, for and on behalf of the Corporation, and the Authorized Signatory's execution and delivery of the Agreement will be conclusive evidence of his or her approval of such agreements and any amendments made to them, with such Agreement being the agreements approved by these resolutions;
8. the Corporation is authorized to perform its obligations under the Agreement;
9. any and all actions taken by an Authorized Signatory in connection with the Agreement, the Resignation Acceptance, the Employee Terminations, the Director Appointment and the CRO Appointment, prior to the execution of these resolutions are ratified and confirmed as the authorized actions of the Corporation; and

Hi Kelsey,

Further to your email, we note the following, which would be helpful in further considering these claims:

Andrew Davidson:

1. Is there any additional information setting out that Mr. Davidson's termination was pursuant to section 6.3 of the Executive Employment Agreement?
2. What period is Mr. Davidson claiming unpaid wages for? The amount provided is not consistent with the company's books and records.
3. Do you have additional information in support of Mr. Davidson's claim for unpaid vacation pay? The amount provided is not consistent with the company's books and records.
4. The 2021 financial statements are attached for your reference.

Jody Davidson:

1. The company's books and records do not support that there is an amount due to Mrs. Davidson from 2019. In addition, the fact that Mrs. Davidson continued to work for the company during this period suggests that she may not have had the expectation that she was owed unpaid wages. Does Mrs. Davidson have any communication to the company requesting payment of the outstanding wages?
2. With regard to the company's books and records, we can advise as follows:
 - a. All paper payroll records have been provided to the Court-appointed Receiver; and
 - b. We are unable to locate electronic records related to the 2019 payroll, which are not in Microsoft Dynamics. We are happy to speak to Mrs. Davidson if she feels she can direct us to other information that would support her claim.

I am away until April 10 but will take a look at this again on my return.

Thanks very much,

Vanessa

Hi Vanessa,

Thanks for your letter of March 20th. I write with respect to your understanding as set out in the letter that Mr. Davidson resigned from Home Solutions Corporation ("Home Solutions"), which, in fact, is not accurate. Mr. Davidson resigned as a director of Home Solutions, but his employment with Home Solutions, as well as that of Mrs. Davidson, was terminated by Home Solutions. The forbearance agreement entered into between Home Solutions, Mr. Davidson, 2087212 Alberta Ltd., and PDP included terms at section 5.03(d) and (e) that:

- Mr. Davidson would resign as a director of Home Solutions; and
- The employment of both Mr. and Mrs. Davidson with Home Solutions would be terminated.

Indeed, that is what occurred, as confirmed by the following evidence (attached):

- Mr. Davidson's Affidavit sworn August 12 and filed August 15, 2022, in support of Mr. Davidson's (successful) application to set aside the ex parte Mareva injunction and attachment order that PDP obtained against him (this Affidavit was also provided to you in December 2022). Please see paragraphs 7, 37 and 115(f) thereof;
- Chris Simard's email to Larry Ellis of Miller Thomson LLP, counsel for PDP, on May 11, 2022, which includes as attachments:
 - The Forbearance Agreement, signed by Mr. Davidson (Mr. Simard's email requests PDP's signature page of the same), and, as contemplated by the Forbearance Agreement:
 - the fully-executed Resolution of the Directors of Home Solutions dated May 11, 2022, which sets out at Preambles D(ii) and F and paragraph 3 that pursuant to that Resolution, Home Solutions terminated the employment of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, effective immediately;
 - the signed resignations of the directors and officers of Home Solutions;
 - the termination of employment letters to both Mr. and Mrs. Davidson;

- An email from Sam Massie of Miller Thomson LLP to Chris Simard, cc'd to Larry Ellis, on May 12, 2022, thanking Chris for the above-referenced email and providing the fully-executed Forbearance Agreement;
- An email from Andrew Davidson to Jeffrey Deacon of PDP on May 12, 2022, cc'd to Chris Simard, attaching the same documents as were attached to Mr. Simard's email to Mr. Ellis on May 11, 2022;
- The fully-executed Forbearance Agreement, attached as Exhibit "U" to the Affidavit of Jeffrey Deacon sworn July 14, 2022 in support of the ex parte Mareva injunction and attachment order that PDP obtained against Mr. Davidson (which was subsequently set aside by the Court, with costs awarded in favour of Mr. Davidson).

As such, there is no question that Mr. Davidson's employment with Home Solutions was terminated by Home Solutions, by way of a fully-executed Directors' Resolution, in accordance with the Forbearance Agreement.

Your letter of March 20th also requests that we let you know if we have additional information to be provided in support of Mrs. Davidson's claim for outstanding wages, and otherwise to support Mr. Davidson's claim. In that respect:

- With respect to Mrs. Davidson, she has provided sworn Affidavit evidence that there had been two months during her employment with Home Solutions, in or about June and September 2019, when she had not been paid her salary. That evidence supports Mrs. Davidson's claim for outstanding wages. You have not indicated a reason why you have not accepted Mrs. Davidson's evidence in that regard. As Mrs. Davidson does not have access to Home Solutions' books and records (nor does Mr. Davidson), she has no way of proving that Home Solutions did not pay her salary in or about those months; she is effectively being asked to prove a negative. We are advised that at the time, Home Solutions was using an in-house accounting software called Microsoft GP, which included all payroll data and was kept on its local servers, so we expect the Trustee should have access to that software on the company's servers. We are advised that the payroll data will reflect that Home Solutions did not pay Mr. Davidson or Mrs. Davidson for two months in 2019, so as to ensure that the company met its covenant requirements. Will your office check / provide Mrs. Davidson with access to Home Solutions' payroll / accounting records on Microsoft GP so as to allow her to provide further evidence in support of her sworn Affidavit evidence? In the meantime, we are checking as to whether there is any further evidence that Mrs. Davidson can provide to support her sworn evidence already provided that she was not paid salary for two months in 2019.
- You've advised in your letter that "the Company's records indicated that Mr. Davidson would not have been eligible to receive a bonus for 2021." I understand from our telephone conversation on March 22nd that the basis for your comment in this regard is that Mr. Davidson's Executive Employment Agreement states at section 5.2 that "In addition to the Annual Base Salary, the Executive will be eligible to receive a twenty-five thousand dollar ($25,000) year-end bonus if the Company reaches or exceeds fifteen million dollars ($15,500,000) in gross revenue in a fiscal year", and that (we note the inconsistency in the numbers is in the agreement itself), and section 6.3(d) states that upon termination of Mr. Davidson's employment, he is entitled to "An amount equal to two (2) times the Executive's year end bonus eligibility pursuant to section 5.2 above." We note again that Mr. Davidson does not have access to Home Solutions' books and records, but his recollection is that the company's gross revenue for 2021 met the $15 Million threshold. Considering that, would you please advise what the Company's records are that form the basis for your statement that Mr. Davidson was not eligible to receive a bonus for 2021, and provide copies of the same?

Please do not hesitate to contact me to discuss the above further. However, to confirm, in addition to the above and the attached, we do intend to put forth further evidence in support of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson's claims against Home Solutions, and we request that you consider the above, the attached, and any such further evidence with respect to the same. Upon hearing from you with respect to the questions above, we can provide the additional evidence in a more formal manner (eg., further affidavit evidence in support of the proofs of claim) if necessary.

Thanks,

Kelsey

INDEPENDENT PRACTITIONER'S REVIEW ENGAGEMENT REPORT

To the Shareholders of Home Solutions Corporation

I have reviewed the accompanying financial statements of Home Solutions Corporation which comprise the balance sheet as at April 30, 2021 and the statements of income and deficit and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Practitioner's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

My responsibility is to express a conclusion on the accompanying financial statements based on my review. I conducted my review in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements, which require me to comply with relevant ethical requirements.

A review of financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements is a limited assurance engagement. The practitioner performs procedures, primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and others within the entity, as appropriate, and applying analytical procedures, and evaluates the evidence obtained.

The procedures performed in a review are substantially less in extent than, and vary in nature from, those performed in an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, I do not express an audit opinion on these financial statements.

Conclusion

Based on my review, nothing has come to my attention that causes me to believe that these financial statements do not present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Home Solutions Corporation as at April 30, 2021, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises.

