Re King Street Company.

① I am satisfied that the relief sought on this application is reasonably necessary for the continued operation of the applicants. In my view it is the bare minimum required to keep the applicants' "lights on".

② The Administration charge of $100,000 and the DLO charge of $70,000 are both reasonable and necessary for the less than 10 days covered by this Initial Order. Further,

The amount of DFL
pending being advanced
of $100,000 for the period
covered by this Initial Order is necessary and reasonable.

③ The Initial Order is granted on the terms of the attached.

④ The comeback hearing is scheduled for 11:30 AM on November 13, 2020.