Notes to Financial Statements

Year Ended April 30, 2021

1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

On July 27, 2018, 2133892 Alberta Ltd. was incorporated pursuant to the Business Corporations Act (Alberta). On January 1, 2019, 2133892 Alberta Ltd. acquired all of the issued and outstanding share capital of Home Solutions Corporation and on January 7, 2019, these two companies amalgamated to form Home Solutions Corporation. Home Solutions Corporation (the "Company") is incorporated under the Business Corporations Act of Alberta. The Company's principal business activity is manufacturing and supplying materials for closets and glassware to commercial and residential clients in the construction industry.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of presentation

The financial statements were prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises (ASPE).

(b) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are comprised of funds on deposit with financial institutions, less any advances on the operating loan.

(c) Inventory

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value with the cost being determined on a weighted average basis.

(d) Property and equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost and is amortized over its estimated useful life on a declining balance basis at the following rates and methods:

Equipment	20%
Motor vehicles	30%
Computer equipment	20%
Computer software	100%

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(e) Revenue recognition

The Company recognizes revenues when they are earned, specifically when all the following conditions are met:

- services are provided or products are delivered to customers
- there is clear evidence that an arrangement exists
- amounts are fixed or can be determined
- the ability to collect is reasonably assured.

(f) Intangible assets

Intangible assets represents the purchase price allocated to the acquisition of customer lists. These costs are amortized at a 5% rate.

(g) Goodwill

Goodwill, arising on the acquisition of a business, represents the excess of the cost of acquisition over the Company's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the business recognized at the date of acquisition. Goodwill is initially recognized at cost and is subsequently measured at cost less any impairment losses. Goodwill is not amortized and is tested for impairment when an event or circumstances indicate that there may be impairment.

(h) Foreign currency translation

Accounts in foreign currencies have been translated into Canadian dollars using the temporal method. Under this method, monetary assets and liabilities have been translated at the year end exchange rate. Non-monetary assets have been translated at the rate of exchange prevailing at the date of transaction. Revenues and expenses have been translated at the average rates of exchange during the year, except for amortization, which has been translated at the same rate as the related assets.

Foreign exchange gains and losses on monetary assets and liabilities are included in the determination of earnings.

(i) Income taxes

The Company uses the income taxes payable method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, the Company reports as an expense (income) of the period only the cost (benefit) of current income taxes determined in accordance with the rules established by taxation authorities.

(j) Measurement uncertainty

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Such estimates are periodically reviewed and any adjustments necessary are reported in earnings in the period in which they become known. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

11. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company is exposed to various risks through its financial instruments and has a comprehensive risk management framework to monitor, evaluate and manage these risks. The following analysis provides information about the Company's risk exposure and concentration as of April 30, 2021.

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk arises from the potential that a counter party will fail to perform its obligations. The Company is exposed to credit risk from accounts receivable. In order to reduce its credit risk, the Company reviews a new customer's credit history before extending credit and conducts regular reviews of its existing customers' credit performance, as well as limiting the amount of credit extended when deemed necessary. An allowance for doubtful accounts is established based upon factors surrounding the credit risk of specific accounts, historical trends and other information. The Company has a significant number of customers which minimizes concentration of credit risk. At April 30, 2020, 16% (2020 - 10%) of accounts receivable are from one (2020 - one) customer. There were no other customers which owed more than 10% of accounts receivable.

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Company is exposed to this risk mainly in respect of its receipt of funds from its customers and other related sources, long-term debt, obligations under capital leases, and accounts payable. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure, to the extent reasonably possible, that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due, under both normal and stressed condition, without incurring unacceptable costs, losses, or risking harm to the Company's reputation. At April 30, 2021, the Company had established an operating loan (Note 6) available to a maximum of $1,250,000 (2020 - $1,500,000), and surplus working capital to assist with financing its operations and funding capital expenditures. At April 30, 2021, $593,486 (2020 - $224,160) of the operating loan remains unutilized.

(c) Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk to the company's earnings that arise from fluctuations of foreign exchange rates and the degree of volatility of these rates. The Company is exposed to foreign currency exchange risk on certain expenditures transacted in U.S. dollars and Euros. Consequently, some liabilities and expenses are exposed to foreign exchange fluctuations. The company does not use derivative instruments to reduce its exposure to foreign currency risk, however, it believes that it is not exposed to a significant amount of currency risk but monitors this risk periodically.

(d) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument might be adversely affected by a change in the interest rates. In seeking to minimize the risks from interest rate fluctuations, the Company manages exposure through its normal operating and financing activities. The Company is exposed to interest rate risk primarily through its floating interest rate bank indebtedness and credit facilities. The increase or decrease in net earnings for each 1% change in interest rates on floating rate debt amounts to $90,800 (2020 - $98,687).

(e) Market risk

The Company is exposed to market risk as it relates to the construction industry. A significant decrease in the strength of the local construction industry could have a significant impact on the Company's operations.

12. CAPITAL DISCLOSURES

The Company's primary objective in managing its capital is to focus on and monitor liquidity and cash flow in order to maintain financial flexibility. This is to ensure sufficient operating funds exist to settle obligations as they arise and to finance future expansion. The Company's capital consists of long term debt, vendor take back mortgages, due to shareholder, and shareholder's equity. The Company is subject to certain financial covenants relating to its credit facilities disclosed in Notes 8 and 9. The Company was not compliant with such covenants, however the lender waived the covenant requirements up to April 30, 2021 and any related recourse.

13. INCOME TAXES

The income tax provision recorded differs from the income tax obtained by applying the statutory income tax rate of 27.00% (2020 - 27.00%) to the income for the year and is reconciled as follows:

	2021	2020
Income before income taxes	$ 836,610	$ (852,089)
Income tax expense at the combined basic federal and provincial tax rate:	$ 225,885	$ (230,064)
Increase (decrease) resulting from:
Small business deduction	(62,951)	144,855
Amortization claimed in excess of capital cost allowance	71,942	84,531
Non-deductible expenses	25,260	45,636
Non-capital loss carried forward	(212,331)	-
Effective tax expense	$ 47,805	$ 44,958

At April 30, 2021, the net book value of the Company's equipment, intangible assets and goodwill exceeds its underpreciated capital cost and undeducted financing costs by $2,047,265 (2020 - $2,373,750). Subject: RE: HSC - in Bankruptcy/ Claims

Hi Kelsey,

Further to your email, we note the following, which would be helpful in further considering these claims:

Andrew Davidson:

1. Is there any additional information setting out that Mr. Davidson's termination was pursuant to section 6.3 of the Executive Employment Agreement? Pursuant to the directors' resolution dated May 11, 2022, signed by all directors of Home Solutions Corporation (the "Company") and included with my email of March 26, 2023, below, the Company terminated Mr. Davidson and Mrs. Davidson as employees of the Company. Section 6.3 of the Executive Employment Agreement (a copy of which is included with Mr. Davidson's proof of claim) applies where the Company terminates Mr. Davidson's employment "for any reason other than the reasons set out ... at sections 6.1 and 6.2" of the Executive Employment Agreement. Sections 6.1 and 6.2 of the Executive Employment Agreement are, respectively, termination of employment for just cause, and termination of employment due to Mr. Davidson's death, neither of which apply to the Company's termination of Mr. Davidson's employment on May 11, 2022. As such, section 6.3 of the Executive Employment Agreement applies.
2. What period is Mr. Davidson claiming unpaid wages for? The amount provided is not consistent with the company's books and records. As set out in Schedule "A" to Mr. Davidson's proof of claim, Mr. Davidson claims unpaid wages (2 months at $15,833.33/month, amounting to $31,667) pursuant to section 6.3(a) of the Executive Employment Agreement for pro-rata Annual Base Salary earned for services rendered up to and including the Termination Date. As per my email of March 26, 2023 below, the Company, at Mr. Davidson's direction, did not pay Mr. Davidson (or Mrs. Davidson) salary for two months in 2019, so as to ensure that the Company met its covenant requirements. Mr. Davidson was the President and CEO of the Company at this time and, through 2087212 Alberta Ltd., he and his wife were the majority shareholders of the Company (as confirmed by the attached corporate searches of the Company and of 2087212 Alberta Ltd.). The fact that Mr. and Mrs. Davidson were not paid their salaries for 2 months in 2019 so as to ensure that the Company met its covenant requirements does not mean they've waived or foregone entitlement to the same; we are not aware of any basis in law that supports your supposition in that regard (as per your comments below regarding Mrs. Davidson's proof of claim). As with Mrs. Davidson's claim for unpaid wages, the Company's payroll records will reflect that Mr. Davidson did not receive two months' wages in 2019. As per my previous email and also noted below in relation to your questions about Mrs. Davidson's claim for unpaid wages, the Company used Microsoft GP (not Microsoft Dynamics) for payroll in 2019; there is a payroll module of that program on the Company's server. With respect to your advice that the amount provided for Mr. Davidson's claim for unpaid wages is "not consistent with the company's books and records", please advise what records you are referring to in that regard. The 2 months' unpaid wages from 2019 owed to Mr. Davidson was known to and discussed with the Company's previous controllers, John Banfield and Andrew Sheer (Mr. Sheer was hired by the Company on or about August 31, 2021; Mr. Banfield was the controller prior to that).

3. Do you have additional information in support of Mr. Davidson's claim for unpaid vacation pay? The amount provided is not consistent with the company's books and records. Pursuant to section 5.4 of the Executive Employment Agreement, Mr. Davidson was entitled to paid vacation of seven (7) weeks per year. As set out at Schedule "A" of Mr. Davidson's proof of claim, Mr. Davidson is entitled to 13.66 weeks of vacation that was not taken. Based on his salary, that amounts to $5,288.46 per week, which amounts to $72,240.38, as set out in Schedule "A" to his proof of claim. Specifically, of the seven weeks' vacation each year that Mr. Davidson was entitled to take, he took the following:
- 14.5 vacation days (out of 7 weeks' vacation – or 35 days) in 2019
 - 20 vacation days in 2020
 - 15 vacation days in 2021
 - Totalling 49.5 days vacation taken out of Mr. Davidson's entitlement to 105 days' vacation over that period (i.e., 55.5 days vacation, or 11.1 weeks, not taken, over that period)
 - With respect to vacation days for 2022, Mr. Davidson was entitled to have taken 12.68 days up until the termination of his employment on May 11, 2022: [7 weeks / year x 5 days / week = 35 days/year, divided by 12 = 2.916 days per month. January, February, March, April and 0.35 of a month for May = 4.35 months x 2.916 days per month = 12.68 days for 2022 = 2.536 weeks for 2022]
 - Total = 11.1 weeks' vacation not taken between 2019-2021 and 2.536 weeks not taken in 2022 = 13.636 weeks vacation not taken by Mr. Davidson and to which he is entitled to vacation pay. At $5,288.46 per week, that amounts to $72,113.44 vacation pay entitlement.

With respect to your comment that "the amount provided is not consistent with the company's books and records", please advise what books and records you are referring to.

4. The 2021 financial statements are attached for your reference. Thank you for providing the 2021 financial statements, which state that the Company's 2021 revenue was $14,988,588, and therefore did not meet the threshold of $15 Million required for the bonus pursuant to section 5.2 of the Executive Employment Agreement. We note that nothing in section 6.3(d) of the Executive Employment Agreement requires that the threshold of $15 Million in section 5.2 be met; section 6.3(d) entitles Mr. Davidson, upon termination of his employment, to "an amount equal to two (2) times the Executive's year end bonus eligibility pursuant to section 5.2 above", and section 5.2 refers to a $25,000 year end bonus, meaning Mr. Davidson is entitled to $50,000 pursuant to section 6.3(d) of the Executive Employment Agreement upon the termination of his employment.

Jody Davidson:

1. The company's books and records do not support that there is an amount due to Mrs. Davidson from 2019. In addition, the fact that Mrs. Davidson continued to work for the company during this period suggests that she may not have had the expectation that she was owed unpaid wages. Does Mrs. Davidson have any communication to the company requesting payment of the outstanding wages? Mrs. Davidson is the wife of Mr. Davidson, who was the President and CEO of the Company at the time. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson were both indirect majority shareholders of the Company at the time as well, through 2087212 Alberta Ltd. They were not paid their salaries for 2 months in 2019, so as to ensure that the Company met its covenant requirements, which, as indirect majority shareholders of the Company, was in both of their respective interests. To confirm, Mrs. Davidson did not write a letter to her husband requesting that she be paid her outstanding wages. However, the fact that Mrs. Davidson was not paid her salary for 2 months in 2019 does not mean she waived or has foregone entitlement to payment of the same. There is no basis in law that supports your supposition in that regard. With respect to your comment that "the company's books and records do not support that there is an amount due to Mrs. Davidson from 2019", please advise what records you are referring to. We are advised that the 2 months' unpaid wages from 2019 owed to Mrs. Davidson was known to and discussed with the Company's previous controllers, John Banfield and Andrew Sheer.

2. With regard to the company's books and records, we can advise as follows:
 - a. All paper payroll records have been provided to the Court-appointed Receiver; and If the Trustee requires paper payroll records of the Company in order to complete its duties, including with respect to reviewing proofs of claims of creditors for unpaid wages and vacation pay, then it is incumbent upon the Trustee to obtain the same.
 - b. We are unable to locate electronic records related to the 2019 payroll, which are not in Microsoft Dynamics. We are happy to speak to Mrs. Davidson if she feels she can direct us to other information that would support her claim. The program we referred you to in the email below was Microsoft GP, not Microsoft Dynamics. Microsoft GP had a series of modules, including one for payroll. These files are on the server for Home Solutions, which the Trustee has (or should have) access to.

I am away until April 10 but will take a look at this again on my return.

Thanks very much,

Vanessa

Hi Vanessa,

Thanks for your letter of March 20th. I write with respect to your understanding as set out in the letter that Mr. Davidson resigned from Home Solutions Corporation ("Home Solutions"), which, in fact, is not accurate. Mr. Davidson resigned as a director of Home Solutions, but his employment with Home Solutions, as well as that of Mrs. Davidson, was terminated by Home Solutions. The forbearance agreement entered into between Home Solutions, Mr. Davidson, 2087212 Alberta Ltd., and PDP included terms at section 5.03(d) and (e) that:

- Mr. Davidson would resign as a director of Home Solutions; and
- The employment of both Mr. and Mrs. Davidson with Home Solutions would be terminated.

Indeed, that is what occurred, as confirmed by the following evidence (attached):

- Mr. Davidson's Affidavit sworn August 12 and filed August 15, 2022, in support of Mr. Davidson's (successful) application to set aside the ex parte Mareva injunction and attachment order that PDP obtained against him (this Affidavit was also provided to you in December 2022). Please see paragraphs 7, 37 and 115(f) thereof;
- Chris Simard's email to Larry Ellis of Miller Thomson LLP, counsel for PDP, on May 11, 2022, which includes as attachments:
 - The Forbearance Agreement, signed by Mr. Davidson (Mr. Simard's email requests PDP's signature page of the same), and, as contemplated by the Forbearance Agreement:
 - the fully-executed Resolution of the Directors of Home Solutions dated May 11, 2022, which sets out at Preambles D(ii) and F and paragraph 3 that pursuant to that Resolution, Home Solutions terminated the employment of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, effective immediately;
 - the signed resignations of the directors and officers of Home Solutions;
 - the termination of employment letters to both Mr. and Mrs. Davidson;
- An email from Sam Massie of Miller Thomson LLP to Chris Simard, cc'd to Larry Ellis, on May 12, 2022, thanking Chris for the above-referenced email and providing the fully-executed Forbearance Agreement;
- An email from Andrew Davidson to Jeffrey Deacon of PDP on May 12, 2022, cc'd to Chris Simard, attaching the same documents as were attached to Mr. Simard's email to Mr. Ellis on May 11, 2022;
- The fully-executed Forbearance Agreement, attached as Exhibit "U" to the Affidavit of Jeffrey Deacon sworn July 14, 2022 in support of the ex parte Mareva injunction and attachment order that PDP obtained against Mr. Davidson (which was subsequently set aside by the Court, with costs awarded in favour of Mr. Davidson).

As such, there is no question that Mr. Davidson's employment with Home Solutions was terminated by Home Solutions, by way of a fully-executed Directors' Resolution, in accordance with the Forbearance Agreement.

Your letter of March 20th also requests that we let you know if we have additional information to be provided in support of Mrs. Davidson's claim for outstanding wages, and otherwise to support Mr. Davidson's claim. In that respect:

- With respect to Mrs. Davidson, she has provided sworn Affidavit evidence that there had been two months during her employment with Home Solutions, in or about June and September 2019, when she had not been paid her salary. That evidence supports Mrs. Davidson's claim for outstanding wages. You have not indicated a reason why you have not accepted Mrs. Davidson's evidence in that regard. As Mrs. Davidson does not have access to Home Solutions' books and records (nor does Mr. Davidson), she has no way of proving that Home Solutions did not pay her salary in or about those months; she is effectively being asked to prove a negative. We are advised that at the time, Home Solutions was using an in-house accounting software called Microsoft GP, which included all payroll data and was kept on its local servers, so we expect the Trustee should have access to that software on the company's servers. We are advised that the payroll data will reflect that Home Solutions did not pay Mr. Davidson or Mrs. Davidson for two months in 2019, so as to ensure that the company met its covenant requirements. Will your office check / provide Mrs. Davidson with access to Home Solutions' payroll / accounting records on Microsoft GP so as to allow her to provide further evidence in support of her sworn Affidavit evidence? In the meantime, we are checking as to whether there is any further evidence that Mrs. Davidson can provide to support her sworn evidence already provided that she was not paid salary for two months in 2019.
- You've advised in your letter that "the Company's records indicated that Mr. Davidson would not have been eligible to receive a bonus for 2021." I understand from our telephone conversation on March 22nd that the basis for your comment in this regard is that Mr. Davidson's Executive Employment Agreement states at section 5.2 that "In addition to the Annual Base Salary, the Executive will be eligible to receive a twenty-five thousand dollar ($25,000) year-end bonus if the Company reaches or exceeds fifteen million dollars ($15,500,000) in gross revenue in a fiscal year", and that (we note the inconsistency in the numbers is in the agreement itself), and section 6.3(d) states that upon termination of Mr. Davidson's employment, he is entitled to "An amount equal to two (2) times the Executive's year end bonus eligibility pursuant to section 5.2 above." We note again that Mr. Davidson does not have access to Home Solutions' books and records, but his recollection is that the company's gross revenue for 2021 met the $15 Million threshold. Considering that, would you please advise what the Company's records are that form the basis for your statement that Mr. Davidson was not eligible to receive a bonus for 2021, and provide copies of the same?

Please do not hesitate to contact me to discuss the above further. However, to confirm, in addition to the above and the attached, we do intend to put forth further evidence in support of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson's claims against Home Solutions, and we request that you consider the above, the attached, and any such further evidence with respect to the same. Upon hearing from you with respect to the questions above, we can provide the additional evidence in a more formal manner (eg., further affidavit evidence in support of the proofs of claim) if necessary.

Thanks,

Kelsey

Subject: RE: HSC - in Bankruptcy/ Claims

Hi Kelsey,

Further to your email, we note the following, which would be helpful in further considering these claims:

Andrew Davidson:

1. Is there any additional information setting out that Mr. Davidson's termination was pursuant to section 6.3 of the Executive Employment Agreement? Pursuant to the directors' resolution dated May 11, 2022, signed by all directors of Home Solutions Corporation (the "Company") and included with my email of March 26, 2023, below, the Company terminated Mr. Davidson and Mrs. Davidson as employees of the Company. Section 6.3 of the Executive Employment Agreement (a copy of which is included with Mr. Davidson's proof of claim) applies where the Company terminates Mr. Davidson's employment "for any reason other than the reasons set out ... at sections 6.1 and 6.2" of the Executive Employment Agreement. Sections 6.1 and 6.2 of the Executive Employment Agreement are, respectively, termination of employment for just cause, and termination of employment due to Mr. Davidson's death, neither of which apply to the Company's termination of Mr. Davidson's employment on May 11, 2022. As such, section 6.3 of the Executive Employment Agreement applies.
1. What period is Mr. Davidson claiming unpaid wages for? The amount provided is not consistent with the company's books and records. As set out in Schedule "A" to Mr. Davidson's proof of claim, Mr. Davidson claims unpaid wages (2 months at $15,833.33/month, amounting to $31,667) pursuant to section 6.3(a) of the Executive Employment Agreement for pro-rata Annual Base Salary earned for services rendered up to and including the Termination Date. As per my email of March 26, 2023 below, the Company, at Mr. Davidson's direction, did not pay Mr. Davidson (or Mrs. Davidson) salary for two months in 2019, so as to ensure that the Company met its covenant requirements. Mr. Davidson was the President and CEO of the Company at this time and, through 2087212 Alberta Ltd., he and his wife were the majority shareholders of the Company (as confirmed by the attached corporate searches of the Company and of 2087212 Alberta Ltd.). The fact that Mr. and Mrs. Davidson were not paid their salaries for 2 months in 2019 so as to ensure that the Company met its covenant requirements does not mean they've waived or foregone entitlement to the same; we are not aware of any basis in law that supports your supposition in that regard (as per your comments below regarding Mrs. Davidson's proof of claim). As with Mrs. Davidson's claim for unpaid wages, the Company's payroll records will reflect that Mr. Davidson did not receive two months' wages in 2019. As per my previous email and also noted below in relation to your questions about Mrs. Davidson's claim for unpaid wages, the Company used Microsoft GP (not Microsoft Dynamics) for payroll in 2019; there is a payroll module of that program on the Company's server. With respect to your advice that the amount provided for Mr. Davidson's claim for unpaid wages is "not consistent with the company's books and records", please advise what records you are referring to in that regard. The 2 months' unpaid wages from 2019 owed to Mr. Davidson was known to and discussed with the Company's previous controllers, John Banfield and Andrew Sheer (Mr. Sheer was hired by the Company on or about August 31, 2021; Mr. Banfield was the controller prior to that). Based on our review of the available books and records of the Company, there is nothing to suggest that this amount is owed to Mr. Davidson. Most notably, this amount was not included in the summary of employee payables, which was provided. As Mr. Davidson cannot provide additional information to support this portion of his claim, we intend to issue a partial Notice of Disallowance, which includes this amount. Respectfully, there is no reasonable basis whereby the Trustee may allow a claim, which is undocumented. If Mr. Davidson can provide additional evidence to support his claim, he may do so and we will consider it. Mr. Sheer has indicated that he is not aware of any undocumented amount being outstanding to Mr. Davidson.

2. Do you have additional information in support of Mr. Davidson's claim for unpaid vacation pay? The amount provided is not consistent with the company's books and records. Pursuant to section 5.4 of the Executive Employment Agreement, Mr. Davidson was entitled to paid vacation of seven (7) weeks per year. As set out at Schedule "A" of Mr. Davidson's proof of claim, Mr. Davidson is entitled to 13.66 weeks of vacation that was not taken. Based on his salary, that amounts to $5,288.46 per week, which amounts to $72,240.38, as set out in Schedule "A" to his proof of claim. Specifically, of the seven weeks' vacation each year that Mr. Davidson was entitled to take, he took the following:

- 14.5 vacation days (out of 7 weeks' vacation – or 35 days) in 2019
- 20 vacation days in 2020
- 15 vacation days in 2021
- Totalling 49.5 days vacation taken out of Mr. Davidson's entitlement to 105 days' vacation over that period (i.e., 55.5 days vacation, or 11.1 weeks, not taken, over that period)
- With respect to vacation days for 2022, Mr. Davidson was entitled to have taken 12.68 days up until the termination of his employment on May 11, 2022: [7 weeks / year x 5 days / week = 35 days/year, divided by 12 = 2.916 days per month. January, February, March, April and 0.35 of a month for May = 4.35 months x 2.916 days per month = 12.68 days for 2022 = 2.536 weeks for 2022]
- Total = 11.1 weeks' vacation not taken between 2019-2021 and 2.536 weeks not taken in 2022 = 13.636 weeks vacation not taken by Mr. Davidson and to which he is entitled to vacation pay. At $5,288.46 per week, that amounts to $72,113.44 vacation pay entitlement.

With respect to your comment that "the amount provided is not consistent with the company's books and records", please advise what books and records you are referring to.

We are referring to the Company's payroll records. Please have Mr. Davidson swear an affidavit with respect to his vacation pay or point us to where this has previously been sworn to in a prior affidavit.

3. The 2021 financial statements are attached for your reference. Thank you for providing the 2021 financial statements, which state that the Company's 2021 revenue was $14,988,588, and therefore did not meet the threshold of $15 Million required for the bonus pursuant to section 5.2 of the Executive Employment Agreement. We note that nothing in section 6.3(d) of the Executive Employment Agreement requires that the threshold of $15 Million in section 5.2 be met; section 6.3(d) entitles Mr. Davidson, upon termination of his employment, to "an amount equal to two (2) times the Executive's year end bonus eligibility pursuant to section 5.2 above", and section 5.2 refers to a $25,000 year end bonus, meaning Mr. Davidson is entitled to $50,000 pursuant to section 6.3(d) of the Executive Employment Agreement upon the termination of his employment. Section 6.3(d) specifically references the Executive's year-end bonus eligibility pursuant to section 5.2, which specifically sets out the gross revenue threshold that must be achieved for the executive to receive a bonus. Mr. Davidson was not entitled to receive a bonus. We intend to issue a partial notice of disallowance with respect to this amount.

Jody Davidson:

2. The company's books and records do not support that there is an amount due to Mrs. Davidson from 2019. In addition, the fact that Mrs. Davidson continued to work for the company during this period suggests that she may not have had the expectation that she was owed unpaid wages. Does Mrs. Davidson have any communication to the company requesting payment of the outstanding wages? Mrs. Davidson is the wife of Mr. Davidson, who was the President and CEO of the Company at the time. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson were both indirect majority shareholders of the Company at the time as well, through 2087212 Alberta Ltd. They were not paid their salaries for 2 months in 2019, so as to ensure that the Company met its covenant requirements, which, as indirect majority shareholders of the Company, was in both of their respective interests. To confirm, Mrs. Davidson did not write a letter to her husband requesting that she be paid her outstanding wages. However, the fact that Mrs. Davidson was not paid her salary for 2 months in 2019 does not mean she waived or has foregone entitlement to payment of the same. There is no basis in law that supports your supposition in that regard. With respect to your comment that "the company's books and records do not support that there is an amount due to Mrs. Davidson from 2019", please advise what records you are referring to. We are advised that the 2 months' unpaid wages from 2019 owed to Mrs. Davidson was known to and discussed with the Company's previous controllers, John Banfield and Andrew Sheer. Based on our review of the available books and records of the Company, there is nothing to suggest that this amount is owed to Mrs. Davidson. Most notably, this amount was not included in the summary of employee payables, which was provided. As Mrs. Davidson cannot provide additional information to support her claim, we have issued a formal partial notice of disallowance (attached). Again, respectfully, there is no reasonable basis whereby the Trustee may allow a claim, which is undocumented. If Mrs. Davidson can provide additional evidence to support her claim, she may do so and we will consider it. Mr. Sheer has indicated that he is not aware of any undocumented amount being outstanding.
3. With regard to the company's books and records, we can advise as follows:
 - a. All paper payroll records have been provided to the Court-appointed Receiver; and If the Trustee requires paper payroll records of the Company in order to complete its duties, including with respect to reviewing proofs of claims of creditors for unpaid wages and vacation pay, then it is incumbent upon the Trustee to obtain the same. As you are aware, it is not incumbent upon the Trustee to search out evidence to support claims by individual creditors. It is the responsibility of individual creditors to prove their claims.

- b. We are unable to locate electronic records related to the 2019 payroll, which are not in Microsoft Dynamics. We are happy to speak to Mrs. Davidson if she feels she can direct us to other information that would support her claim. The program we referred you to in the email below was Microsoft GP, not Microsoft Dynamics. Microsoft GP had a series of modules, including one for payroll. These files are on the server for Home Solutions, which the Trustee has (or should have) access to. As a result of Canada Revenue Agency's ongoing payroll audit, we have reviewed the records in our possession. If Mrs. Davidson would like to contact us to direct us to information that she feels is relevant, she may do so.

I am away until April 10 but will take a look at this again on my return.

Thanks very much,

Vanessa

ARTICLE 4 DUTIES

4.1 The Executive shall, during the Term:

- (a) perform such managerial duties and responsibilities for the Company as may be assigned to the Executive commensurate with an executive at the Executive's level and shall have such other obligations, duties, authority and power to do all acts and things as are customarily done by a person holding the same or equivalent position, in companies of similar size to the Company, and at no additional remuneration, shall serve in such other comparable positions with Affiliates as the Board may from time to time reasonably determine; and
- (b) devote the Executive's full time and efforts, unless modified by agreement with the Board, to the business of the Company, and will not engage in consulting work or any trade or business which may compete, conflict or interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties hereunder in any way, provided that the Executive shall be entitled to such annual paid vacation as provided for in section 5.3 and to such personal and sick leave as may be applicable under, or established by, the policies of the Company. Nothing in this section 4.1(b) shall prevent the Executive from being on the board of directors of charitable or non-profit organizations, or other companies' boards of directors as may be approved by the Board, provided that such activities do not interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties described herein.

4.2 In conducting the Executive's duties under this Agreement, the Executive shall report to the Board, as required, or such other designate as the Board may appoint from time to time, and shall act consistently with the directions and policies established by the Board, or a committee thereof.

4.3 The Executive shall be primarily based out of the Company's head office located in Calgary, Alberta.

ARTICLE 5 COMPENSATION

The Annual Base Salary will be subject to annual reviews by the Company, and may be increased in the Company's sole discretion.

5.2 In addition to the Annual Base Salary, the Executive will be eligible to receive a twenty-five thousand dollar ($25,000) year-end bonus if the Company reaches or exceeds fifteen million dollars ($15,500,000) in gross revenue in a fiscal year.

5.3 As of the Effective Date, the Executive shall also be entitled to receive:

- (a) a cell phone and plan paid for in full by the Company;
- (b) a health care spending account of two thousand dollars ($2,000) per year, with no credit or carry over to any subsequent year;
- (c) a vehicle allowance of two thousand dollars ($2,000) per month;
- (d) a gas card for the purposes of purchasing fuel made in connection with the Executive's duties; and
- (e) reimbursement for accounting or legal expenses personally incurred to negotiate, draft and finalize this Agreement.

5.4 The Executive shall be entitled to paid vacation of seven (7) weeks per year. In scheduling such vacation, the Executive shall have regard to the operations of the Company and the reasonable directions of the Board.

5.5 The Executive shall be reimbursed for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses actually and properly incurred by the Executive in connection with the Executive's duties hereunder. For all such expenses the Executive shall provide to the Company statements, invoices and receipts as and when required by it, and in accordance with any policy adopted by the Company from time to time concerning expenses.

5.6 The Executive understands and agrees that all benefits of employment, including short and long-term disability coverage, shall cease as of the Termination Date, and that the Company has no liability for any damages caused by the cessation of such benefits regardless of the reason for the cessation of employment. The Executive further understands and agrees that the Company has no obligation to extend benefit coverage past the Termination Date.

5.7 The Executive shall be entitled to participate in and to receive all rights and benefits under any savings plan, life insurance, disability, medical, dental, health and accident plans, maintained by the Company for its employees generally and for its executives specifically. The Executive understands and agrees that all benefits of employment, including short and long-term disability coverage, shall cease as of the Termination Date, and the Company shall have no liability for any damages caused by the cessation of such benefits, regardless of the reason for the cessation of employment. The Company has no obligation to extend benefit coverage past the Termination Date, and the Company has no liability for any damages the Executive or the Executive's family may suffer as a result of the cessation of benefits.

5.8 The Company will obtain and maintain "keyman" life insurance coverage for the life of the Executive on limits, terms and conditions as discussed and agreed to between the Company and the Executive, provided that specific terms and conditions of such policy and arrangement will include: (a) the Company will pay for the cost and expense of such coverage, including premium costs; (b) to the extent possible under such policy, the proceeds of such policy will first be used to satisfy any outstanding debts of the Company; and (c) to the extent possible under such policy, after the debts of the Company have been satisfied, each shareholder of the Company (including the estate of the Executive) shall be a beneficiary under the policy in a pro rata percentage equal to the shareholder's percentage ownership of the Company.

5.9 The Executive agrees to comply with, and be bound by all the codes, policies and procedures of the Company.

5.10 The Executive acknowledges that the Company may implement new policies or amend current policies and procedures from time to time in its sole discretion, and the Executive agrees to be bound by such new or amended policies.

ARTICLE 6 TERMINATION

6.1 The Company shall be entitled to, upon written notice to the Executive, immediately terminate this Agreement and the Executive's employment with the Company at any time for Just Cause. Save and accept only for payment of the pro-rata Annual Base Salary earned for services rendered up to and including the Termination Date, plus any accrued and unused vacation pay and reimbursable expenses up to and including the Termination Date, nothing further shall be owed to the Executive pursuant to this Agreement, or otherwise.

6.2 The Executive's employment and this Agreement will automatically terminate upon the Executive's death. In such event, and subject to sections 5.7 and 5.8 above, the Company shall pay the Executive's estate an amount equal to the Executive's pro-rata Annual Base Salary earned for services rendered up to and including the Termination Date, plus any accrued and unused vacation pay and reimbursable expenses up to and including the Termination Date, after which nothing further shall be owed to the Executive, or the Executive's estate, pursuant to this Agreement, or otherwise.

6.3 The Company may immediately terminate the Executive's employment and this Agreement, at any time, and for any reason other than the reasons set out above at sections 6.1 and 6.2, by providing written notice of the termination date to the Executive, and the Company shall pay the Executive, within five (5) business days of the Termination Date, the following:

- (a) The pro-rata Annual Base Salary earned for services rendered up to and including the Termination Date;
- (b) All accrued and unused vacation pay, and reimbursable expenses accrued up to and including the Termination Date;
- (c) A retiring allowance equal to twelve (12) months of the Annual Base Salary as of the Termination Date, plus one (1) month of Annual Base Salary for each year or partial year service, to a maximum of twenty-four (24) months of Annual Base Salary;
- (d) An amount equal to two (2) times the Executive's year end bonus eligibility pursuant to section 5.2 above; and
- (e) An amount equal to ten (10%) percent of the retiring allowance set out above at section 6.3(c) to compensate the Executive for the loss of all other benefits and perquisites of employment.

6.4 In exchange for the payment of the amounts set out above, the Executive agrees to sign and provide to the Company a Release substantially in the form attached as Schedule "A" to this Agreement, together with such changes as may be required by the Company, acting reasonably. The payments set out above constitute the entire compensation paid to the Executive upon a termination without cause, and such payments satisfy all of the Company's obligations to the Executive, whether by contract, common law or statute, including without limitation, the Alberta Employment Standards Code.

ARTICLE 7 TERMINATION BY EXECUTIVE

7.1 The Executive may resign from the Executive's employment with the Company by providing the Company with thirty (30) days advance written notice of the Termination Date.

The Company's obligation to compensate the Executive shall cease on the Termination Date, save and accept for payment of the pro-rata Annual Base Salary earned for services rendered up to and including the Termination Date, plus any accrued and unused vacation pay, and any reimbursable expenses owing up to and including the Termination Date. However, the Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to waive the notice provided by the Executive (or any portion thereof) and release the Executive from any further duties with the Company on payment to the Executive of the Annual Base Salary and any accrued and unused vacation pay, and any reimbursable expenses remaining due to the Executive to the end of the thirty (30) day notice period, subject to such withholdings and deductions as may be required under applicable law. Upon the expiry of the said thirty (30) day notice period (or payment in lieu, as applicable), the Company shall have no further obligation to the Executive under this Agreement, or otherwise, and no other compensation shall be payable to the Executive after the expiry of the said notice or payment in lieu thereof.

7.2 In the event of a Change of Control, and within twelve (12) months of a Change of Control, there is an event or series of events that constitute Good Reason, the Executive shall have the right, for a period of sixty (60) days following the event or series of events that constitute Good Reason, to notify the Company, in writing, of the Good Reason, and to terminate his employment and this Agreement upon providing sixty (60) days written notice to the Company of the Termination Date.

7.3 If the Executive elects to terminate this Agreement and the Executive's employment with the Company pursuant to section 7.2 above, the Company shall pay to the Executive within five (5) business days of the Termination Date, the payments provided for in section 6.3 above, in exchange for the Executive signing and providing to the Company a Release substantially in the form of the Release attached as Schedule "A" to this Agreement, together with such changes as may be required by the Company, acting reasonably.

7.4 If the Executive does not elect to exercise the option to terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to section 7.2 above, the Executive's employment shall continue in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, or on such other terms as mutually agreed in writing by the Company and the Executive.

7.5 The parties hereto agree that, because there can be no exact measure of the damages which would occur to the Executive as a result of the termination of employment and termination of this Agreement, such payments contemplated in sections 6 and 7 shall be deemed to constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty and the Company agrees that the Executive shall not be required to mitigate the Executive's damages, nor shall the amount of any payment provided for in this Agreement be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive as a result of employment by another employer after termination, or otherwise.

8. From approximately January 1, 2019 and thereafter, approximately 21% of the voting shares of the Company were owned by a number of parties, who were friends, family or associates of Davidson (the "Minority Shareholders").

The Bankruptcy of Home Solutions

9. On or about May 11, 2022, as is further particularized herein, Deacon became the sole director of Home Solutions.
10. On or about May 19, 2022, as is further particularized herein, Deacon, as the sole director of the Company, assigned the Company into bankruptcy.
11. On or about [●], 2023, the Court of King's Bench of Alberta granted an Order pursuant to section 38 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act authorizing the Plaintiffs to commence this Action. Accordingly, in this Statement of Claim, the Plaintiffs are pursuing the causes of action of Home Solutions.

Background

12. On or about January 1, 2019, through a series of transactions, 208 and the Minority Shareholders purchased all outstanding shares of the Company (the "Share Purchase").

Transaction") from Soren Nielsen and Wendy McAllister, who had previously owned the company through their entities "S. Nielsen Family Trust" and "Sonego Family Trust" (the "Previous Owners"), for approximately $13.3 Million.

13. The Share Purchase Transaction was financed by way of:
 - (a) a $9.6 Million term loan from The Toronto-Dominion Bank ("TD"). TD had been financing the Business for approximately 30 years;
 - (b) a $1.6 Million vendor-take-back ("VTB") mortgage granted by the Previous Owners; and
 - (c) $2.1 Million from the Minority Shareholders.
14. After the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction, the Company's outstanding debt facilities were:
 - (a) the term loan from TD;
 - (b) the VTB from the Previous Owners; and
 - (c) an operating line of credit from TD with a limit of $1,500,000.
15. Davidson and 208 provided unlimited guarantees to TD, of the Company's obligations to TD (the "TD Guarantees").
16. After the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction, the Company experienced a number of financial challenges that limited its growth and constrained its working capital, including but not limited to:
 - (a) the inventory tracking and reporting system used by the Company prior to the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction required improvement and as a result, the Company was unable to efficiently and effectively order product, bid on jobs, complete work and promptly invoice for completed work;

- (b) the job cost estimating system used by the Company prior to the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction required improvement and as a result, the Company was unable to efficiently and effectively bid on jobs and predict its profit margin;
 - (c) in September 2019, the Company's computer system was hacked, causing it to lose significant data, as a result of which its financial reporting became significantly less accurate;
 - (d) the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic in March 2020 greatly impacted the Company's ability to operate effectively and the Company had to transfer its (largely paper-based) record-keeping systems to a fully digital format, effectively overnight;
 - (e) certain of the Company's legacy accounting staff, who were in place with the Company prior to the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction and remained in place immediately thereafter, were unable to effectively implement the solutions that the Company attempted to improve its internal systems, and this further prevented accurate and real-time financial reporting for the Business;
 - (f) the COVID-19 pandemic also impacted the Company by, among other things:
 - (i) causing a large surge in new residential construction in Calgary and Edmonton which led to an increase in the volume of work being booked by the Company, but which it lacked sufficient working capital to effectively complete; and
 - (ii) causing significant global supply chain bottlenecks, with the result that the Company's customers (commercial and residential builders) could not complete and sell their completed products as quickly as they normally would, slowing down their receipt of revenues and causing them to slow down their payments of amounts owed to suppliers like the Company.
17. Despite the Company's efforts to rectify the problems over which it had control, the foregoing challenges negatively impacted the Company's financial performance after the closing of the Share Purchase Transaction. In November 2019, TD transferred the administration of its loans to the Company into its "special loans" group, signifying that the Company was in distressed circumstances and was potentially in need of financial restructuring or refinancing.

18. The global COVID-19 pandemic presented significant ongoing challenges for the Company and the industry in which it operated, and by mid-2021, the Company realized that it needed to obtain new financing to increase the amount of working capital available to it, to meet its financial challenges.

Refinancing Efforts

19. TD advised the Company that it would continue to support the Company by providing the existing operating line after any refinancing, but that it would not provide increased operating credit to the Company. The Company engaged Diamond Willow Advisory ("Diamond Willow") in mid-May 2021, to assist it in looking for alternative sources of financing.
20. Diamond Willow contacted PDP and other potential lenders in connection with the refinancing of the Company.

PDP's Due Diligence

21. Commencing in June, 2021, PDP expressed an interest in providing refinancing to the Company, and in connection therewith, it:
 - (a) conducted extensive written and oral communications with Diamond Willow and the Company;
 - (b) was provided with, and reviewed, numerous financial reports, financial statements and other data regarding the Company, provided by Diamond Willow and the Company; and
 - (c) conducted a comprehensive due diligence review of the Company and all aspects of the Business, including the Company's financial systems and financial performance.

22. All of the information about Home Solutions that was provided to PDP was true, current and accurate at the time it was provided, and Davidson believed all such information to be true, current and accurate at the time it was provided.
23. By late 2021, at the latest, PDP ought to have had comprehensive knowledge of the Company and all aspects of the Business, including the Company's financial systems and financial performance (including but not limited to the Company's financial challenges and distressed circumstances, and the causes thereof), as a result of its lengthy due diligence process and the voluminous information provided by the Company and Diamond Willow. However, as was evidenced by later events, PDP, and specifically Deacon, lacked the business knowledge, experience and expertise to fully understand the Company, the industry in which it operated and the impact on the Company of the business environment and circumstances prevalent in late 2021 and 2022.
24. PDP decided to fund the loan described below based on its own independent judgment and analysis of the lending opportunity.

The Loan Transaction

25. On January 12, 2022, PDP provided a demand term loan to the Company in the amount of $9.135 Million (the "Loan"). Part of the proceeds of the Loan (approximately $6,536,020.64) were used to pay out TD's existing term loan, part of the proceeds of the Loan (approximately $1,520,299.31) were used to fully repay the TD demand loan, and the balance of the proceeds of the Loan (approximately $1,078,680.05) were utilized by the Company as working capital (this latter amount would be deposited at TD and reduce the Company's operating balance by that amount).
26. After the closing of the Loan, the Company commenced reporting to PDP in accordance with the terms of the January 12, 2022 credit agreement entered into between the parties (the "Credit Agreement"). By way of this reporting, the Company continued to provide to PDP (as it had before the closing of the Loan transaction) current and accurate information about the Company's financial circumstances and performance.

27. Davidson provided to PDP a personal guarantee of the Loan, limited to 15% of the obligations of the Company to PDP (the "Personal Guarantee").
28. 208 provided to PDP an unlimited guarantee of the Loan (the "208 Guarantee"). To secure the 208 Guarantee, 208 pledged to PDP its shares in the Company, which represented a 79% ownership interest in the Company (the "Pledged Shares").

PDP's and Deacon's Breaches of the Credit Agreement and Other Breaches

29. PDP delayed the closing of the Loan, from November 2021 to December 2021 and finally to January 12, 2022. The impact of these delays was to further exacerbate the Company's ongoing financial challenges. Had PDP closed the Loan transaction in November 2021 (as it had promised the Company it would), the Company would have been much better positioned to deal with challenges that it faced in early 2022.
30. After the closing of the Loan, the Company's financial challenges continued, and in fact increased. The Company's builder customers slowed down their payments of the Company's invoices to an extent even greater than had been experienced in 2021. As a result, the Company's revenue was lower than forecast, based on lower than anticipated collections of accounts receivable.
31. The Company required additional liquidity to viably carry on in business and "weather the storm" until industry conditions improved. Because of its lack of liquidity and its consequent inability to purchase inventory and staff jobs, in January and February 2022, the Company's customers cancelled a number of previously-placed (but not yet completed) purchase orders.
32. All of these developments were reported accurately and faithfully to PDP. Further, PDP engaged two accountants to work with the Company to identify and address the Company's financial challenges and to report independently to PDP; these accountants were given complete and unfettered access to the Company's computer network and its books and records.

33. Commencing in about mid-March 2022, PDP and Deacon began taking active steps to undermine the position of Davidson and to seek to appropriate, for the exclusive benefit of PDP, the economic interest of 208 and the Minority Shareholders in the Company. These active steps included, but were not limited to:
- (a) communicating about the Company, including its financial circumstances, with other investors in the Company, to the exclusion of Davidson, 208 and the Minority Shareholders and without the consent of the Company;
 - (b) communicating about the Company, including its financial circumstances, with the Previous Owners, to the exclusion of Davidson, 208 and the Minority Shareholders and without the consent of the Company;
 - (c) communicating about the Company, including its financial circumstances, with parties unknown to Davidson, 208, and the Minority Shareholders, to the exclusion of Davidson, 208 and the Minority Shareholders and without the consent of the Company;
 - (d) disclosing to such parties confidential information about the Company, without the consent of the Company; and
 - (e) concealing such steps and denying to Davidson and to the Company that they had taken such steps, when confronted with proof that they had done so.
34. The conduct of PDP and Deacon constituted, among other things:
- (a) breaches by PDP of its contractual obligations under the Credit Agreement;
 - (b) breaches by PDP of its duty of honest and good faith performance of its obligations under the Credit Agreement;
 - (c) breaches by PDP and Deacon of their obligations of confidentiality owed to the Company;
 - (d) a breach of the duty of care owed by PDP and Deacon to the Company; and

(e) intentional interference with the economic relations of the Company.

35. As the financial condition of the Company continued to be impaired, PDP and Deacon began intimidating Davidson, the Other Directors and the Minority Shareholders, including by threatening that PDP would sue them personally and they would face significant personal liability if they did not resign their director and officer positions with the Company and their ownership of the Company to PDP.

Efforts to Restructure the Business

36. In late April and early May 2022, the Company was preparing to file a Notice of Intention to Make a Proposal pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act ("NOI"), to ensure that the Company would be restructured in an orderly way with supervision by the Court, so as to ensure that the interests of all stakeholders of the Company were appropriately protected.
37. The Company informed PDP and Deacon of this plan and Deacon reacted angrily, stating that PDP would never allow that to happen, and repeating his threats and personal intimidation against Davidson, the Other Directors and the Minority Shareholders. PDP repeated its demands that 208 and the Minority Shareholders deliver their shareholdings in the Company to PDP.
38. PDP and Deacon advised the Company and Davidson that they would never allow the Company to commence and conduct NOI proceedings under the direction of Davidson and the Other Directors. They also advised Davidson that they would never allow him to retain control of the Company, or repurchase the Company in NOI proceedings; rather, they would ensure that they would "credit bid" the Company to retain control of it.
39. At the same time that PDP and Deacon were intimidating and threatening Davidson, the Other Directors and the Minority Shareholders, they were representing that if control of the Company was handed over to PDP, PDP would restructure the Company and allow the Business to carry on.

PDP Takes Control of the Company

40. The Company and PDP held negotiations over the weekend of May 7 and May 8, 2022 and by Monday morning, May 9, the parties had reached consensus on the main points of an agreement, to be memorialized in a formal written forbearance agreement. These main points were:
- (a) 208 would transfer the Pledged Shares to PDP;
 - (b) the directors of the Company would sign a resolution (the "Resolution") terminating the employment of Davidson and Mrs. Davidson with Home Solutions and appointing Deacon as a director, and then they would resign all their positions with the Company, leaving Deacon as the sole director;
 - (c) Deacon would cause the Company to engage a Chief Restructuring Officer ("CRO") and file an NOI, in which the Company would conduct a sale process for its business and assets;
 - (d) the parties would all assist in maximizing the value of the Company, for the benefit of its stakeholders;
 - (e) PDP would submit a stalking horse bid in the NOI sale process, in which it would offer to purchase the Company or its assets, and fully assume the debt owed to PDP and the debt owed to TD; and
 - (f) PDP would forbear from enforcing the Loan, the Personal Guarantee and the 208 Guarantee, for six months.
41. Prior to and after the execution of the Forbearance Agreement (defined below), Deacon and PDP made the following representations to Davidson, the Company, the Other Directors and other parties:
- (a) PDP had an investor who was prepared to inject $4 million or $5 million in capital into the Company;

- (b) Deacon and PDP would ensure that the necessary funding was in place to meet the Company's liquidity needs, including its payroll costs;
- (c) PDP would initiate NOI proceedings for Home Solutions by May 24, 2022 and appoint a CRO to oversee the NOI proceedings;
- (d) in the NOI proceedings, an orderly restructuring process would be followed which would include a Court-supervised sale process; and
- (e) PDP would submit a stalking horse bid in the NOI sale process, in which it would offer to fully assume the debt owed to PDP and the debt owed to TD;

(collectively, the "Representations").

42. Prior to and after the execution of the Forbearance Agreement, Deacon and PDP omitted to tell Davidson, the Company or the Other Directors that:

- (a) PDP did not have access to the funds necessary to allow the Company to continue in business and to fund the NOI process, contrary to the Representations;
- (b) PDP needed to reach agreement with one or more third parties to obtain such funds, and it had not yet done so; and
- (c) PDP would not or could not perform its obligations under the Forbearance Agreement, unless it was able to finalize such agreements with one or more third parties;

(collectively, the "Omissions").

43. When Deacon and PDP made the Representations to Davidson, the Company and the Other Directors, they knew or ought to have known that the Representations were untrue. They made the Representations willfully, to induce Davidson, the Company and the Other Directors to enter into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of the Company to PDP. Davidson, the Company and the Other Directors reasonably relied on the Representations and were thereby caused to enter into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of the Company to PDP. As a result, Davidson, the Company and the Other Directors suffered damages.

44. When Deacon and PDP omitted to tell Davidson, the Company and the Other Directors about the Omissions, they knew or ought to have known of the Omissions. They failed to inform Davidson, the Company and the Other Directors of the Omissions willfully, to induce Davidson, the Company and the Other Directors to enter into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of the Company to PDP. Davidson, the Company and the Other Directors reasonably relied on the absence of the Omissions and were thereby caused to enter into the Forbearance Agreement, pass the Resolution and hand over control of the Company to PDP. As a result, Davidson, the Company and the Other Directors suffered damages.
45. By willfully making the Representations and Omissions, PDP and Deacon breached a duty of care owed to Davidson, the Company and the Other Directors.
46. On May 11, 2022, Davidson and the Other Directors held a board meeting and passed the Resolution, appointing Deacon as a director of the Company. Subsequently on that day, the Company, Davidson, 208 and PDP executed the Forbearance Agreement and thereafter, Davidson and the Other Directors resigned all their positions and offices with the Company, leaving Deacon as the sole director of the Company.
47. Thereafter, Deacon was in sole and complete control of the Company. Despite this fact, Deacon never caused the Alberta Corporate Registry to be updated to reflect his tenure as the sole director of the Company, commencing on May 11, 2022.
48. In the Forbearance Agreement, the Company, Davidson, 208 and PDP agreed to the following terms, among others:
 - (a) 208 would transfer its Pledged Shares representing a 79% interest in the Company, to PDP;
 - (b) Davidson would call a meeting of the directors of the Company at which the directors would pass the Resolution, which would do the following:

- (i) authorize the Company to enter into the Forbearance Agreement;
 - (ii) appoint Deacon as a director of the Company;
 - (iii) appoint a CRO to be selected by PDP, who would be authorized to commence the NOI proceedings and the sales process therein;
 - (iv) accept the resignation of Davidson as a director and officer of the Company;
and
 - (v) authorize the Company to terminate Davidson and his wife, Mrs. Davidson, as employees of the Company;
- (c) on or before May 31, 2022, PDP would initiate the NOI proceedings, and a sale process therein, which would include a stalking horse bid that would fully assume the entire debt owed by the Company to PDP and the entire debt owed by the Company to TD, along with assuming other debts to be determined by PDP;
- (d) PDP would procure interim financing to pay the costs of the NOI and the sale process therein;
- (e) PDP would ensure that the Company was sufficiently funded to meet its payroll expenses; and
- (f) PDP would support efforts by the Company to seek releases in the NOI proceedings for the benefit of the present and former directors and officers of the Company, among other parties.

Deacon's Failure to Competently Manage the Company and PDP's and Deacon's Further Breaches

49. At all material times, including but not limited to the times at which:

- (a) Deacon and PDP made the Representations and the Omissions;
- (b) PDP negotiated the Forbearance Agreement;

(c) PDP entered into the Forbearance Agreement; and

(d) Deacon accepted his appointment as a director of the Company;

PDP and Deacon knew or ought to have known, by virtue of the Company's reporting to them, of the Company's financial circumstances.

50. Deacon was completely ill-equipped and ill-prepared to manage a construction supply business like Home Solutions. He had no experience in taking on such a task. After he gained complete control of the Company, Deacon refused or neglected to take the basic steps required to allow the Company to remain in business, including:

(a) maintaining strong communications, or any substantial communications at all, with customers, suppliers and staff;

(b) rejecting offers of assistance from Davidson that would have helped him keep the business operating;

(c) severely disrupting the Company's staff and operations by inviting the Previous Owners to attend at the Company's offices, unannounced, and communicate directly with the Company's staff; and

(d) working to collect the Company's accounts receivable so that the Company continued to receive revenue.

51. After Deacon gained complete control of the Company, Deacon and PDP completely refused, neglected and failed to:

(a) engage a CRO;

(b) commence NOI proceedings; and

(c) provide or procure the funding necessary to allow the Company to cover its costs, and the costs of the promised NOI proceedings.

52. Deacon was in over his head. He did not know how to operate a company like Home Solutions that was experiencing financial distress. After May 11, 2022, he panicked and failed to take even the most rudimentary steps to stabilize the Company.
53. When Deacon and PDP failed to reach the agreements with third parties that PDP needed to be able to perform its obligations under the Forbearance Agreement, Deacon caused the Company to assign itself into bankruptcy on May 19, 2022. This was only 8 days after Deacon took over complete control of the Company. Had Deacon not panicked, and had he instead taken the advice and assistance that was being offered by Davidson and others, and exercised prudent business judgment, the Company could have been restructured and saved.
54. Had PDP faithfully performed its obligations under the Forbearance Agreement, the Company would have successfully restructured and continued in business, for the benefit of its employees, customers and suppliers.

Causes of Action

55. Deacon's conduct described above constituted, among other things:
 - (a) breaches of his duty of care and his fiduciary duty as the sole director of the Company;
 - (b) breaches of his duty of care owed to the Company, and indeed gross negligence; and
 - (c) intentional interference with the economic relations of the Company.
56. PDP's conduct described above constituted, among other things:
 - (a) breaches of the Credit Agreement and the Forbearance Agreement;
 - (b) breaches of its duty of honest and good faith performance of its obligations under the Credit Agreement and the Forbearance Agreement;

- (c) breaches of its duty of care owed to the Company, and indeed gross negligence; and
 - (d) intentional interference with the economic relations of the Company.
57. The conduct of Deacon and of PDP caused the Company significant damages and, indeed, put the Company out of business.
58. On May 20, 2022, PDP sent a notice to Home Solutions and Davidson, cynically alleging that Home Solutions and Davidson had breached the Forbearance Agreement. On the basis of these allegations, PDP purported to terminate the Forbearance Agreement. PDP took this step to attempt to excuse its and Deacon's numerous and egregious breaches described above, including PDP's complete failure to perform its obligations under the Forbearance Agreement.
59. PDP made numerous efforts to purchase the Company or its assets out of bankruptcy, but these efforts apparently failed because PDP lacked the funds to do so, and could not reach agreement with third parties to allow it to do so.

Punitive, Aggravated, and Exemplary Damages

60. In all of these circumstances, the conduct of PDP and Deacon to intentionally inflict economic harm on the Company was aggravated and reckless conduct and entitles the Company to punitive, aggravated, and exemplary damages.

Remedy sought:

61. In accordance with an Order granted by the Court of King's Bench of Alberta pursuant to section 38 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act authorizing the Plaintiffs to, inter alia, commence this Action on behalf of the estate of the Company, the Plaintiffs seek:
- (a) damages against each of PDP and Deacon in the amount of $9,135,000 or such further and other amount as may be proven at trial;

- (b) punitive, aggravated, and exemplary damages for the conduct of the PDP and Deacon against each of them, in the amount of $500,000 or such further or other amount as this Honourable Court deems appropriate;
- (c) costs of this Action;
- (d) interest in accordance with the Judgment Interest Act (Alberta), and
- (e) such further and other relief as this Honourable Court deem just.
